Heartland Ron Welburn, 1981 Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume 1 Philip A. Greasley, 2001-05-30 The Dictionary of Midwestern Literature Volume One surveys the lives and writings of nearly 400 Midwestern authors and identifies some of the most important criticism of their writings The Dictionary is based on the belief that the literature of any region simultaneously captures the experience and influences the worldview of its people reflecting as well as shaping the evolving sense of individual and collective identity meaning and values Volume One presents individual lives and literary orientations and offers a broad survey of the Midwestern experience as expressed by its many diverse peoples over time Philip A Greasley's introduction fills in background information and describes the philosophy focus methodology content and layout of entries as well as criteria for their inclusion An extended lead essay The Origins and Development of the Literature of the Midwest by David D Anderson provides a historical cultural and literary context in which the lives and writings of individual authors can be considered This volume is the first of an ambitious three volume series sponsored by the Society for the Study of Midwestern Literature and created by its members Volume Two will provide similar coverage of non author entries such as sites centers movements influences themes and genres Volume Three will be a literary history of the Midwest One goal of the series is to build understanding of the nature importance and influence of Midwestern writers and literature Another is to provide information on writers from the early years of the Midwestern experience as well as those now emerging who are typically absent from existing reference works Translating Jazz Into Poetry Erik Redling, 2017-02-20 The study develops a new theoretical approach to the relationship between two media jazz music and writing and demonstrates its explanatory power with the help of a rich sampling of jazz poems Currently the mimetic approach to intermediality e g the notion that jazz poetry imitates jazz music still dominates the field of criticism This book challenges that interpretive approach It demonstrates that a mimetic view of jazz poetry hinders readers from perceiving the metaphoric ways poets rendered music in writing Drawing on and extending recent cognitive metaphor theories Lakoff Johnson Turner Fauconnier it promotes a conceptual metaphor model that allows readers to discover the innovative ways poets translate melody dynamics tempo mood and other musical elements into literal and figurative expressions that invite readers to imagine the music in their mind's eye i e their mind's ear Dudley Randall, Broadside Press, and the Black Arts Movement in Detroit, 1960-1995 Julius E. Thompson, 2005-02-15 In 1965 Dudley F Randall founded the Broadside Press a company devoted to publishing distributing and promoting the works of black poets and writers In so doing he became a major player in the civil rights movement Hundreds of black writers were given an outlet for their work and for their calls for equality and black identity Though Broadside was established on a minimal budget Randall's unique skills made the press successful He was trained as a librarian and had spent decades studying and writing poetry most importantly Randall was totally committed to the advancement of black literature The famous and relatively unknown sought out Broadside including such writers as

Gwendolyn Brooks Margaret Walker Mae Jackson Lance Jeffers Etheridge Knight Sonia Sanchez Nikki Giovanni Audre Lorde and Sterling D Plumpp His story is one of battling to promote black identity and equality through literature and thus lifting the cultural lives of all Americans Zen Poetry Lucien Stryk,Takashi Ikemoto,2007-12-01 From the editors of Zen Poems of China and Japan comes the largest and most comprehensive collection of its kind to appear in English This collaboration between a Japanese scholar and an American poet has rendered translations both precise and sublime and their selections which span fifteen hundred years from the early T ang dynasty to the present day include many poems that have never before been translated into English Stryk and Ikemoto offer us Zen poetry in all its diversity Chinese poems of enlightenment and death poems of the Japanese masters many haiku the quintessential Zen art and an impressive selection of poems by Shinkichi Takahashi Japan s greatest contemporary Zen poet With Zen Poetry Lucien Stryk and Takashi Ikemoto have graced us with a compellingly beautiful collection which in their translations is pure literary pleasure illuminating the world vision to which these poems give permanent expression Black Book Publishers in the United States Donald Franklin Joyce,1991-10-14 Since the second decade of the nineteenth century there have been black owned book publishers in the United States addressing the special concerns of black people in ways that other book publishers have not This is the first work to treat extensively the individual publishing histories of these firms Though largely ignored by historians the story of these publishers as documented in this study reveals fascinating details of literary history as well as previously unknown facts about the contribution of blacks to Western civilization Donald Franklin Joyce offers comprehensive profiles of forty six publishing companies selected for inclusion through an examination of major bibliographic works book advertisements periodical literature and business directories Each profile contains information on the company s publishing history books and other publications that were released information sources about the firm other titles issued libraries holding titles produced by the publisher and officers and addresses where appropriate Entries are arranged alphabetically by the publisher name while an appendix presents a geographic listing of the firms and an index offers author title and subject access This work will be an important resource for students scholars and researchers interested in cultural and intellectual black history as well as public and academic libraries seeking specific information on individual publishing companies Making Callaloo Charles Henry Rowell,2014-05-06 This important book collects a wide range of fiction and poetry that first appeared in the pages of Callaloo the premier literary journal devoted to African diaspora literature and to Black literary and cultural studies Founded in 1976 and still edited by Charles Henry Rowell Texas A M University College Station Callaloo is both national and international in terms of scope and readership It is also as Henry Louis Gates Jr observed without doubt the most elegantly edited journal of African and African American literature of today Making Callaloo an anthology ideally suited for all readers studying modern Black literature includes the work of Ralph Ellison Alice Walker Rita Dove Yusef Komunyakaa Lucille Clifton Terry McMillan Ai Nathaniel Mackey John Edgar Wideman Michael S Harper Charles Johnson Thylas Moss and many other
