Everyday Acts Against Racism Maureen T. Reddy, 1996 A book of essays by mothers and teachers Everyday Acts Against Racism examines the effects of racism on our children and communities and suggests ways we can end our society's racial stratification Writing from many cultural perspectives the contributors provide provocative commentaries on the realities of racial intolerance and their own experiences in fighting racism

Raising Biracial Children Kerry Ann Rockquemore, Tracey A. Laszloffy, 2005-11-10 As the multiracial population in the United States continues to rise new models for our understanding of mixed race children and how their conception of racial identity must be developed A wide divide between academics who research biracial identity and the everyday world of parents and practitioners who raise and deal with mixed race children exists This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive synthesis of the existing research in the field as well as a model for better understanding the unique process of racial identity development for mixed race children Raising Biracial Children provides parents educators social workers and anyone interested in multiracial issues with an accessible framework for understanding healthy mixed race identity development and to translate those findings into practical care giving strategies

Our Black Sons Matter George Yancy, Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, Susan Hadley, 2016-10-17 Our Black Sons Matter is a powerful collection of original essays letters and poems that addresses both the deep joys and the very real challenges of raising black boys today From Trayvon Martin to Tamir Rice the list of young black men who have suffered racial violence continues to grow Young black people also deal with profound stereotypes and structural barriers And yet young black men are often paradoxically revered as icons of cultural cool Our Black Sons Matter features contributions from women across the racial spectrum who are raising or have raised black sons whether biologically their sons or not The book courageously addresses painful trauma challenges assumptions and offers insights and hope through the deep bonds between mothers and their children Both a collective testimony and a collective love letter Our Black Sons Matter sends the message that black lives matter and speaks with the universal love of all mothers who fear for the lives of their children Contributions by Jacki Lynn Baynks Shelly Bell Deborah Binkley Jackson Meta G Carstarphen LaMar Delandro Gretchen Givens Generett Jane Anna Gordon Farah Jasmine Griffin Maria del Guadalupe Davidson Susan Hadley Carol E Henderson Dawn Herd Clark Elisheba Johnson Heather Johnson Newtona Tina Johnson Jane Lazarre Sara Lomax Reese Tracey McCants Lewis Nicole McJamerson Michele Moody Adams Elisha Oliver Blanche Radford Curry Autumn Redcross Tracey Reed Armant Noliwe Rooks T Denean Sharpley Whiting Treasure Shields Redmond Sharyn Skeeter Becky Thompson Linda D Tomlinson Dyan Watson Veronica T Watson Regina Sims Wright Karsonya Wise Whitehead and George Yancy

Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? Beverly Tatum, 2003-01-17 The classic bestselling book on the psychology of racism now fully revised and updated Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black White and Latino youth clustered in their own groups Is this self segregation a problem to address or a coping strategy Beverly Daniel Tatum a renowned authority on the psychology of racism argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about enabling communication across racial and ethnic divides These topics have only become more urgent as the national conversation about race is increasingly acrimonious This fully revised edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the dynamics of race in America An unusually sensitive work about the racial barriers that still divide us in so many areas of life Jonathan Kozol Uprooting Racism - 4th Edition Paul Kivel, 2017-08-28 In 2016 the president elect of the United States openly called for segregation and deportation based on race and religion Meanwhile inequalities in education housing health care and the job market continue to prevail while increased insecurity and fear have led to an epidemic of scapegoating and harassment of people of color Yet recent polls show that only thirty one percent of white people in the United States believe racism is a major societal problem at the same time resistance is strong as highlighted by indigenous struggles for land and sovereignty and the Movement for Black Lives Completely revised and updated this fourth edition of Uprooting Racism offers a framework around neoliberalism and interpersonal institutional and cultural racism along with stories of resistance and white solidarity It provides practical tools and advice on how white people can work as allies for racial justice engaging the reader through questions exercises and suggestions for action and includes a wealth of information about specific cultural groups such as Muslims people with mixed heritage Native Americans Jews recent immigrants Asian Americans and Latino as Previous editions of Uprooting Racism have sold more than 50 000 copies This accessible personal supportive and practical guide is ideal for students community activists teachers youth workers and anyone interested in issues of diversity multiculturalism and social justice Paul Kivel is an award winning author and an accomplished trainer and speaker He has been a social justice activist a nationally and internationally recognized anti racism educator and an innovative leader in violence prevention for over forty years Mothering Queerly, Queering Motherhood Shelley M. Park, 2013-06-01 Provides a model for queering motherhood that resists racist neoliberal and hetero or homonormative ideals of good mothering Reflections on My Call to Preach Fred B. Craddock, 2009 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God s will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That s why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God s decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach

Communication, Race, and Family Thomas J. Socha, Rhunette C. Diggs, 1999-08 This volume examines how family communication affects our understanding of race and race relations For scholars studying diversity issues intercultural communication family communication and related areas

Good White People Shannon Sullivan, 2014-05-15 Argues for the necessity of a new ethos for middle class white anti racism Building on her book Revealing Whiteness Shannon Sullivan identifies a constellation of attitudes common among well meaning white liberals that she sums up as white middle class goodness an orientation she critiques for being more concerned with establishing anti racist bona fides than with confronting systematic racism and privilege Sullivan untangles the complex relationships between class and race in contemporary white identity and outlines four ways this orientation is expressed each serving to establish one s lack of racism the denigration of lower class white people as responsible for ongoing white racism the demonization of antebellum slaveholders an emphasis on colorblindness especially in the context of white childrearing and the cultivation of attitudes of white guilt shame and betrayal To move beyond these distancing strategies Sullivan argues white people need a new ethos that acknowledges and transforms their whiteness in the pursuit of racial justice rather than seeking a self righteous distance from it

Enhancing the Success Rate of Multicultural Marriages Dian Edwards, 2025-04-29 Multicultural marriages are now acceptable in almost every country in the world and we need to work harder to help them to be successful Enhancing the Success Rate of Multicultural Marriages will help us to acquire the tools and skills to encourage success About the Author Dian Edwards has been involved in multi cultural family counseling since 1996 and has decided to impart his knowledge and experience to everyone in a book format with God s guidance

Women and Children First Sharon M. Meagher, Patrice DiQuinzio, 2012-02-01 This diverse collection explores the rhetoric of a wide range of public policies that propose to put women and children first including homeland security school violence gun control medical intervention of intersex infants and policies that aim to distinguish good from bad mothers Using various feminist philosophical analyses the contributors uncover a logic of paternalistic treatment of women and children that purports to protect them but almost always also disempowers them and sometimes harms them This logic is widespread in contemporary popular policy discourse and affects the way that people understand and respond to social and political issues Contributors rethink basic philosophical assumptions concerning subjectivity difference and dualistic logic in order to read the rhetoric of contemporary public policy discourse and develop new ways of talking and acting in the policy domain

Early Childhood Education Moncrieff Cochran, Rebecca S. New, 2007-01-30 Early childhood education has reached a level of unprecedented national and international focus Parents policy makers and politicians have opinions as well as new questions about what how when and where young children should learn Teachers and program administrators now find curriculum discussions linked to dramatic new understandings about children s early learning and brain development Early childhood education is also a major topic of concern internationally as social policy analysts point to its role in a nation s future economic outlook As a groundbreaking contribution to its field this four volume handbook discusses key historical and contemporary issues research theoretical perspectives national policies and practices

A Promise And A Way Of Life Becky Thompson, 2001-08-07 The first in depth look at white people s activism in fighting racism during the past fifty years Not since the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 1960s when many white college students went south to fight against Jim Crow laws has white antiracist activity held the public s attention Yet there have always been white people involved in fighting racism In this passionate work Becky Thompson looks at white Americans who have struggled against racism offering examples of both successes and failures inspirations practical philosophies and a way ahead A Promise and a Way of Life weaves an account of the past half century based on the life histories of thirty nine people who have placed antiracist activism at the center of their lives Through a rich and fascinating narrative that links individual experiences with social and political history Thompson shows the ways both public and personal in which whites have opposed racism during several social movements the Civil Rights and Black Power movements multiracial feminism the Central American peace movement the struggle for antiracist education and activism against the prison industry Beginning with the diverse catalysts that started these activists on their journeys this book demonstrates the contributions and limitations of white antiracism in key social justice movements Through these stories crucial questions are raised Does antiracist work require a repudiation of one s whiteness or can that identity be transformed through political commitment and alliances What do white people need to do to undermine white privilege What would it take to build a multiracial movement in which white people are responsible for creating antiracist alliances while not co-opting people of color Unique in its depth and thoroughness A Promise and a Way of Life is essential for anyone currently fighting racism or wondering how to do so Through its demonstration of the extraordinary personal and social transformations ordinary people can make it provides a new paradigm for movement activity one that will help to incite and guide future antiracist activism

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature      How To Say It (R) To Girls Nancy Gruver,2004-10-05 The expert guide to girl talk How to Say It r to Girls provides a wellspring of practical advice for parents on how to broach uncomfortable subjects with girls of all ages or how to simply open the lines of communication This book offers concrete words phrases and sample dialogues to help parents figure out what to say and how best to say it      Toni Morrison and Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly,2012-02-01 Traces Morrison s theory of African American mothering as it is articulated in her novels essays speeches and interviews Mothering is a central issue for feminist theory and motherhood is also a persistent presence in the work of Toni Morrison Examining Morrison s novels essays speeches and interviews Andrea O Reilly illustrates how Morrison builds upon black women s experiences of and perspectives on motherhood to develop a view of black motherhood that is in terms of both maternal identity and role radically different from motherhood as practiced and prescribed in the dominant culture Motherhood in Morrison s view is fundamentally and profoundly an act of resistance essential and integral to black women s fight against racism and sexism and their ability to achieve well being for themselves and their culture The power of motherhood and the empowerment of mothering are what make possible the better world we seek for ourselves and for our children This argues O Reilly is Morrison s maternal theory a politics of the heart As an advocate of a politics of the heart O Reilly has an acute insight into discerning any threat to the preservation and continuation of traditional African American womanhood and values Above all Toni Morrison and Motherhood based on Andrea O Reilly s methodical research on Morrison s works as well as feminist critical resources proffers a useful basis for understanding Toni Morrison s works It certainly contributes to exploring in detail Morrison s rich and complex works notable from the perspectives of nurturing and sustaining African American maternal tradition African American Review O Reilly boldly reconfigures hegemonic western notions of motherhood while maintaining dialogues across cultural differences Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering Andrea O Reilly examines Morrison s complex presentations of and theories about motherhood with admirable rigor and a refusal to simplify and the result is one of the most penetrating and insightful studies of Morrison yet to appear a book that will prove invaluable to any scholar teacher or reader of Morrison South Atlantic Review it serves as a sort of annotated bibliography of nearly all the major theoretical work on motherhood and on Morrison as an author anyone conducting serious study of either Toni Morrison or motherhood not to mention the combination should read this book O Reilly s exhaustive research her facility with theories of Anglo American and Black feminism and her penetrating analyses of Morrison s works result in a highly useful scholarly read Literary Mama By tracing both the metaphor and literal practice of mothering in Morrison s literary world O Reilly conveys Morrison s vision of motherhood as an act of resistance American Literature Motherhood is critically important as a recurring theme in Toni Morrison s oeuvre and within black feminist and feminist scholarship An in depth analysis of this central concern is necessary in order to explore the complex disjunction between Morrison s interviews which praise black mothering and the fiction which presents mothers in various destructive and self destructive modes Kudos to Andrea O Reilly for illuminating Morrison's maternal standpoint and helping readers and critics understand this difficult terrain Toni Morrison and Motherhood is also valuable as a resource that addresses and synthesizes a huge body of secondary literature Nancy Gerber author of Portrait of the Mother Artist Class and Creativity in Contemporary American Fiction In addition to presenting a penetrating and original reading of Toni Morrison O Reilly integrates the evolving scholarship on motherhood in dominant and minority cultures in a review that is both a composite of commonalities and a clear representation of differences Elizabeth Bourque Johnson University of Minnesota Andrea O Reilly is Associate Professor in the School of Women's Studies at York University and President of the Association for Research on Mothering She is the author and editor of several books on mothering including with Sharon Abbey Mothers and Daughters Connection Empowerment and Transformation and Mothers and Sons Feminism Masculinity and the Struggle to Raise Our Sons MultiCultural Review ,2005 Jsl Vol 14-N1 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,2004-01-20 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Feminism and Men Steven Schacht,Doris Ewing,1998-10 Too often feminism has been defined as a woman only arena or in competitive terms of male versus female privilege rather than a cooperative effort to improve the quality of life for everyone Contributors to FEMINISM AND MEN argue that the feminist movement should no longer view with suspicion those men who have proved themselves sympathetic to issues of gender equity
