Hearts Progress A Lesbian Memoir:

The Heart's Progress Claudia Bepko, 1997 A new classic of lesbian experience a rare and unflinchingly honest story of love as it has never been told before Harriet Lerner author of The Dance of Anger Claudia Bepko is co author of the bestselling Too Good for Her Own Good Intimate Reading Janet Mason Ellerby, 2001-06-01 Maintaining that the memoir requires a more personal relationship with its readers and critics Janet Mason Ellerby calls for intimate readings She begins this work with her own memoir narrating a long held secret her pregnancy at age sixteen her life in the Florence Crittendon Home for Unwed Mothers and the birth and adoption of her first daughter She goes on to tell about the aftermath of this pivotal time in and the painful consequences of keeping a secret Included are detailed analyses of more than a dozen contemporary memoirs by American women all of which share a common purpose the disclosure of secrets Ellerby describes the costs of this secrecy and explores the possibilities of breaking intractable codes of silence It is a study that is germane to the intellectual and emotional lives of all women This book is the first serious exploration of a genre that has gained acceptance with an expanding audience of readers Ellerby maintains that the efforts of memoirists to plumb their painful pasts has cultural significance and precipitates important social work The memoir joins fiction and autobiography as an important commentary on modern life The Heart's Progress Claudia Bepko, 1998 A unique glimpse into the growth of one woman's lesbian identity Like many lesbians Claudia Bepko was a young woman when she first admitted to having homosexual feelings but it took a lifeless heterosexual marriage and a fierce attraction to a female colleague before she was able to live openly in a relationship with another woman In this moving memoir she relives the painful and poignant awakenings she experienced in her early life from her blue collar Catholic upbringing and alcoholic father to her exhilaration and confusion as she entered college during the height of the sexual revolution where she encountered her first lovers Molly a fellow student and David whom she would eventually marry The different among us tell our stories because we are all only human and so much need a witness to the truth writes Bepko Having built a career in the early years of the women's movement she found the courage to question her heterosexuality Approaching middle age in the midst of lesbian chic she finds herself finally able to move from an identity shrouded in otherness to a life that celebrates the freedom and normalcy of loving whomever one is destined to love Autoethnography as Method Heewon Chang, 2016-07 This method's book will guide the reader through the process of conducting and producing an autoethnographic study through the understanding of self other and culture Readers will be encouraged to follow hands on though not prescriptive steps in data collection analysis and interpretation with self reflective prewriting exercises and self narrative writing exercises to produce their own autoethnographic work Chang offers a variety of techniques for gathering data on the self from diaries to culture grams to interviews with others and shows how to transform this information into a study that looks for the connection with others present in a diverse world She shows how the autoethnographic process promotes self reflection understanding of multicultural others qualitative inquiry and narrative writing Samples of published autoethnographies provide exemplars for the novice researcher to follow NWSA Journal ,1998 Journal of the History of Sexuality ,1996 Every Woman I've Ever Loved Catherine Reid,Holly Iglesias,1997 An impressive lineup of lesbian authors examines the mother daughter relationship in essays poems dramatic monologues and even one photo essay As women who love women these writers bring passionate intensity and complicated depths to this fundamental first love Contributors include Claudia Bepko Jyl Lynn Felman Meg Daly Joan Nestle Laura Markowitz Jane Miller Linda Niemann Mattie Richardson Maureen Seaton and Shay Youngblood Photos Jewish Lesbian Scholarship in a Time of Change Marla Brettschneider,2022-07-25 Jewish Lesbian Scholarship in a Time of Change is the first major work in Jewish lesbian studies in more than a decade Once a vibrant field few works in Jewish queer studies in recent years have looked at the experiences of and scholarship on Jewish women feminists and those identified as lesbians Correcting a twenty first century shift away from explicitly feminist investigations in Jewish queer and LGBTQ studies this work signals a new trend of scholarly works in the field The chapters span an array of genres presenting the rich diversity of Jewish lesbians as they are as well as of Jewish lesbian scholarship today This collection makes an innovative contribution to Jewish studies lesbian and queer studies gender studies as well as to racial and cultural diversity studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Lesbian Studies

Zoldbrod,1998 Dr Zoldbrod demonstrates how family dynamics in childhood underlie adult sexual problems from sexual aversion to sexual addiction Case studies body maps and exercises allow readers to work through sexual issues Illustrations Feminist Bookstore News ,1998 Feminist Periodicals ,1997 The Publishers Weekly ,2007 Memoir of a Race Traitor Mab Segrest,2019-09-24 Back in print after more than a decade the singular chronicle of life at the forefront of antiracist activism with a new introduction and afterword by the author Mab Segrest's book is extraordinary It is a political memoir but its language is poetic and its tone passionate I started it with caution and finished it with awe and pleasure Howard Zinn In 1994 Mab Segrest first explained how she had become a woman haunted by the dead Against a backdrop of nine generations of her family's history Segrest explored her experiences in the 1980s as a white lesbian organizing against a virulent far right movement in North Carolina Memoir of a Race Traitor became a classic text of white antiracist practice bell hooks called it a courageous and daring example of the reality that political solidarity forged in struggle can exist across differences Adrienne Rich wrote that it was a unique document and thoroughly fascinating Juxtaposing childhood memories with contemporary events Segrest described her journey into the heart of her culture finally veering from its trajectory of violence toward hope and renewal Now amid our current national crisis driven by an increasingly apocalyptic white supremacist movement Segrest returns with an updated edition of her classic book With a new introduction and afterword that explore what has transpired with the far right since its publication the book brings us into the age of Trump and to what can and must be done Called a true delight and a must read Minnesota Review Memoir of a
