Heathcliff And The Great Hunger Studies In Irish Culture:

Heathcliff and the Great Hunger Terry Eagleton, 1995 Heathcliff and the Great Hunger examines Irish culture from Swift to Joyce in the light of the tortuous often tragic history that conditioned it Ireland's Great Famine in

Irish-American History Mary Kelly, 2013-11-18 Ireland's Great Famine in Irish American History Enshrining a Fateful Memory offers a new concise interpretation of the history of the Irish in America Author and distinguished professor Mary Kelly's book is the first synthesized volume to track Ireland's Great Famine within America's immigrant history and to consider the impact of the Famine on Irish ethnic identity between the mid 1800s and the end of the twentieth century Moving beyond traditional emphases on Irish American cornerstones such as church party and education the book maps the Famine's legacy over a century and a half of settlement and assimilation This is the first attempt to contextualize a painful memory that has endured fitfully and unquestionably throughout Irish American historical experience Marxist Criticism of the Hebrew Bible: Second Edition Roland Boer, 2014-12-18 The only large scale critical introduction to Western Marxism for biblical criticism Roland Boer introduces the core concepts of major figures in the tradition specifically Althusser Gramsci Deleuze and Guattari Eagleton Lefebvre Lukács Adorno Bloch Negri Jameson and Jameson Throughout Boer shows how Marxist criticism is relevant to biblical criticism in terms of approaches to the Bible and in the use of those approaches in the interpretation of specific texts In this second edition Boer has added chapters on Deleuze and Guattari and Negri Each chapter has been carefully revised to make the book more useful on courses while maintaining challenges and insights for postgraduate students and scholars Theoretical material has been updated and sharpened in light of subsequent research and a revised conclusion considers the economies of the ancient world in relation to biblical societies Writing the

Frontier John McCourt, 2015 Writing the Frontier Anthony Trollope between Britain and Ireland explores Trollope's relationship with Ireland offering an in depth exploration of his time in Ireland contextualising his Irish novels and short stories and examining his ongoing interest in the country its people and its relationship with Britain Narrating Empire and Domesticity in Neo-Victorian Fiction Marlena Tronicke, 2025-05-12 Fiction classified as neo Victorian has steadily emerged as a crucial mode of British cultural production It is no coincidence that this most recent Victorian renaissance is taking shape in a climate of widespread empire nostalgia with imperial colonial legacies being relegated to a distant elsewhere In its critical re visitations of the nineteenth century neo Victorianism has the potential to intervene in this often selective memory of Britain's imperial past Nevertheless systematic re readings of empire have so far played a comparatively minor role in neo Victorian scholarly debate This monograph addresses this lacuna by examining how neo Victorianism negotiates constructions of empire in conjunction with the domestic Drawing on a range of neo Victorian novels as well as their Victorian intertexts and bringing these into dialogue with postcolonial theory it asks how neo Victorian fiction engages with perpetuates or subverts Victorian imaginaries of urban British centres in opposition to remote imperial margins It examines why domesticity broadly understood as ideologically charged concepts of family home and belonging based on formations of gender sexuality and class can never be constituted independently of empire In addition the book raises questions regarding neo Victorianism s larger potentiality of narrating empire suggesting that it is precisely the disorienting moments that constitute a characteristically neo Victorian mode of exploring the entanglements of empire and domesticity

Elizabeth Bowen Neil Corcoran,2004-09-16 Explores how Bowen adapts Irish Protestant Gothic as a means of interpreting Irish experience during the Troubles of the 1920s and the Second World War and also as a way of defining the defenselessness of those enduring the Blitz in wartime London She employs versions of the Jamesian child as a way of offering a critique of the treatment of children in the European novel of adultery and indeed implicitly of the Jamesian child itself Corcoran relates the various kinds of return and reflex in her work notably the presence of the supernatural but also the sense of being haunted by reading to both the Freudian concept of the return of the repressed and T S Eliot s conception of the auditory imagination as a return to the origin

Literature in a Time of Migration Josephine McDonagh,2021-05-13 Literature in a Time of Migration offers a profound rethinking of British fiction in light of the new practices of human mobility that reshaped the nineteenth century world Building on the growing critical engagement with globalization in literary studies it confronts the paradox that at a time when transnational human movement occurred globally on an unprecedented scale British fiction appeared to turn inward to tell stories of local places that valorized stability and rootedness In contrast this book reveals how literary works from the end of the Napoleonic Wars to the advent of the New Imperialism were active components of a culture of colonization and emigration Fictional texts as print commodities were enmeshed in technologies of transport and communication and innovations in literary form were spurred by the conditions and consequences of human movement Examining works by Scott Charlotte Bront Dickens and George Eliot as well as popular contemporaries Mary Russell Mitford John Galt and Thomas Martin Wheeler this volume demonstrates how literary texts overlap with an agenda set in public discussions of colonial emigration that they also helped to shape Debates about assisted emigration forced and free migration colonization settlement and the removal of native peoples figure in fictions in complex ways Read alongside writings by emigration theorists practitioners and enthusiasts for colonization fictional texts reveal a powerful and sustained engagement with British migratory practices and their worldwide consequences Literature in a Time of Migration is a timely reminder of the place and importance of migration within British cultural heritage

Trials of Irish History Evi Gkotsaridis,2006 This book focuses on the phenomenon of historical revision in Ireland The new conceptualisations and interpretations of Irish historiography are analysed and assessed

The Great Barrier Reef James Bowen,Margarita Bowen,2011-02-17 One of the world s natural wonders the Great Barrier Reef stretches more than 2000 kilometres in a maze of coral reefs and islands along Australia s north eastern coastline Now unfolding the fascinating story behind its mystique this 2002 book provides for the first time a comprehensive cultural and ecological history of European impact from early voyages of discovery to developments in Reef science and management Incisive and a delight to read in its thorough account of the scientific social and environmental consequences of European impact on the world's greatest coral reef system this extraordinary book is sure to become a classic Dramas of Culture Wayne Jeffrey Froman, John Burt Foster, 2009-01-01 Dramas of Culture is the first volume in the TEXTURES Philosophy Literature Culture series to study drama as a cultural effect linking theatricality to main currents of continental philosophical thinking cultural critique and literary theory and interpretation from Aristotle to contemporary cultural studies The twelve interwoven interdisciplinary essays focus on the dramatic strategies deployed in cultural discourse and on the cultural meanings embedded in key dramatic writings in the Western repertoire The Palgrave Handbook of Steam Age Gothic Clive Bloom, 2021-02-03 By the early 1830s the old school of Gothic literature was exhausted Late Romanticism emphasising as it did the uncertainties of personality and imagination gave it a new lease of life Gothic the literature of disturbance and uncertainty now produced works that reflected domestic fears sexual crimes drug filled hallucinations the terrible secrets of middle class marriage imperial horror at alien invasion occult demonism and the insanity of psychopaths It was from the 1830s onwards that the old gothic castle gave way to the country house drawing room the dungeon was displaced by the sewers of the city and the villains of early novels became the familiar figures of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Dracula Dorian Grey and Jack the Ripper After the death of Prince Albert 1861 the Gothic became darker more morbid obsessed with demonic lovers blood sucking ghouls blood stained murderers and deranged doctors Whilst the gothic architecture of the Houses of Parliament and the new Puginesque churches upheld a Victorian ideal of sobriety Christianity and imperial destiny Gothic literature filled these new spaces with a dread that spread like a plague to America France Germany and even Russia From 1830 to 1914 the period covered by this volume we saw the emergence of the greats of Gothic literature and the supernatural from Edgar Allan Poe to Emily Bronte from Sheridan Le Fanu to Bram Stoker and Robert Louis Stevenson Contributors also examine the fin de siècle dreamers of decadence such as Arthur Machen M P Shiel and Vernon Lee and their obsession with the occult folklore spiritualism revenants ghostly apparitions and cosmic annihilation This volume explores the period through the prism of architectural history urban studies feminism hauntology and much more Horror as Poe teaches us is the soul of the plot Writing and Victorianism J.B. Bullen, 2014-06-06 Writing and Victorianism asks the fundamental question what is Victorianism and offers a number of answers taken from methods and approaches which have been developed over the last ten years This collection of essays written by both new and established scholars from Britain and the U S A develops many of the themes of nineteenth century studies which have lately come to the fore touching upon issues such as drugs class power and gender Some essays reflect the interaction of word and image in the nineteenth century and the notion of the city as spectacle others look at Victorian science finding a connection between writing and the growth of psychology and psychiatry on the one hand and with the power of scientific materialism on the other As well as key figures such as Dickens Tennyson and Wilde a host of new names are introduced including working class writers attempting to define themselves and writers in the Periodical press who once anonymous exercised a great influence over Victorian politics taste and social ideals From these observations there emerges a need for self definition in Victorian writing History ancestry and the past all play their part in figuring the present in the nineteenth century and many of these studies foreground the problem of literary social and psychological identity

The Poetry of Eavan Boland Pilar Villar-Argaiz, 2008 Pilar Villar Arg iz s sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way the key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland s politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty University College Dublin from the Introduction This monograph is an original and important contribution to the growing body of critical studies devoted to one of Ireland s major living poets Eavan Boland see Haberstroh 1996 Hagen Zelman 2005 It details the controversies that were prompted by the inclusion of Ireland in a postcolonial framework and then tests the application of an array of cogent theories and concepts to Boland s work In an attempt to explore the richness and complexity of her poetry Villar Arg iz discusses the contradictory pulls in her desire to surpass and yet at the same time epitomize Irish nationality Boland s remarkable achievement as a poet lies in her ability to stretch by constant negotiations and re appropriations the borderlines of inherited definitions of nationality and femininity Chapters include Re examining the postcolonial Gender and Irish studies Towards an understanding of Boland s poetry as minority postcolonial discourse A post nationalist or a post colonial writer Boland s revisionary stance on Mother Ireland To a third space Boland s imposed exile as a young child The subaltern in Boland s poetry Boland s mature exile in the US An Orientalist writer and Conclusion Review This rigorous and informative exploration of the poetry of Eavan Boland by Pilar Villar Arg iz proves the validity of drawing upon the resources of postcolonial theory to illuminate her work Through the lens of postcolonialism the deep seated preoccupations and complex imaginative foundations of Boland s writing are carefully excavated and interpreted Villar Arg iz moreover in her observant close readings of poems from different phases of the author s oeuvre reveals how recurrent issues such as the problem of national and cultural identity the ethical responsibility of engaging with the past and the quest for fluidity and openness are variously engaged with both aesthetically and philosophically Villar Arg iz s sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland s politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty Department of English University College Dublin Ireland About the Author Dr Pilar Villar Arg iz lectures in the Department of English Philology at the University of Granada Spain where she obtained a European Doctorate in English Studies Irish Literature She is the author of Eavan

Boland's Evolution As an Irish Woman Poet An Outsider within an Outsider's Culture The Edwin Mellen Press 2007 She has also published extensively on the representation of femininity in contemporary Irish women's poetry on cinematic representations of Ireland and on the theoretical background and application of feminism and postcolonialism to the study of Irish literature In addition Dr Villar Argiz has co edited two books on English literature Irish Research Series No 51

English Topographies in Literature and Culture, 2016-08-01 English Topographies in Literature and Culture takes a spatial approach to the study of English culture In order to gain a fresh perspective on constructions of English cultural identity the collection treats geography social spaces and spatial practices as well as representations of space and place as complex constellations termed cultural topographies Individual contributions focus on writing landscapes London psychogeography heritage discourses urban planning and idiosyncratic spatial practices such as suburban gardening In line with the affective turn the investigated cultural topographies transcend the dichotomy between the material and the immaterial through embodiment and embeddedness displaying a new sensitivity in textual visual and aural representations that seek to transcend an anthropocentric perspective Space thus emerges as both political and shaped by affect The Science of Starving in Victorian Literature, Medicine, and Political Economy Andrew Mangham, 2020-04-24 The Science of Starving in Victorian Literature Medicine and Political Economy is a reassessment of the languages and methodologies used throughout the nineteenth century for discussing extreme hunger in Britain Set against the providentialism of conservative political economy this study uncovers an emerging dynamic way of describing literal starvation in medicine and physiology No longer seen as a divine punishment for individual failings starvation became in the human sciences a pathology whose horrific symptoms registered failings of state and statute Providing new and historically rich readings of the works of Charles Kingsley Elizabeth Gaskell and Charles Dickens this book suggests that the realism we have come to associate with Victorian social problem fiction learned a vast amount from the empirical materialist objectives of the medical sciences and that within the mechanics of these intersections we find important re examinations of how we might think about this ongoing humanitarian issue Charitable Words Margaret Preston, 2004-10-30 Mismanaged by local authority in the 19th century Dublin lacked sufficient industrial development to provide adequate employment Dublin's charitable workers attempted to improve the lives of the thousands who flocked to the city in search of relief As a means to examining the hidden incentives of charity the author offers a discussion of the language of charity in this setting She notes how contemporary notions of race class and religion influenced how Ireland's philanthropists thought of and related to the poor While much has been written on the perceived racial inferiority of the Celt as compared to the Anglo Saxon Preston suggests that the Irish upper classes in seeking to gain equal footing with the British elite adopted the same language to describe the poor Intense sectarian strife marred Irish charities and undermined the smooth operation of social services Preston offers insight by focusing on two women philanthropists who battled for the souls of Ireland's children She also explores those who remained above the fray such as the Religious Society of Friends in Ireland who offered aid to all regardless of creed Within the charitable records of this group Preston contends that one can see how the Society changed over time and that in Ireland the industrial revolution as well as the 1798 Rebellion contributed to the Society adapting to the mainstream Finally the women of charity helped to establish a modern nursing system for Ireland and this work details their efforts at turning nursing into a respectable profession for women
