The Oxford History of the Ancient Near East Karen Radner, Nadine Moeller, Daniel T. Potts, 2020 Offers a comprehensive comparative and integrative approach to the history of Western Asia and northeast Africa Integrates the latest epigraphic research and archaeological discoveries Uses states and communities as the focal points of the narrative Fully illustrated with detailed cartography for each chapter Written by an international team of leading scholars Book jacket

No Place Like Home: Ancient Near Eastern Houses and Households Laura Battini, Aaron Brody, Sharon R. Steadman, 2022-10-06 This book had its genesis in a series of 6 popular and well attended ASOR conference sessions on Household Archaeology in the Ancient Near East The 18 chapters are organized in three thematic sections Architecture as Archive of Social Space The Active Household and Ritual Space at Home Ritual, Performance, and Politics in the Ancient Near East Lauren Ristvet, 2015 In this book Lauren Ristvet rethinks the narratives of state formation by investigating the interconnections between ritual performance and politics in the ancient Near East She draws on a wide range of archaeological iconographic and cuneiform sources to show how ritual performance was not set apart from the real practice of politics it was politics Rituals provided an opportunity for elites and ordinary people to negotiate political authority Descriptions of rituals from three periods explore the networks of signification that informed different societies From circa 2600 to 2200 BC pilgrimage made kingdoms out of previously isolated villages Similarly from circa 1900 to 1700 BC commemorative ceremonies legitimated new political dynasties by connecting them to a shared past Finally in the Hellenistic period the traditional Babylonian Akitu festival was an occasion for Greek speaking kings to show that they were Babylonian and for Babylonian priests to gain significant power Early Urbanism on the Syrian Euphrates Lisa Cooper, 2006-08-21 Studying archaeological evidence from sites covering over 200 kilometres of the banks of the Euphrates River Lisa Cooper's excellent monograph explores the growth and development of human settlement in the Euphrates River Valley of Northern Syria during the Early and Middle Bronze Ages from circa 2700 to 1550 BC Cooper focuses on the nature and development of the urban politics that existed in the area during these periods and highlights two principal inter related characteristics of the Euphrates Valley the study of specific aspects of Euphrates culture such as the nature of urban secular and religious architecture mortuary remains and subsistence pursuits to underline the unique character of this region during the Early and Middle Bronze Ages the striking resilience of its cultural traditions over many centuries despite the political instability and environmental degradation Including studies on the tribal background of the populations the economy the unique geography of the Euphrates the ethnic and social structure of its inhabitants and the influences of states surrounding it this is a unique and invaluable resource for all students of archaeology and ancient history Society and the Individual in Ancient Mesopotamia Laura Culbertson, Gonzalo Rubio, 2024-10-21 This book provides an overview of social life in ancient Mesopotamia bringing together leading experts to survey key social domains of daily life as well as major non dominant social groups It serves as a point of entry to the current research in this field

Working at Home in the Ancient Near East Juliette Mas, Palmiro Notizia, 2020-05-21 This volume examines the organization scale and the socio-economic role played by institutional and non institutional households as well as the social use of domestic spaces in Bronze Age Mesopotamia

Rural Archaeology in Early Urban Northern Mesopotamia Glenn M. Schwartz, 2015-12-31 This book presents the results of the extensive excavation of a small rural village from the period of emerging cities in upper Mesopotamia modern northeast Syria in the early to middle third millennium BC Prior studies of early Near Eastern urban societies generally focused on the cities and elites neglecting the rural component of urbanization This research represents part of a move to rectify that imbalance Reports on the architecture pottery animal bones plant remains and other varieties of artifacts and ecofacts enhance our understanding of the role of villages in the formation of urban societies the economic relationship between small rural sites and urban centers and status and economic differentiation in villages Among the significant results are the extensive exposure of a large segment of the village area revealing details of spatial and social organization and household economics The predominance of large scale grain storage and processing leads to questions of staple finance economic relations with pastoralists and connections to developing urban centers

The Late Bronze and Early Iron Age Ceramic Sequence at Tell Fekheriye (Syria) Costanza Coppini, 2024-05-20 The importance and primary role of the site of Tell Fekheriye Syria has always been emphasized in the research history of Ancient Near Eastern Archaeology As known from excavations and written sources the site was an important centre in the Mittani and the Middle Assyrian periods However a systematic study and analysis of the pottery has never been accomplished although the material offers a local and regional perspective on the ceramic production of a Late Bronze Age urban centre This book fills this gap offering an insight into the pottery from the site The material provides a crucial set of data from Northern Mesopotamia shedding new light on the Late Bronze Age and in the phase of power alternation between the Mittani Kingdom and the Middle Assyrian state This work illustrates the chrono typological changes in the ceramic assemblages and provides an analysis of the functions related to the ceramic vessels in context with other findings sealings In the end the analysis of ceramic material as a starting point leads the reader to the investigation of topics related to society and social behaviours economy and political assets and administration in this urban centre for roughly 300 years of its history

Building between the Two Rivers: An Introduction to the Building Archaeology of Ancient Mesopotamia Stefano Anastasio, 2020-08-27 This volume introduces university students and scholars of Near Eastern archaeology to Building archaeology methods as applied to the context of Ancient Mesopotamia It helps the reader understand the principles underlying this discipline and to realise what knowledge and skills are needed beyond those that are specific to archaeologists

Mobile Pastoralism and the Formation of Near Eastern Civilizations Anne Porter, 2012-03-26 This book explores the roles of mobile and sedentary members of the ancient world in ancient Mesopotamia

The Archaeology of Syria Peter M. M. G. Akkermans, Glenn M.

Schwartz,2003 This was the first book to present a comprehensive review of the archaeology of Syria from the end of the Paleolithic period to 300 BC Syria has become a prime focus of field archaeology in the Middle East in the past thirty years and Peter Akkermans and Glenn Schwartz discuss the results of this intensive fieldwork integrating them with earlier research Alongside the major material culture types of each period they examine important contributions of Syrian archaeology to issues like the onset of agriculture the emergence of private property and social inequality the rise and collapse of urban life and the archaeology of early empires All competing interpretations are set out and considered alongside the authors own perspectives and conclusions

Animals, Ancestors, and Ritual in Early Bronze Age Syria

Glenn M. Schwartz,2024-02-01 Animals Ancestors and Ritual in Early Bronze Age Syria An Elite Mortuary Complex from Umm el Marra edited by Johns Hopkins professor Glenn M Schwartz is a final report of the excavation of Tell Umm el Marra in northern Syria conducted in 1994 2010 It is likely the site of ancient Tuba capital of a small kingdom in the Early and Middle Bronze periods in the Jabbul plain between Aleppo and northern Mesopotamia Its study advances our understanding of early Syrian complex society beyond the big cities of Antiquity Of particular importance in the Early Bronze excavations are the results from the site necropolis tombs of high ranking persons containing objects of gold silver and lapis lazuli Separate installations hold kungas donkey x onager hybrids sometimes along with human infants This site provides the first archaeological attestation of the kunga equids unique in the archaeology of third millennium Syria and Mesopotamia

Death and Burial within the Ancient Levant (4500-550 BCE) Jennie Bradbury,2025-03-28 This book offers a comprehensive survey of burial practices in the ancient Levant and challenges some of the assumptions behind previous attempts to find a normative burial practice Exploring the dazzling variety of ways in which the living deal with the dead this book utilises big data projects and legacy data to highlight the sheer diversity of burial practices in the ancient Levant Theorizing that some types of burial are significantly underrepresented this volume argues for the necessity of analysing both the existing and non existing data at multiple scales of analysis Thus rather than attempting to identify a normative or typical burial the volume highlights the multitude of ways in which the living approached and interacted with the dead across the ancient Levant from the Late Chalcolithic to the Iron Age fifth to first millennia BCE In doing so it acknowledges and foregrounds variability not only in terms of so called atypicality but also in terms of burials and practices that have been mistakenly lumped together in the drive to produce narratives of similarity and normative behaviour This volume also explores some of the broader patterns and temporal spatial shifts that shed light on wider changes in the ways in which humans perceived of the dead and themselves the living over time While predominantly focused on the modern regions of Israel Jordan Lebanon Palestine and Syria this book also engages with these broader themes across Western Asia and the Mediterranean adopting an interdisciplinary and cross cultural approach to understanding temporal and spatial variability This book is of relevance for students and researchers of Ancient Western Asia as well as those of the archaeology of death and burial      Archaeozoology of the Near East Marjan Mashkour, Mark Beech, 2017-02-28 This two part volume brings together over 60 specialists to present 31 papers on the latest research into archaeozoology of the Near East The papers are wide ranging in terms of period and geographical coverage from Palaeolithic rock shelter assemblages in Syria to Byzantine remains in Palestine and from the Caucasus to Cyprus Papers are grouped into thematic sections examining patterns of Palaeolithic and Neolithic subsistence in northern Mesopotamia Anatolia and the Iranian plateau Palaeolithic to Neolithic faunal remains from Armenia animal exploitation in Bronze Age urban sites new evidence concerning pastoralism nomadism and mobility aspects of domestication and animal exploitation in the Arabian peninsula several case studies on ritual animal deposits and specific analyses of patterns of animal exploitation at urban sites in Turkey Palestine and Jordan This important collection of significant new work builds on the well established foundation of previous ICAZ publications to present the very latest results of archaeozoological research in the prehistory of this formative region in the development of animal exploitation      A Companion to Assyria Eckart Frahm, 2017-06-12 A Companion to Assyria is a collection of original essays on ancient Assyria written by key international scholars These new scholarly contributions have substantially reshaped contemporary understanding of society and life in this ancient civilization The only detailed up to date introduction providing a scholarly overview of ancient Assyria in English within the last fifty years Original essays written and edited by a team of respected Assyriology scholars from around the world An in depth exploration of Assyrian society and life including the latest thought on cities art religion literature economy and technology and political and military history      Making Ancient Cities Andrew T. Creekmore, III, Kevin D. Fisher, 2014-04-28 This volume investigates how the structure and use of space developed and changed in cities and examines the role of different societal groups in shaping urbanism Culturally and chronologically diverse case studies provide a basis to examine recent theoretical and methodological shifts in the archaeology of ancient cities The book's primary goal is to examine how ancient cities were made by the people who lived in them The authors argue that there is a mutually constituting relationship between urban form and the actions and interactions of a plurality of individuals groups and institutions each with their own motivations and identities Space is therefore socially produced as these agents operate in multiple spheres      Size Matters - Understanding Monumentality Across Ancient Civilizations Federico Buccellati, Sebastian Hageneuer, Sylva van der Heyden, Felix Levenson, 2019-07-30 When talking about monuments size undeniably matters or does it But how else can we measure monumentality Bringing together researchers from various fields such as archaeology museology history sociology Mesoamerican studies and art history this book discusses terminological and methodological approaches in both theoretical contributions and various case studies While focusing on architectural aspects this volume also discusses the social meaning of monuments the role of forced and free labour as well as textual monumentality The result is a modern interdisciplinary take on an important concept which is notoriously difficult to define      Households in Context Caitlín Eilís Barrett, Jennifer Carrington, 2024-01-15 Households in Context shifts the focus from monumental temples tombs and elite material and visual culture to households and domestic life to provide a crucial new perspective on everyday dwelling practices and the interactions of families and individuals with larger social and cultural structures A focus on households reveals the power of the everyday the critical role of quotidian experiences objects and images in creating the worlds of the people who live with them The contributors to this book share contemporary research on houses and households in both Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt to reshape the ways we think about ancient people s lived experiences of family community and society Households in Context places the archaeology and history of Greco Roman Egypt in dialogue with research on dwelling daily practice and materiality to reveal how ancient households functioned as laboratories for social political economic and religious change Contributors Youssri Abdelwahed Richard Alston Anna Lucille Boozer Paola Davoli David Frankfurter Jennifer Gates Foster Melanie Godsey Darlene L Brooks Hedstrom Sabine R Huebner Gregory Marouard Miriam M ller Lisa Nevett B rang re Redon Bethany Simpson Ross I Thomas Dorothy J Thompson

Living and Dying in Mesopotamia Alhena Gadotti, Alexandra Kleinerman, 2024-10-17 Exploring life death and the afterlife in Mesopotamia Alhena Gadotti and Alexandra Kleinerman examine how life and death experiences continually developed over the course of nearly three millennia of Mesopotamian history To achieve this the book follows the life cycle of the people of the Tigris and Euphrates River valleys from 3000 BCE to 300 BCE from birth through death and beyond This book is the first to interrogate the relationships between living and dying through case studies and primary evidence Including letters written by both women and men the book allows readers to enter the minds of the ancients First the authors focus on life through topics such as the rituals surrounding birth marriage and religion The authors then examine the common causes of death the rituals associated with death and the Mesopotamian views of the netherworld its gods and inhabitants Concepts of gender fluidity both in life and death are considered alongside evidence from epigraphic data Illustrating daily life as a multifaceted subject affected by time space location socioeconomics and gender this book creates a window into the conditions and concerns of the Mesopotamian people
