Every Other Weekend My Fight For Access:

Every Other Weekend Russell Baker, 2005-09 Every Other Weekend My Fight for Access is a look back on the author's experiences regarding divorce and visitation with his son including intervention by the court system and social services. Access to a child can easily be prevented by an ex spouse especially for the sake of revenge. Meanwhile the reunion process afterwards can take a toll on all parties especially the innocent child.

Rise Up My Beloved Sonia Gwen Crane, Sonia McLeod, 2008-07 All hell was raging against my mind I needed some time alone with the Lord and to just be alone away from everyone I needed to calm myself down. The only solace I could find was in a washroom. In that little cubicle totally at the end of myself I surrendered to His will. Nothing else mattered at this point except what He wanted. Knowing I was in my Heavenly Father's hand I cried Lord by obedience I will go. Give me your words to say Help me Lord. Sonia McLeod a former alcoholic and drug addict shares the miraculous story of how God delivered her from a street life of drugs, alcohol and prostitution. Hear the heart of this woman as she takes us through a journey of faith amidst great tragedy, heartbreak and betrayal. Cast aside by friends, family and finally by her husband she emerges from the ashes of ruin and rejection in the arms of her true lover Jesus Christ. I was not going to give up and die but it was time to RISE UP in JESUS. If God can do this in Sonia's life He can do it in others. Pray for this book. It will touch many lives. Reverend Ernie Shirley Linklater Full Gospel Aboriginal Ministries Canada. Sonia McLeod a member of the Cowessess First Nation in Saskatchewan Canada is a born again believer in Jesus Christ. Since the writing of this book she has pursued studies in Social Work, gotten married and is working on reaching First Nation and indigenous communities across Canada and the world. Derek and Sonia McLeod are both ordained ministers and are the founders of His Beloved Remnant Ministries. They are currently working on establishing The House of Rahab a Christ based rehabilitation center for troubled women. Website www.riseupmybeloved.com

A Kidnapped Mind Pamela Richardson, 2006 This is Pamela's passionate memoir of life with and without her estranged son Dash who suffered PAS at the hands of his father.

The Neurosurgeon Travis Robertson, 2012-02 Something is terribly wrong. Ira Stone feels scared, angry and helpless as he watches his life slowly disintegrate before his eyes. Once a renowned neurosurgeon beloved by his patients, Ira cannot help but remember the one horrifying moment in his life when while distracted by surgical emergencies and the fury of his chief he missed the diagnosis of cancer in his brother Michael. Michael's death catalyzes Ira into a downward spiral of guilt, assuaged only by the bottle. As Ira's tormented soul becomes entangled in a nightmare of alcohol and sex he soon realizes he simply cannot take one without the other. But his actions do not come without consequences. His marriage is falling apart and his career is in jeopardy. The dark addictions deep within his brain drive him from his family and into the arms of Stephanie DeLeon, a beautiful surgical nurse who unbeknownst to Ira harbors evil intentions. But Stephanie has no idea what lies ahead for her and her sister Stella. The Neurosurgeon follows a brain surgeon's intense psychological journey through the darkness of addiction as he desperately searches for the healing light of

Sometimes There Is a Void Zakes Mda, 2012-01-03 A New York Times Notable Book of the Year South African novelist and playwright Zakes Mda's remarkable life story of growing up in South Africa Lesotho and America told with style and gusto Zakes Mda is the most acclaimed South African writer of the independence era His novels tell stories that venture far beyond the conventional narratives of a people's struggle against apartheid In this memoir he tells the story of a life that intersects with the political life of his country but that at its heart is the classic adventure story of an artist lover father teacher and bon vivant Zanele Mda was born in 1948 into a family of lawyers and grew up in Soweto's ambitious educated black class. At age fifteen he crossed the Tloa River from South Africa into Basutoland Lesotho, exiled like his father, a founding spirit of the Pan Africanist Congress. Exile was hard but it was just another chapter in Mda's coming of age. He served as an altar boy and was preyed on by priests, flirted with shebeen girls, feared the racist Boers, read comic books alongside the literature of the PAC, fell for the music of Dvorak and Coltrane, wrote his first stories and felt the void at the heart of things that makes him an outsider wherever he goes. The Soweto uprisings called him to politics, playwriting brought him back to South Africa where he became writer in residence at the famed Market Theatre, three marriages led him hither and yon, acclaim brought him to America where he began writing the novels that are so thick with the life of his country. In all this Mda struggled to remain his own man and with Sometimes There Is a Void he shows that independence opened the way for the stories of individual South Africans in all their variety. Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard), 2003-10-22. With the ever-changing world and the advancement in technology and social media, mental health has become a forefront in many people's lives, whether they want to admit it or not. Mental health is something the author is so passionate about and aims to make the subject not such a taboo by sharing what she has gone through. Heartbreak, death, depression, anxiety, and suicidal thoughts are just a touch on what you will inquire. This book talks about the author's real-life struggles and demons and how she's tried to cope. This book is real and raw with the goal of aspiring to inspire those who read it to make them feel like they're not alone and what they may be struggling with may be more common than they think. It offers some coping strategies and inspirational quotes to motivate you to keep going on even when you think you can't. If anyone is going through a difficult time or feels alone, this book is for you. Without a Mother's Love - How I Overcame the Haunting Memory of Witnessing my Mother's Murder Amanda Wright, 2016-05-05. It's so strange how your life can dramatically change from just one event. I now see my life divided into two: before the tragedy and after. Now the present will always be after. This is after Amanda Wright was just four years old when she witnessed her mother's brutal murder. John Dickinson, a family friend, strangled her mother to death in front of her and then he tried to do the same to Amanda. He laid their lifeless bodies out on their bed, set fire to it, and left the house hoping the fire would conceal the crime. It was the milkman who saved Amanda's life, though it was too late for mum. Sue. Amanda spent weeks in hospital for painful skin graft operations on her burned legs before moving in with her grandparents.

Yet from the day of the tragedy she was haunted by flashbacks and nightmares On her first day of school Amanda watched other children crying for their mummies and suddenly realised that she would never see her own mother again It was a painful adjustment for a little girl who until that moment had spent her whole life with her mum More alone than ever before she was determined not to give in finding strength in her memories of her mother Without a Mother s Love is a sad strange yet beautiful story about a girl who lost everything but found the strength inside herself to make her mother proud

Every Other Weekend My Fight For Access : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
