European Shop Designs:

The Golden Age of Shop Design Alexandra Artley, 1976      Signs, Streets, and Storefronts Martin Treu, 2012-10-30

Treu tackles the architectural history and signage of Main Street and the strip from painted boards nailed over crude storefronts to sleek cinemas topped with neon glitz Honorable Mention Architecture and Urban Planning 2012 PROSE Awards Signs Streets and Storefronts addresses more than 200 years of signs and place marking along America's commercial corridors From small town squares to Broadway State Street and Wilshire Boulevard Martin Treu follows design developments into the present and explores issues of historic preservation Treu considers common architecture and its place defining business signs as well as influential high style design examples by taste making leaders Combining advertising and architectural history the book presents a full picture of the commercial landscape including design adaptations made for motorists and the migration from Main Street to suburbia The dynamic between individual businesses and the common good has a major effect on the appearance of our country's Main Streets Several forces are at work technological advances design imagination and the media corporate propaganda customer needs and municipal mandates Present day controls have often led to a denuding of traditional commercial corridors Such reform Treu argues has suppressed originality and radically cleared away years of accumulated history based on the taste of a single generation A must read for city planners town councils architects sign designers concerned citizens and anyone who cares about the appearance and vitality of America's commercial streets this heavily illustrated book is equally appealing to armchair historians small town enthusiasts and lovers of Americana      Small Store Planning and Design Robert Bartholomew, 1979      MoMoWo · 100 projects in 100 years.

European Women in Architecture and Design · 1918-2018 Ana Fernandez Garcia, Helena Seražin, Emilia Maria Garda, Caterina Franchini, 2016-09-01 This publication is aimed to support two MoMoWo traveling exhibitions which will be presented in six European countries in two years 2016 2017 indoor exhibition catalogue 100 Works in 100 Years European Women in Architecture and Design 1918 2018 and outdoor exhibition Women's Tale A Reportage on Women Designers Exhibition catalogue 100 Works in 100 Years European Women in Architecture and Design 1918 2018 brings together a selection of some of the most significant and representative examples of European architecture and design created by 100 women from the end of the First World War up until today The number of works is symbolic as one hundred could also mean countless as in the Latin word centium While the number of authors each work has a different author derives from MoMoWo's choice to represent many different creators consequently popularising lesser known figures too It includes biographies of women architects civil engineers furniture and industrial designers urban planners interior and landscape designers It represents the main trends and major schools of architecture and design all over Europe The biographical data covers education and training professional histories networks women have operated in including informal societies memberships in trade bodies and associations their profile as international national local and regional designers as well as looking at how women have promoted their work i e in exhibitions publications competition entries etc The catalogue entries are followed by thirteen thematic essays on women architects and designers and by the outdoor exhibition catalogue Women s Tale A Reportage on Women Designers where photographs by ten finalists of the MoMoWo Photo competition are presented By seeking to identify women who worked in Europe as well as European women who worked outside Europe over last 100 years the main aim of this catalogue is to increase the awareness of historians and the general public about their enormous contribution to architecture and design and indirectly providing accessibility to their works _____

Designing the Department Store Emily M. Orr, 2019-11-28 The book builds an original argument for the department store as a significant site of design production and therefore offers an alternative interpretation to the mainstream focus on consumption within retail history Emily M Orr presents a fresh perspective on the rise of modern urban consumer culture of which the department store was a key feature By investigating the production processes of display as well as fascinating information about display making s tools and technologies the skills of the displayman and the meaning and context of design decisions which shaped the final visual effect are revealed In addition the book identifies and isolates display as a distinct moment in the life of the commodity and understands it as an influential channel of mediation in the shopping experience The assembly and interpretation of a diverse range of previously unexplored primary resources and archives yields fascinating new evidence showing how display achieved an agency which transformed everyday objects into commodities and made consumers out of passersby

Designing Modern Japan Sarah Teasley,2022-05-06 A revealing look at Japanese design weaving together the stories of people who shaped Japan s design industries with social history economic conditions and geopolitics From cars to cameras design from Japan is ubiquitous So are perceptions of Japanese design from calming carefully crafted minimalism to avant garde catwalk fashion or the cute Kawaii aesthetic populating Tokyo streets But these portrayals overlook the creativity generosity and sheer hard work that has gone into creating and maintaining design industries in Japan In Designing Modern Japan Sarah Teasley deftly weaves together the personal stories of people who shaped and shape Japan s design industries with social history economic conditions and geopolitics Key to her account is how design has been a strategy to help communities thrive during turbulent times and for making life better along the way Deeply researched and superbly illustrated Designing Modern Japan appeals to a wide audience for Japanese design history and culture

Shopping in Eighteenth-Century Europe My Hellsing,Johanna Ilmakunnas,2025-10-28 This volume explores the practices of shopping in Europe during the long eighteenth century a period during which consumption choices expanded to encompass much larger groups than before Shopping functioned as an act of social distinction where retail practices not only reflected and reinforced social aspirations and identities but also were a means of creating relationships through shared information and exchanges Bringing together ten diverse case studies the collection provides in depth insights into the transformation of shopping practices across Western and Northern Europe The production of made to order goods gave way to a range of ready made objects that could be viewed browsed and touched in shops booths workshops and markets Together the chapters highlight a crucial historical nuance the concept of shopping as understood in England with its associations of pleasure and socialising did not exist in other major European languages during this period From actors in Stockholm to aristocrats in Paris this study rigorously contextualises the practice of consumption leaving readers with an enriched understanding of how shopping shaped identities and social relationships throughout eighteenth century Europe This collection is an essential resource for scholars students and non specialists interested in the material culture economy everyday life and social dynamics of Europe during the long eighteenth century
