Evaluation and scientific management of libraries and information centres, 1975 EVALUATION AND SCIENTIFIC MANAGEMENT OF LIBRARIES AND INFORMATION CENTRES- SUMMARIZED LECTURES PRESENTED AT THE NATO ADVANCED STUDY INSTITUTE., Communication Informatics and Librarianship in India S. P. Agrawal, Pushpa Rani Sharma, 1992 Evaluation of Reference Services Linda S Katz, 2013-10-18 Library authorities address the increasing significance of reference services and the increasing need for evaluation of those services to further ensure professionalism and efficiency 図書館学 (Japan), 1900 Advances in Librarianship Anne Woodsworth, 2011-03-10 Presents international research and professional issues in libraries the information industry education and development of information professionals This title is suitable for practitioners researchers students and faculty members seeking literature and solutions to various issues in library and information science and related fields

Inherent Strategies in Library Management Masanori Koizumi, 2017-03-31 Inherent Strategies in Library Management describes general and specific strategies for libraries based on core library values and does so through concrete research Many strategic management books for libraries introduce concepts of business management to the library world but often neglect traditional library culture and core values This book reexamines management through the lens of libraries themselves rather than relying on strategies borrowed from the business world in an attempt to bring to light the factors and decision making processes behind how librarians have run their libraries over the past fifty decades In other words their decisions can be regarded as inherent management born naturally from the core foundations considerations and operations of libraries In addition this book investigates the broad influences of business management theories on libraries including a discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of their use Presents management strategies for libraries based on core library values Provides detailed analysis on the effects of business management theories on libraries Lays down the fundamental rules for managing libraries Explains various management analysis methods Bridges the gap between library core values and business efficiency Library Use and User Research M. S. Sridhar, 2002 With reference to users in India

Rothstein on Reference- with Some Help from Friends Samuel Rothstein, 1989 Now library professionals can enjoy the convenience of having 16 of Sam Rothstein's most memorable papers spanning over three decades all in one lively book Samuel Rothstein practitioner teacher and scholar has influenced the thinking and practice of more reference librarians who are currently practicing than has any other single individual In his honor the editors of Rothstein on Reference not only feature Rothstein's seminal writing but they have also included essays written by Rothstein's colleagues including Charles Curran Robert Hauptman Marilyn Domas White and Mary Biggs that explore important issues confronting reference librarians today Reference librarians and library historians will gain insights into the development of reference service in American libraries the evaluation of reference services the training and education of reference librarians and much more

Both beginners and experts in the reference field will find much here for inspiration and enlightenment Special Libraries
,1910 Also includes 1st 5th SLA triennial salary surveys User-oriented Evaluation of Information Systems and Services David Bawden,1990 The book describes exemplifies and propounds methods for the evaluation of information systems and services from the view point of the information user Emphasis is placed on methods for ensuring the relevance of evaluation results to operational environments and on encouraging practitioners to carry out evaluations for themselves Qualitative case study methodologies are particularly important and set in the context of the wider area of evaluation of information resources
