Horrors of a Voice (object a) Tristram Adams, 2024-07-11 This book reframes the Lacanian object a voice as a horrific register of alterity The object gaze has received as it does in Jacques Lacan's work more commentary than voice Yet recently voice has garnered interest from multiple disciplines The book intervenes in the Slovenian school's commentary of the object voice in terms of two questions audition and corporeality This intervention synthesizes psychoanalysis with recent theorizing of the horror of philosophy In this intervention the object a voice is argued to resonate in lacunae epistemological voids that evoke horror in the subject Biological and evolutionary perspectives on voice genre horror film and literature music videos close readings of Freudian and Lacanian case studies and textual analysis of ancient philosophy texts all contribute to an elucidation of the horrors of the object a voice Vox Exo *Kolor. The Idea of Europe Shane Weller,2021-06-03 There is an increasingly widespread sense that Europe is in crisis Notions of a shared European identity and a common European culture appear to be losing their purchase This crisis is often seen as a conflict between a cosmopolitan and a nationalist idea of Europe The reality is however considerably more complex as the long history of the idea of Europe reveals In The Idea of Europe A Critical History Shane Weller explores that history from its origins in classical antiquity to the present day Drawing on a wide range of sources he demonstrates that all too often seemingly progressive ideas of Europe have been shaped by Eurocentric culturally supremacist and even racist assumptions Seeking to break with this troubling pattern Weller calls for an idea of Europe shaped by a spirit of self critique and by an openness to those cultures that have for so long been dismissed as non European

Architecture Martin van der Linden, 2021-03-12 The question of what architecture is answered in this book with one sentence Architecture is space created for human activities The basic need to find food and water places these activities within a larger spatial field Humans have learned and found ways to adjust to the various contextual difficulties that they faced as they roamed the earth Thus rather than adapting humans have always tried to change the context to their activities Humanity has looked at the context not merely as a limitation but rather as a spatial situation filled with opportunities that allows through intellectual interaction to change these limitations Thus humanity has created within the world their own contextual bubble that firmly stands against the larger context it is set in The key notion of the book is that architecture is space carved out of and against the context and that this process is deterministic

A Bend in the River V. S. Naipaul, 2019-12-03 Widely hailed as the Nobel Prize winning author's greatest work this novel takes us into the life of a young Indian man who moves to an isolated town at the bend of a great river in a newly independent African nation Brilliant The New York Times In this haunting masterpiece of postcolonial literature short listed for the Booker Prize in 1979 Naipaul gives us a convincing and disturbing vision of a place caught between the dangerously alluring modern world and its own tenacious past Salim is doubly an outsider in his new home an unnamed country that resembles the Congo by virtue of his origins in a community of Indian merchants on the coast of East Africa Uncertain of his future he has come to take possession of a local trading post he has naively purchased sight unseen But what Salim discovers on his arrival is a ghost town reduced to ruins in the wake of the recently departed European colonizers and in the process of being reclaimed by the surrounding forest Salim struggles to build his business against a backdrop of growing chaos conflict ignorance and poverty His is a journey into the heart of Africa into the same territory explored by Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness nearly eighty years earlier but witnessed this time from the other side of the tragedy of colonization Salim discovers that the nation's violent legacy persists through the rise of a dictator who calls himself the people's savior but whose regime is built on fear and lies
