Palomar Gilbert Hernandez, 2003 From the pages of Love Rockets an intimate epic from south of the border

Heartbreak Soup and Other Stories Gilbert Hernandez, 1987      Alternative Comics Charles Hatfield, 2009-11-12 In the 1980s a sea change occurred in comics Fueled by Art Spiegelman and Franco Mouly's avant garde anthology Raw and the launch of the Love Rockets series by Gilbert Jaime and Mario Hernandez the decade saw a deluge of comics that were more autobiographical emotionally realistic and experimental than anything seen before These alternative comics were not the scatological satires of the 1960s underground nor were they brightly colored newspaper strips or superhero comic books In Alternative Comics An Emerging Literature Charles Hatfield establishes the parameters of alternative comics by closely examining long form comics in particular the graphic novel He argues that these are fundamentally a literary form and offers an extensive critical study of them both as a literary genre and as a cultural phenomenon Combining sharp eyed readings and illustrations from particular texts with a larger understanding of the comics as an art form this book discusses the development of specific genres such as autobiography and history Alternative Comics analyzes such seminal works as Spiegelman's Maus Gilbert Hernandez's Palomar The Heartbreak Soup Stories and Justin Green's Binky Brown Meets the Holy Virgin Mary Hatfield explores how issues outside of cartooning the marketplace production demands work schedules can affect the final work Using Hernandez's Palomar as an example he shows how serialization may determine the way a cartoonist structures a narrative In a close look at Maus Binky Brown and Harvey Pekar's American Splendor Hatfield teases out the complications of creating biography and autobiography in a substantially visual medium and shows how creators approach these issues in radically different ways      The Love and Rockets Companion Marc Sobel, Kristy Valenti, Gilbert Hernandez, Jaime Hernandez, 2013-08-03 The Love and Rockets Companion 30 Years and Counting contains three incredibly in depth and candid interviews with creators Gilbert Jaime and Mario Hernandez one conducted by writer Neil Gaiman Coraline one conducted some six years into the comic's run by longtime L and one conducted by the book's author spanning Gilbert's Jaime's and Mario's careers and looking to the future of the ongoing series with a follow up conversation with Groth This book has foldout family trees for both Gilbert's Palomar and Jaime's Locas storylines unpublished art a character glossary which is handy considering that Gilbert alone has created 50 characters highlights from the original series anarchic letters columns timelines and the most wide ranging Hernandez Brothers bibliography ever compiled including album and DVD covers posters and more      From the Edge Allison E. Fagan, 2016-07-14 Chicana o literature frequently depicts characters who exist in a vulnerable liminal space living on the border between Mexican and American identities and sometimes pushed to the edge by authorities who seek to restrict their freedom As this groundbreaking new study reveals the books themselves have occupied similarly precarious positions as Chicana o literature has struggled for economic viability and visibility on the margins of the American publishing industry while Chicana o writers have grappled with editorial practices that compromise their creative autonomy From the Edge reveals the tangled textual histories behind some of the most cherished works in the Chicana o literary canon tracing the negotiations between authors editors and publishers that determined how these books appeared in print Allison Fagan demonstrates how the texts surrounding the authors words from editorial prefaces to Spanish language glossaries from cover illustrations to reviewers blurbs have crucially shaped the reception of Chicana o literature To gain an even richer perspective on the politics of print she ultimately explores one more border space studying the marks and remarks that readers have left in the margins of these books From the Edge vividly demonstrates that to comprehend fully the roles that ethnicity language class and gender play within Chicana o literature we must understand the material conditions that governed the production publication and reception of these works By teaching us how to read the borders of the text it demonstrates how we might perceive and preserve the faint traces of those on the margins

Love and Rockets Gilbert Hernandez,Jaime Hernandez,2013-09-21 Five women stand in a police lineup four of them are garishly dressed impressively endowed superwomen perfectly normal because this is after all the cover of a comic book A closer look however reveals a fifth woman who seems thoroughly out of place mousy in bathrobe and curlers smoking a cigarette she appears to have been suddenly yanked from her breakfast table Surely this diminutive dowdy woman is here by mistake or is she From the very first cover of the very first issue of Love and Rockets in 1982 Gilbert and Jaime Hernandez have created artwork that has subverted contradicted and celebrated the history of the comic book medium inverting familiar tropes and creating some of the most iconic images in comics over the past three and a half decades inviting fans and readers into their world Amazingly many of the covers created by Gilbert and Jaime Hernandez for the various iterations of Love and Rockets over the past 35 years have never been collected or have only been reprinted in black and white Love and Rockets The Covers will not only rectify this problem but present them without trade dress logos marketing hype etc allowing the original cover illustrations to communicate on their own

Chance in Hell Gilbert Hernandez,2007-09-17 Chance in Hell tells the story about a little orphan girl who lives in the slum of slums Nobody knows who she is or where she s from but her fellow shantytown inhabitants collectively look over her The three act story follows our heroine as she is adopted by a decent man who raises her well and she eventually marries a kind well to do man only to discover that she can t relate to the good life and the comforts it provides This is the first in a series of standalone stories depicting the fictional filmography of Gilbert s Love and Rockets character the B movie actress Fritz
