Gentlemen Of Fortune The Men Who Made Their Fortunes In Britains Slave Colonies:

Gentlemen of Fortune Derrick Knight,1978 Conversion and Reform in the British Novel in the 1790s A.

Markley,2008-12-22 Conversion and Reform analyzes the work of those British reformists writing in the 1790s who reshaped the conventions of fiction to reposition the novel as a progressive political tool Includes new readings of key figures such as Mary Wollstonecraft and Thomas Holcroft The Sugar Barons Matthew Parker,2012-11-13 Traces the rise and fall of

Caribbean sugar dynasties discussing the Britain s dependence on colony wealth the role of slavery in sugar plantation culture and the North American colonial opposition to sugar policy in London The History of Ned Evans Helena Kelly,2015-09-30 Ned Evans is a rags to riches hero whose early existence in poverty in Wales is dramatically changed when he saves the beautiful Lady Cecilia Rivers from an assault and is invited to Ireland by her father After spending time with the great and the good of Irish society Ned travels to America where his fortunes once more reverse "Architects, Angels, Activists and the City of Bath, 1765?965 " Cynthia Imogen Hammond,2017-07-05 A unique contribution to the architectural and social history of Bath Architects Angels Activists and the City of Bath 1765 1965 Engaging with Women s Spatial Interventions in Buildings and Landscape approaches the past with the methods of the architectural historian and the site specific interventions of the contemporary artist Looking beyond and behind Bath s strategic marshalling of its past Cynthia Imogen Hammond presents the ways in which women across classes shaped the built environment and designed landscapes of one of England s most architecturally significant cities This study argues that Bath s efforts to preserve itself as an idealized Georgian town reveal an aesthetics of exclusion Jane Austen may be well known but the role of historic women in the creation of this city has had minimal treatment within the city s collective public memory This book is an intervention into this memory the author uses site specific works of public art as strategic counterparts to her historical readings Through them she aims to transform as well as critique the urban image of Bath At once a performative literature an extensively researched history and an alternative guide to the city Architects Angels Activists engages with current struggles over urban signification in Bath and beyond Breaking the Dead Silence Christina Horvath,Richard S. White,2024-06-21 An Open

Access edition will be available on publication The murder of George Floyd in 2020 the renewed international take up of the cry Black Lives Matter and the subsequent toppling of a statue commemorating slave merchant turned philanthropist Edward Colston in Bristol provoked urgent questions on memorialisation white privilege social justice and repair Debates on how legacies of colonialism and empire in Britain should be addressed spilled out of the scholarly world into the public discourse In the immediate wake of the statue toppling this book offers a unique distinctive and timely contribution to those debates a series of voices and experiences are offered as critical commentaries and accounts of recent interventions on an official heritage narrative It sets out to break the dead silence by bringing together diverse perspectives from academics artists activists heritage professionals and tourist guides The book offers fresh insights referencing work attending to the impacts and legacies of colonisation primarily in Bath and Bristol augmented with comparative contributions from Lancaster and Mexico offering significant and pertinent resonances A range of strategies are explored towards enabling silenced voices to be heard and engage in conversations about how the past is represented including Co Creation new agonistic museum practices innovative creative and somatic approaches An Empire Divided Andrew Jackson O'Shaughnessy, 2015-12-14 There were 26 not 13 British colonies in America in 1776 Of these the six colonies in the Caribbean Jamaica Barbados the Leeward Islands Grenada and Tobago St Vincent and Dominica were among the wealthiest These island colonies were closely related to the mainland by social ties and tightly connected by trade In a period when most British colonists in North America lived less than 200 miles inland and the major cities were all situated along the coast the ocean often acted as a highway between islands and mainland rather than a barrier The plantation system of the islands was so similar to that of the southern mainland colonies that these regions had more in common with each other some historians argue than either had with New England Political developments in all the colonies moved along parallel tracks with elected assemblies in the Caribbean like their mainland counterparts seeking to increase their authority at the expense of colonial executives Yet when revolution came the majority of the white island colonists did not side with their compatriots on the mainland A major contribution to the history of the American Revolution An Empire Divided traces a split in the politics of the mainland and island colonies after the Stamp Act Crisis of 1765-66 when the colonists on the islands chose not to emulate the resistance of the patriots on the mainland Once war came it was increasingly unpopular in the British Caribbean nonetheless the white colonists cooperated with the British in defense of their islands O'Shaughnessy decisively refutes the widespread belief that there was broad backing among the Caribbean colonists for the American Revolution and deftly reconstructs the history of how the island colonies followed an increasingly divergent course from the former colonies to the north A Bittersweet Heritage Victoria Perry, 2022-08-07 The 2020 toppling of slave trader Edward Colston's statue by Black Lives Matter protesters in Bristol was a dramatic reminder of Britain's role in trans Atlantic slavery too often overlooked Yet the legacy of that predatory economy reaches far beyond bronze memorials it continues to shape the entire visual fabric of the country Architect Victoria Perry explores the relationship between the wealth of slave owning elites and the architecture and landscapes of Georgian Britain She reveals how profits from Caribbean sugar plantations fed the opulence of stately homes and landscape gardens Trade in slaves and slave grown products also boosted the prosperity of ports like Bristol Liverpool and Glasgow shifting cultural influence towards the Atlantic west New artistic centres like Bath emerged while investment in poor remote areas of Wales Cumbria and Scotland led to their reimagining as tourist destinations Snowdonia the Lakes and the Highlands The patronage of absentee planters popularised British ideas of natural scenery viewing mountains rivers and rocks as landscape art and then exported the concept of sublime and picturesque landscapes across the Atlantic A Bittersweet Heritage unearths the slavery tainted history of Britain's manors ports roads and countryside and powerfully explains what this legacy means today Legacy of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on the Constitution, Civil Rights, and Civil Liberties, 2008 Architects, Angels, Activists and the City of Bath, 1765-1965 Cynthia Imogen Hammond, 2012 Approaching the past as both historian and artist Cynthia Imogen Hammond documents how women across classes shaped the built environment of one of England's most architecturally significant cities Architects Angels Activists and the City of Bath 1765 1965 Engaging with Women's Spatial Interventions in Buildings and Landscape documents Hammond's own creative spatial interventions in the city through which she brings the history of women to the foreground of Bath's urban image White Creole Culture, Politics and Identity During the Age of Abolition David Lambert, 2005-07-21 This book explores the articulation of white creole identity in Barbados during the age of abolitionism People and their Pasts P. Ashton, H. Kean, 2008-12-11 In this innovative and original collection people are seen as active agents in the development of new ways of understanding the past and creating histories for the present Chapters explore forms of public history in which people's experience and understanding of their personal national and local pasts are part of their current lives Slavery, Abolition and Emancipation Vol 3 Peter J Kitson, Debbie Lee, Anne K Mellor, James Walvin, 2020-04-23 Most writers associated with the first generation of British Romanticism Blake Coleridge Wordsworth Southey Thelwall and others wrote against the slave trade This edition collects a corpus of work which reflects the issues and theories concerning slavery and the status of the slave Centring the Periphery Patrick L. Baker, 1994-03-01 The concept of centring is used to mean ordering the world and Baker links this to ideas in chaos theory which views order and disorder as mutually generative phenomena rather than static antinomies Thus strategies to control disorder and create and maintain order may suddenly precipitate change Baker's application of these theories to an island nation that has received little detailed attention in the past makes this a highly original work as does his holistic post modern perspective In addition to presenting a sensitive historical analysis he confronts the dilemma of meaning in peripheral situations and the experience of dependency in the world system Centring the Periphery is germane to understanding the majority of the world's people and makes a significant contribution to the study of society in developing nations West Indies Accounts Richard B. Sheridan, 1996 Collection of essays written by former students colleagues and friends to honor a preeminent economic historian of the Caribbean Covering period 1650 1850 essays encompass a broad range of topics with major focus on various aspects of slavery and imperial relations during those years Excellent introductory essay on Sheridan's contributions to Caribbean economic history British Book News, 1978 Selection of Recent Books Published in Great Britain 1940-Apr. 1941, 1978 Caribbean Slavery in the Atlantic World Hilary Beckles, Verene Shepherd, 2000 For abstracts see Caribbean Abstracts no 11 1999 2000 2001 p 103 Subject Catalog, 1978 Library of Congress, 1978 Consuming the Caribbean Mimi Sheller, 2003 This fascinating book demonstrates how colonial exploitation of the Caribbean led directly to contemporary forms of consumption of the region and its products and calls for a global ethics of consumer responsibility
