What Every Woman Knows J. M. Barrie, James Wylie is about to make a move on the dambrod and in the little Scotch room there is an awful silence befitting the occasion James with his hand poised for if he touches a piece he has to play it Alick will see to that raises his red head suddenly to read Alick s face His father who is Alick is pretending to be in a panic lest James should make this move James grins heartlessly and his fingers are about to close on the man when some instinct of self preservation makes him peep once more This time Alick is caught the unholy ecstasy on his face tells as plain as porridge that he has been luring James to destruction James glares and too late his opponent is a simple old father again James mops his head sprawls in the manner most conducive to thought in the Wylie family and protruding his underlip settles down to a reconsideration of the board Alick blows out his cheeks and a drop of water settles on the point of his nose What Every Woman Knows; A Four-Act Play J. M. Barrie,2025-08-15 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Motion Picture Story Magazine ,1924 Pictorial

Review ,1922 Includes music Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors Jerry Roberts,2009-06-05 From live productions of the 1950s like Requiem for a Heavyweight to big budget mini series like Band of Brothers long form television programs have been helmed by some of the most creative and accomplished names in directing Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors brings attention to the directors of these productions citing every director of stand alone long form television programs made for TV movies movie length pilots mini series and feature length anthology programs as well as drama comedy and musical specials of more than 60 minutes Each of the nearly 2 000 entries provides a brief career sketch of the director his or her notable works awards and a filmography Many entries also provide brief discussions of key shows movies and other productions Appendixes include Emmy Awards DGA Awards and other accolades as well as a list of anthology programs A much needed reference that celebrates these often neglected artists Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the history of the medium The Atlantic Book of Modern Plays Sterling Andrus Leonard,1921

Medieval Monstrosity Charity Urbanski,2023-10-13 This volume examines various manifestations and understandings of the concept of monstrosity in medieval Europe around 500 1500 ce through a collection of contextual chapters and primary sources The main chapters focus on a specific theme a type of monster or representation of monstrosity and consist of a contextual essay synthesizing recent scholarship on that theme excerpts from primary sources and a bibliography of additional primary and secondary sources on the topics addressed in the chapter In addition to building upon the wealth of scholarship on monsters and monstrosity produced in recent decades the book engages with the current fascination with monsters in popular culture especially in movies television and video games The book presents a survey of medieval monstrosity for a non specialist audience and provides a theoretical framework for interpreting the monstrous This book is ideal for undergraduate students working on the theme of monstrosity as well as being useful for undergraduate courses that cover the supernatural and manifestations of the monstrous covered in the book With materials drawn from a wide range of medieval sources it will also appeal to courses in English French Art History and Medieval Studies

The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza,2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens s A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne s The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon s Jr s The Klansman basis for the film Birth of a Nation In recent years Nick Hornsby s About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding s Bridget Jones s Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work s title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation s of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered

Cue for Passion Albert D'Annibale,2007-11-20 Drifting and yet full awake I began to feel a warning breeze chilling enveloping and so I looked up and when I did I saw an ominous lone dark cloud shadowing floating East I thought Nature stirring rustling leaves and winds to blast and swish across these sidewalk cobblestones with cloudbursts of raindrops huge like crystals to splash and splatter my face soak shape and to cling my body to my clothes Benumbed I lay there sensing no savoring in the rain drenched and with the raindrops splattering spreading their translucent colors to have me rhyme Debbie Debbie weighing sounds round and round her womb womb
