Evangelical Futures A Conversation On Theological Method:

Evangelical Futures John G. Stackhouse, 2000 In this book these theologians of international renown reflect on the history and state of evangelical theological method and suggest avenues for composing theology in today's postmodern context Although all of the scholars who contributed to this book are self-professed evangelicals they represent diversity within the tradition in their understanding of biblical inspiration and authority the role of tradition or contemporary philosophy and spiritual experience The result is an effort to spur evangelicals on to deeper and more creative discussion of their tradition and how it can meet the needs of our time Book jacket

Beyond Evangelicalism Steven Knowles, 2010 A prolific author and thinker Stanley J Grenz was a respected and influential figure not only within evangelicalism but in the wider theological world Amongst the many issues tackled by him it is perhaps his revisioning of evangelical theology in the light of the postmodern challenge that has caused the biggest stir in the theological world Advocating a nonfoundationalist methodology Grenz attempts to re-position evangelical theology in line with postmodern concerns This will be the first book length treatment on Grenz's work on theological methodology and therefore will break new ground in this important area of study

Evangelicals Engaging in Practical Theology Helen Morris, Helen Cameron, 2022-03-30 This book aims to introduce a distinctively evangelical voice to the discipline of practical theology Evangelicals have sometimes seen practical theology as primarily a liberal project This collection however actively engages with practical theology from an evangelical perspective both through discussion of the substantive issues and by providing examples of practical theology done by evangelicals in the classroom the church and beyond This volume brings together established and emerging voices to debate the growing role which practical theology is playing in evangelical and Pentecostal circles Chapters begin by addressing methodological concerns before moving into areas of practice Additionally there are four short papers from students who make use of practical theology to reflect upon their own practice Issues of authority and normativity are tackled head on in a way that will inform the debate both within and beyond evangelicalism This book will therefore be of keen interest to scholars of practical evangelical and Pentecostal theology

The Futures of Evangelicalism Craig G. Bartholomew, Robin Parry, Andrew West, 2004 An insightful assessment of the current state of evangelical affairs and the varied directions evangelicalism is poised to take Contributors include Alister McGrath Eugene Peterson I Howard Marshall Gregory J

Re-Envisioning Transformation David C. Scott, 2018-09-14 In today's church use of the term transformation has become commonplace Various perspectives are offered on what a Christian view of transformation is and on how it may be achieved These often conflicting views suggest an ecclesial landscape characterized by pluralism division fragmentation confusion relativism individualism pragmatism and subjectivism Despite the current interest in transformational theology the absence of a common coherent and integrated vision and the lack of transformation is often accepted and affirmed Re Envisioning Transformation looks at the possibility of moving toward a vision of transformational theology that is cohesive unified broad effectual and distinctly Christian In this book the contributions of two radically different theologians of the Christian life are examined This provides the basis from which to develop a comprehensive and integrated framework of transformational theology pointing God's people toward the need to express and live out a distinctly Christian vision

Cone, 2013-08-23 This volume of essays centers on the theme of doing Christian theology in the present postmodern context a consistent theme of the teaching of John D Castelein The work will celebrate and honor John's years of service by representing reflections of his teaching in the thought of his students and colleagues The essays range over such topics as theological reflections on the postmodern philosophical themes the relations between Christian theology and culture the contributions of philosophical hermeneutics for Christian theology and the challenges of engaging in ministry in a postmodern context The seventeen contributors to the volume are former students and both present and former colleagues involved in various ministries be they in a college setting or in a local church

Evangelism and Social Concern in the Theology of Carl F. H. Henry Jerry M. Ireland, 2015-06-01 How do evangelism and social concern relate to one another in the mission of the church How should the Old Testament's emphasis on social justice inform the praxis of modern believers Does the Bible emphasize individual salvation or does it teach a broader more inclusive concept Theologians missiologists pastors and educators have wrestled with these questions for centuries But especially since the early part of the twentieth century this debate has increasingly become a point of contention among evangelical Christians with few indications that a consensus may soon be forthcoming Yet few have offered so thorough an answer to these questions as has Carl F H Henry Henry's regenerative model of evangelism and social concern stands on the shoulders of Augustine and many others and offers what may be the best way forward This book explores Henry's thoughts on this subject and sets him in dialogue with numerous others who have written on these topics Thus it will prove a valuable resource for all interested in this topic
