Heart To Heart New Poems Inspired By 20th Century American Art:

Heart to Heart Jan Greenberg, 2001 A compilation of poems by Americans writing about American art in the twentieth century including such writers as Nancy Willard Jane Yolen and X J Kennedy Heart to Heart New Poems Inspired by Twentieth-Century American Art Jan Greenberg, 2001-01 Seeking Connections Janet Revell Barrett, 2023 Music connects the lives of students teachers and school communities in many ways Music is also integrally related to other art forms history culture and other subjects commonly taught in schools These relationships deserve critical attention particularly as educators seek to reorient their curricula and pedagogy toward the pressing aims of social justice Seeking Connections encourages interdisciplinarity as a capacity to be exercised an orientation or habit of mind that teachers and students can develop This capacity depends upon viewing music as permeable recognizing that music influences related ways of knowing just as related ways of knowing influence music This book invites teachers to create educational experiences that engage students in exploring an expansive relationship with music With imaginative examples drawn from diverse musical genres visual art poetry and historical cases Seeking Connections provides thoughtful principles models and instructional strategies to deepen students understandings of musical works and inspire interdisciplinary inquiry throughout elementary and secondary music programs as well as settings in music teacher education and professional development Deeper Writing Robin W. Holland, 2012-11-15 Your best tool for building fluent writers Make your classroom s writing time really count with smart and compelling texts designed to enhance the instruction you re already providing Whether you teach 4th grade 12th or anything in between you ll foster authentic writing every day building fluency and teaching students to write for a variety of purposes top priorities in the Common Core Look for 45 quick writes in an easy to use framework with suggested grade levels Carefully selected mentor texts that provide models and inspiration Guidelines for crafting your own quick writes tailored to your students needs Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading      Writing Across the Curriculum

Shelley S. Peterson,2008-08-08 As the amount of curriculum in today s classrooms expands and teaching time seems to shrink teachers are looking for ways to integrate content area and writing instruction In this revised and expanded edition of Writing Across the Curriculum Shelley Peterson shows teachers how to weave writing and content area instruction together in their classrooms The author provides practical and helpful ideas for classroom teachers and content area specialists to easily incorporate writer s workshop while teaching in their subject area New features in this second edition include internet websites that can be used to teach writing e g wiki s weblogs and digital storytelling examples from grades 4 8 classrooms that show how science social studies health and mathematics teachers can also be teachers of poetry narrative and non narrative writing new assessment scoring guides information on working with struggling writers and supporting English Language Learners graphic organizers templates and mini lessons that engage students in learning      Good Books Matter

Larry Swartz,Debbie Nyman,2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children s books appealing and appropriate this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books strategies for specific grade levels suggestions for extension and tips for assessment This teacher friendly book is organized around the major genres traditional literature picture books nonfiction poetry and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers Throughout the book teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers This comprehensive book is rooted in the belief that educators must consider and offer a wide range of choice to ensure that students read good books It argues that the choices children make about what they read should be governed by their interests and desire to learn not by a grade or reading level      Integrating Literature in the

Content Areas Sharon Kane,2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries
