NOTICE OF HEARING

The Notice of Hearing form is used when the Tribal Court decides to hear the case and needs to inform all parties when the hearing on the matter will take place and any deadlines for the parties to submit evidence on the matter. The Notice of Hearing is served by the Tribal Court Clerk by mail or personal service and service is verified by having the Certificate of Service form filled out and attached to the notice so it gives the location on when was served and when they were served. The Certificate of Service will accompany the Notice of Hearing form when it is served.

The parties on the Notice of Hearing form are determined by how the case commenced:

- If a Default case filed, the Petitioner is the person who filed the petition and the Respondent is the party the Petitioner has a dispute with.
- If a Complaint case filed, the Plaintiff is the person filing the complaint and the Defendant is the person the Plaintiff has alleged has violated Tribal Law.
