Hollywood's Chosen People Daniel Bernardi, 2012-09-17 As studio bosses directors and actors Jews have been heavily involved in film history and vitally involved in all aspects of film production Yet Jewish characters have been represented onscreen in stereotypical and disturbing ways while Jews have also helped to produce some of the most troubling stereotypes of people of color in Hollywood film history In Hollywood s Chosen People The Jewish Experience in American Cinema leading scholars consider the complex relationship between Jews and the film industry as Jews have helped to construct Hollywood s vision of the American dream and American collective identity and have in turn been shaped by those representations Editors Daniel Bernardi Murray Pomerance and Hava Tirosh Samuelson introduce the volume with an overview of the history of Jews in American popular culture and the American film industry Multidisciplinary contributors go on to discuss topics such as early Jewish films and directors institutionalized anti-Semitism Jewish identity and gossip culture and issues of Jewish performance on film Contributors draw on a diverse sampling of films from representations of the Holocaust on film to screen comedy filmmakers and writers including David Mamet George Cukor Sidney Lumet Edward Sloman and Steven Spielberg and stars like Barbra Streisand Adam Sandler and Ben Stiller The Jewish experience in American cinema reveals much about the degree to which Jews have been integrated into and contribute to the making of American popular film culture Scholars of Jewish studies film studies American history and American culture as well as anyone interested in film history will find this volume fascinating reading

Cultures of Taste/Theories of Appetite: Eating Romanticism T. Morton, 2004-01-16 Cultures of Taste Theories of Appetite brings two major critical impulses within the field of Romanticism to bear upon an important and growing field of research appetite and its related discourses of taste and consumption As consumption in all its metaphorical variety comes to displace the body as a theoretical site for challenging the distinction between inside and outside food itself has attracted attention as a device to interrogate the rhetoric and politics of Romanticism In brief the volume initiates a dialogue between the cultural politics of food and eating and the philosophical implications of ingestion digestion and excretion

The Man In The Seventh Row Brian Pendreigh, 2013-12-05 The Man in the Seventh Row tells the deeply affecting story of Roy Batty a film fan who loves the cinema just a little too much No matter the movie The Graduate Brief Encounter The Magnificent Seven Roy finds himself sucked from his seventh row seat into the heart of the action on the big screen His life has spiralled into The Purple Rose of Cairo in reverse A fantasy come true or a living nightmare A strange and beguiling novel about films and those who love and live them Ian Rankin What they're saying A most unusual novel proving emphatically that life is possible both inside and outside the cinema It's a very nice blend of the real the fictional and the dream world and I really don't think I've read anything quite like it before Barry Norman hugely enjoyable Pacy sharp and witty in the proper sense it is a novel that baby boomers and film buffs will strongly relate to and all enthusiasts of unusual or original fiction will take great pleasure in Andrew Marr Pendreigh's infectious love of cinema and brilliant wordcraft combine to make for a singularly enthralling tale of one man's journey through the hardships of life Literally Jen a wholly likeable read Pendreigh's novel is a pleasing dissection of man's all too modern need for escape in darkened auditoriums that posits him somewhere between David Thomson's Suspects and Guy Bellamy's The Secret Lemonade Drinker Paul Dale The List I loved it a terrific read definitely one for fans of film Janice Forsyth Movie Cafe Radio Scotland From the author The book is sub-titled The Movie Lover's Novel with good reason as it certainly celebrates a love of the movies You'll doubtless be familiar with many of the classic movies featured but it might also introduce you to one or two less familiar films Ultimately The Man in the Seventh Row it is about childhood and adulthood about obsession and love and about loss and the possibility of redemption Set in Scotland and

Who Says Love Doesn't Bite? Morgan Key, 2012-09 I was too busy thinking about the new guy I didn't notice the fact that the door closest to me was open until I walked into it Rubbing the red mark on my forehead I peered around the solid oak door It was then that I noticed the person standing on the front porch I went bright pink realising that he had just seen me walk into a door The new guy was standing on our front porch his arms crossed at his chest a faint smile tugging at the corner of his mouth Way to go Alina Alina Dimir comes from a long line of Vampires Her family moved from Romania ten years ago and since then she's had to deal with her fifteen older and somewhat annoying siblings not to mention all the rumours about her family that have been floating around school Her everyday routine is broken by the arrival of the mysterious new guy at school Lupul Daciana Alina can't stop thinking about him or his blonde tipped messy black hair and let's be honest his lips So when she's forbidden to befriend him Alina is torn Does she follow her Coven's laws and stay away from him Or does she let herself give into her emotions Is it fate or just a coincidence that Lupul once lived in Romania too Is it possible for Alina and Lupul to bypass her family's laws and have a future together or is it doomed from the beginning
