We have forgotten about that sacred meeting space between the Settler ship and the Indigenous canoe odagahodhes where we originally agreed on the Two Row and where today we need to return to talk about the impacts of its violation Odagahodhes highlights the Indigenous values that brought us to the sacred meeting place in the original treaties of Turtle Island particularly the Two Row Wampum and the sharing process that was meant to foster good relations from the beginning of the colonial era The book follows a series of Indigenous sharing circles relaying teachings by Gae Ho Hwako and the responses of participants scholars authors and community activists who bring their diverse experiences and knowledge into reflective relation with the teachings Through this practice the book itself resembles a teaching circle and illustrates the important ways tradition and culture are passed down by Elders and Knowledge Keepers The aim of this process is to bring clarity to the challenges of truth and reconciliation Each circle ends by inviting the reader into this sacred space of Odagahodhes to reflect on personal experiences stories knowledge gifts and responsibilities By renewing our place in the network of spiritual obligations of these lands Odagahodhes invites transformations in how we live to enrich our communities nations planet and future generations

Piikuni William Big Bull, 2018-09-26 I wish to pay homage to our people who have suffered through hardship and strife in a land of plenty. I have fortunately been exposed to our history and recent historic events that need to be put down on paper or they will be lost. I will qualify this statement by writing this book as a first hand observer and participant as a niitsitapiikowan. The many hours of quality time spent in the natural environment and travelling down the roads with our senior experts of niitsitapyapii the Real ways has given me a rare privilege to be schooled and ultimately corrected on thinking I believed I knew something about. Through our relatives history has tied us to significant events that have shaped our present political and social way of life as a people. I come from a unique history and background in an era of time that experienced the most significant changes in the Americas by sitting down and capturing my thoughts it will lead the reader into a connection with my ancestors and help to explain how events and circumstances have changed our way of life as a people.
