Evangeline A Tale of Acadie is an epic poem by the American poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow written in English and published in 1847 The poem follows an Acadian girl named Evangeline and her search for her lost love Gabriel set during the time of the Expulsion of the Acadians The idea for the poem came from Longfellow's friend Nathaniel Hawthorne Longfellow used dactylic hexameter imitating Greek and Latin classics though the choice was criticized It became Longfellow's most famous work in his lifetime and remains one of his most popular and enduring works The poem had a powerful effect in defining both Acadian history and identity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries More recent scholarship has revealed the historical errors in the poem and the complexity of the Expulsion and those involved which the poem ignores PLOT Evangeline describes the betrothal of a fictional Acadian girl named Evangeline Bellefontaine to her beloved Gabriel Lajeunesse and their separation as the British deport the Acadians from Acadie in the Great Upheaval The poem then follows Evangeline across the landscapes of America as she spends years in a search for him at some times being near to Gabriel without realizing he was near Finally she settles in Philadelphia and as an old woman works as a Sister of Mercy among the poor While tending the dying during an epidemic she finds Gabriel among the sick and he dies in her arms Henry Wadsworth Longfellow February 27 1807 March 24 1882 was an American poet and educator whose works include Paul Revere's Ride The Song of Hiawatha and Evangeline He was also the first American to translate Dante Alighieri's Divine Comedy and was one of the five Fireside Poets from New England Longfellow was born in Portland Maine which was then still part of Massachusetts He studied at Bowdoin College and after spending time in Europe he became a professor at Bowdoin and later at Harvard College His first major poetry collections were Voices of the Night 1839 and Ballads and Other Poems 1841 Longfellow retired from teaching in 1854 to focus on his writing and he lived the remainder of his life in a former Revolutionary War headquarters of George Washington in Cambridge Massachusetts His first wife Mary Potter died in 1835 after a miscarriage His second wife Frances Appleton died in 1861 after sustaining burns when her dress caught fire After her death Longfellow had difficulty writing poetry for a time and focused on translating works from foreign languages He died in 1882 Longfellow wrote many lyric poems known for their musicality and often presenting stories of mythology and legend He became the most popular American poet of his day and also had success overseas He has been criticized however for imitating European styles and writing specifically for the masses
