Evaluation In Decision Making:

Evaluation in Decision Making Naftaly S. Glasman, David Nevo, 1988-06-30 This book is about the practice of decision making by school principals and about ways to improve this practice by capitalizing on evaluation dimensions Much has been written on decision making but surprisingly little on decision making in the school principalship Much has been also written on evaluation as well as on evaluation and decision making but not much has been written on evaluation in decision making especially decision making in the principalship This book presents two messages One is that decision making in the principalship can be studied and improved and not only talked about in abstract terms The other message is that evaluation can contribute to the understanding of decision making in the principalship and to the improvement of its practice In this book we call for the conception of an evaluation minded principal a principal who has a wide perspective on the nature of evaluation and its potential benefits a principal who is also inclined to use evaluation perceptions and techniques as part of his her decision making process This book was conceived in 1985 with the idea to combine thoughts about educational administration with thoughts about educational evaluation Studies of decision making in the principalship had already been on their way We decided to await the findings and in the meantime we wrote a first conceptual version of evaluation in decision making As the studies were completed we wrote a first empirical version of same Evaluation and Decision Models Denis Bouyssou, Thierry Marchant, Marc Pirlot, Patrice Perny, Alexis Tsoukias, P. Vincke, 2012-12-06 1 1 Motivations Deciding is a very complex and difficult task Some people even argue that our ability to make decisions in complex situations is the main feature that distinguishes us from animals it is also common to say that laughing is the main difference Nevertheless when the task is too complex or the interests at stake are too important it quite often happens that we do not know or we are not sure what to decide and in many instances we resort to a decision support technique an informal one we toss a coin we ask an oracle we visit an astrologer we consult an expert we think or a formal one Although informal decision support techniques can be of interest in this book we will focus on formal ones Among the latter we find some well known decision support techniques cost benefit analysis multiple criteria decision analysis decision trees But there are many other ones sometimes not presented as decision support techniques that help making decisions Let us cite but a few examples When the director of a school must decide whether a given student will pass or fail he usually asks each teacher to assess the merits of the student by means of a grade The director then sums the grades and compares the result to a threshold When a bank must decide whether a given client will obtain a credit or not a technique called credit scoring is often used A Guide for Evaluation Decision Makers Marvin C. Alkin, 1985-08 A Guide for Evaluation Decision Makers is specifically designed for administrators who commission evaluations or who are responsible for seeing that evaluations are performed This is a practical guide rather than a scholarly handbook which goes beyond mere discussion of evaluations It combines co A Guide for Evaluation Decision Makers Marvin C. Alkin, Phyllis Jacobson, 1985 A Guide for Evaluation Decision Makers is specifically designed for administrators who commission evaluations or who are responsible for seeing that evaluations are performed This is a practical guide rather than a scholarly handbook which goes beyond mere discussion of evaluations It combines concrete cases with workbook exercises to show exactly how to make an evaluation Easy to read this volume is light on technical jargon and heavy on common sense advice It is useful for making decisions at any stage of an evaluation from planning through to the concluding phase The Guide is a natural accompaniment to the popular Program Evaluation Kit which is described on a separate leaflet Educational Evaluation & Decision Making Phi Delta Kappa. National Study Committee on Evaluation, 1971 Evaluation and Library Decision Making Peter Hernon, Charles R. McClure, 1990 Evaluation which is a critical component of the planning process assesses the effectiveness and efficiency of library programs and services in the context of stated goals and objectives This book views evaluation as a type of research study in which evaluators collect either research or management data Chapters discuss steps of the evaluation process and provide practical examples of the application of these steps to specific library problems The overall objectives of the volume are to introduce readers to the relationship between planning and evaluation to discuss the components of an evaluation study in clear prose so that readers can easily understand the different steps to foster an attitude that recognizes the importance of evaluation for the development of library programs and services to offer examples of each component of the evaluation process to identify writings on evaluation in libraries and information centers and to encourage organizational change and underscore the importance of evaluation to library decision making A Guide for Evaluation Decision Makers Marvin C. Evaluation as Enlightenment for Decision-making Daniel L. Stufflebeam, 1968 Evaluation Use and Decision-Making in Society Christina A. Christie, Anne Vo, 2015-06-01 This volume addresses a fundamental and highly debated issue in the evaluation field the use of evaluation information for decision making Chapter authors honor the contributions of Professor Marvin C Alkin to the evaluation use literature and advance our thinking on the topic by exploring a wide range of issues related to the theoretical and practical challenges of using evaluation information to make informed evidence based decisions Readers will come away from this volume with a new and clearer understanding of the theoretical contextual methodological and political dimensions of use and with direction for practice Chapters are written by leading evaluation scholars including Ernest House Stewart Donaldson and Tarek Azzam Eric Barela Richard D Nunneley Jr Jean A King Kelli Johnson and Laura Pejisa Eleanor Chelimsky Michael Quinn Patton and Wanda D Casillas Rodney K Hopson and Ricardo L Gomez Evaluation Use and Decision Making in Society A Tribute to Marvin C Alkin will be of great interest to evaluation students scholars and practitioners This volume has scholarly application for those who desire a state of the art resource for the latest insights and perspectives on one of the most pressing issues that the evaluation field faces today while also serving as a useful guide for both novice and experienced evaluation practitioners It is appropriate for use in a variety of evaluation courses including Introduction to Evaluation and Procedural Issues in Evaluation as well as topical seminars such as Evaluation Use and Decision Making Evaluation and Decision Making University of California, Los Angeles. Center for the Study of Evaluation, Marvin C. Alkin, 1974 Metropolitan Plan Evaluation Methodology David E. Boyce, Norman D. Day, 1969 Educational Evaluation and Decision Making Phi Delta Kappa (Bloomington Ind.). National Study Committee on Evaluation, 1971 Risk Evaluation and Management V.T. Covello, Joshua Menkes, J.L. Mumpower, 2012-12-06 Public attention has focused in recent years on an array of technological risks to health safety and the environment At the same time responsibilities for technological risk assessment evaluation and management have grown in both the public and private sectors because of a perceived need to anticipate prevent or reduce the risks inherent in modern society In attempting to meet these responsibilities legislative judicial regulatory and private sector institutions have had to deal with the extraordinarily complex problems of assessing and balancing risks costs and benefits The need to help society cope with technological risks has given rise to a new intellectual endeavor the social and behavioral study of issues in risk evaluation and risk management The scope and complexity of these analyses require a high degree of cooperative effort on the part of specialists from many fields Analyzing social and behavioral issues requires the efforts of political scientists sociologists decision analysts management scientists economists psychologists philosophers and policy analysts among others

Facilitating Evaluation Michael Quinn Patton, 2017-10-23 Michael Quinn Patton's Facilitating Evaluation Principles in Practice is the first book of its kind to explain in depth and detail how to facilitate evaluation processes with stakeholders Using the author's own stories of his experiences as an evaluation facilitator the book illustrates the five evaluation facilitation principles that are the organizing framework for addressing how to work with stakeholders to generate evaluation questions make decisions among methods interpret findings and participate in all aspects of evaluation Ultimately this book will help readers perform facilitation to enhance the relevance credibility meaningfulness and utility of evaluations A must read for anyone considering a high impact evaluation Margaret Lombe Boston College Evaluation for Health Policy and Health Care Steven Sheingold, Anupa Bir, 2019-08-21 This is the contemporary applied text on evaluation that your students need Evaluation for Health Policy and Health Care A Contemporary Data Driven Approach explores the best practices and applications for producing synthesizing visualizing using and disseminating health care evaluation research and reports This graduate level text will appeal to those interested in cutting edge health program and health policy evaluation in this era of health care innovation Editors Steven Sheingold and Anupa Bir's core text focuses on quantitative qualitative and meta analytic approaches to analysis providing a guide for both those executing evaluations and those using the data to make policy decisions It is designed to provide real world applications within health policy to make learning more accessible and relevant and to highlight the remaining challenges for using evidence to develop policy Historical Foundations of Educational Psychology John A. Glover, Royce R. Ronning, 2013-11-11 This volume represents a beginning effort to compile a history of educational psychology The project began innocuously enough several years ago when we decided to add mon material about the history of educational psychology to the undergraduate course we were teaching What seemed like a simple task became very complex as we searched in vain for a volume dealing with the topic We ended up drawing on various histories of psychology that devoted anywhere from a few paragraphs to several pages to the topic and on a very few articles addressing the issue We were startled frankly by the apparent lack of interest in the history of our field and decided to attempt to compile a history ourselves As is the case with any edited volume the contributing authors deserve credit for its positive features They uniformly made every effort asked of them and taught us much about educational psychology Any errors or omissions are our responsibility alone

Context: A Framework for Its Influence on Evaluation Practice Debra J. Rog, Jody L.

Fitzpatrick, Ross F. Conner, 2012-09-06 Context is a force in evaluation It shapes our practice influencing how we approach and design our studies how we carry them out and how we report our findings Context also moderates and mediates the outcomes of the programs and policies we evaluate This issue focuses squarely on the role that context plays in practice and illuminates its effect on the implementation and outcomes of programs Exploring the ways in which attending to context may improve the quality of evaluation practice the contributions span theory methods and practice in an effort to move to a more comprehensive conceptualization of context that can guide our work It Provides an historical and theoretical view of evaluators treatment of context Illustrates how context has influenced evaluation practice Presents a five area framework for guiding a contextual analysis of evaluations Introduces context assessment which provides a means of integrating context and its implications within the important stages of evaluation This is the 135th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Evaluation an official publication of the American Evaluation Association
