Genocide Without Gunfire:

Life After Vietnam, When Chucky Comes Marching Home Chuck Sanders, 2013-09 A young man went off to answer his country's call. He had all the right thoughts like God, corps, country, and mom. Good is good and wrong is bad. After his service in Vietnam, he learns that what we perceive as good is not always the way everyone else views it. At a young age, he sees too much killing. Adapting to life as a warrior, he has become the enemy in order to defeat the enemy. He returns to the United States to discover everything changed. He no longer fits. His fiancée married someone else, and his friends are all gone. His new best friend is the bottle. Everyone and everything has changed except him; the world has moved forward, but he is somehow stuck in the past. After Vietnam, his journey carries him through several divorces and failed relationships. He tries the biker life, which makes him feel like a warrior again and is happy only when living on the edge. But this leads to prison, with the court system favoring the rich. The poor man does time while the rich man walks free. Let's make a deal: legal system. He has several bouts with alcoholism and drugs, is called to the ministry, and again turns to the bottle. It is the love of a beautiful Hawaiian Chinese woman that saves him. Sober for many years now, he says it is due to this woman's love and the grace of God.

Denial: The Final Stage of Genocide? John Cox, Amal Khoury, Sarah Minslow, 2021-09-21 Genocide denial not only abuses history and insults the victims but paves the way for future atrocities. Yet few, if any, books have offered a comparative overview and analysis of this problem. Denial: The Final Stage of Genocide is a resource for understanding and countering denial. Denial spans a broad geographic and thematic range in its explorations of varied forms of denial, which is embedded in each stage of genocide. Ranging far beyond the most well-known cases of denial, this book offers original pathbreaking arguments and contributions regarding competition over commemoration and public memory in Ukraine and elsewhere; transitional justice in post-conflict societies; global violence against transgender people, which genocide scholars have not adequately confronted; music as a means to recapture history and combat denial; public education's role in erasing Indigenous history and promoting settler colonial ideology in the United States; triumphalism as a new variant of denial following the Bosnian Genocide; denial vis-à-vis Rwanda and neighboring Congo DRC. With contributions from leading genocide experts as well as emerging scholars, this book will be of interest to scholars and students of history, genocide studies, anthropology, political science, international law, gender studies, and human rights.

A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities Jeffrey S. Bachman, Esther Brito Ruiz, 2024-11-01 This is the first textbook of its kind to amass cases of genocide and other mass atrocities across the nineteenth, twentieth, and twenty-first centuries that have largely been pushed to the periphery of Genocide Studies or forgotten altogether. Divided into four thematic sections: Genocide and Imperialism, War and Genocide, State Repression, Military Dictatorships, and Genocide and Human-Caused Famine, Attrition, and Genocide, A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities covers five continents, including case studies from Biafra, Yemen, Argentina, Russia, China, and Bengal. They range from the French conquest of Algeria in the mid-nineteenth century to the Yazidi genocide perpetrated by the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria between 2014 and 2017 and show that at times of rising authoritarianism military conquest and weaponization of hunger lines between what is war and what is genocide are increasingly blurred By including genocides and mass atrocities that are often overlooked this volume is crucial to the ongoing debates about whether this atrocity or that one amounts to genocide By including key points events terms and critical questions throughout this is the ideal textbook for undergraduate students who study genocide mass atrocities and human rights across the globe

Genocides by the Oppressed Nicholas A. Robins, Adam Jones, 2009-05-12 In the last two decades the field of comparative genocide studies has produced an increasingly rich literature on the targeting of various groups for extermination and other atrocities throughout history and around the contemporary world However the phenomenon of genocides by the oppressed that is retributive genocidal actions carried out by subaltern actors has received almost no attention The prominence in such genocides of non state actors combined with the perceived moral ambiguities of retributive genocide that arise in analyzing genocidal acts from below have so far eluded serious investigation Genocides by the Oppressed addresses this oversight opening the subject of subaltern genocide for exploration by scholars of genocide ethnic conflict and human rights Focusing on case studies of such genocide the contributors explore its sociological anthropological psychological symbolic and normative dimensions

The Holocaust and Genocides in Europe Benjamin Lieberman, 2013-06-06 A concise and sharply focused textbook giving students an up to date understanding of genocide in recent European history

Global Issues in Education Greg Wiggan, Charles Hutchison, 2009-08-16 Global Issues in Education bridges the discourse on globalization and education with international studies on race class gender ethnicity culture and multiculturalism The contributors to this volume address educational challenges of post colonial Ghana the United Arab Emirates the Caribbean China and Germany juxtaposed against Western education in the United Kingdom and the United States They synthesize macrosociology with educational research which provides readers with the background core knowledge and global focus that is needed to understand international issues as well as deal with diversity in the classroom Global Issues in Education also addresses the need for additional research that makes the connections between the geopolitical economy and education and it does this with a focus on the link to culture ethnicity and education

An Imperfect Offering James Orbinski, 2010-11-01 This book is a series of stories in which I ask again and again how to be in relation to the suffering of others It is a personal narrative about the political journey I have taken over the last twenty years as a humanitarian doctor as a citizen and as a man This is a story about a way of seeing that requires humility so that one can recognize the sameness of self in the other It is about the mutuality that can exist between us if we so choose I have come to see humanitarianism not as separate from politics but in relation to it and as a challenge to political choices that too often kill or allow others to be killed Speaking is the first political act It is the first act of liberty and it always implicitly involves another In speaking one inherently recognizes that I am and I am not alone In this space lies our humanity Having seen things we hope never to see confronted suffering dispassion and evil we hope never to encounter and faced deep personal torment James Orbinski still believes in the good we can be if we so choose His chosen medium is stories from his own experience a form of testimony from the front lines embodied in which are warnings hope and lessons in how we can inject humanitarian activity into our lives Being political he has discovered is not only reserved for politicians admitting imperfection is essential to compassion The crystal clarity of Orbinski s voice is matched by the urgency of his message at a time of great political and moral uncertainty An Imperfect Offering is invaluable reading for anyone who feels he she can make a difference

The Politics of Haunting and Memory in International Relations Jessica Auchter,2014-03-21

International Relations has traditionally focused on conflict and war but the effects of violence including dead bodies and memorialization practices have largely been considered beyond the purview of the field Drawing on Jacques Derrida s notion of hauntology to consider the politics of life and death Auchter traces the story of how life and death and a clear division between the two is summoned in the project of statecraft She argues that by letting ourselves be haunted or looking for ghosts it is possible to trace how statecraft relies on the construction of such a dichotomy Three empirical cases offer fertile ground for complicating the picture often painted of memorialization Rwandan genocide memorials the underexplored case of undocumented immigrants who die crossing the US Mexico border and the body ruins nexus in 9 11 memorialization Focusing on the role of dead bodies and the construction of particular spaces as the appropriate sites for memory to be situated it offers an alternative take on the new materialisms movement in international relations by asking after the questions that arise from an ethnographic approach to the subject viewing things from the perspective of dead bodies who occupy the shadowy world of post conflict international politics This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of critical international relations security studies statecraft and memory studies      More Dangerous Ground Roger Cook, 2007 More Dangerous Ground takes a fascinating look behind the scenes of The Cook Report and offers a provocative insight into what makes Roger Cook tick      Indian Health Issues, Anchorage, Alaska United States. Double Jeopardy Without Parameters Olaoluwa Olusanya,2004 This book deals with the double jeopardy rule namely the practice of multiple characterisation of the same facts under different headings in international criminal law Such practice is problematic due to the fact that know how it works within the context of international criminal law How does one distinguish a situation in which an act may appear simultaneously to breach several criminal provisions whilst in reality it violates only one from another where the act does in fact breach more than one criminal provision International crimes such as genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes cannot be confined a single category of well defined offences such as murder voluntary or involuntary manslaughter theft etc Instead these crimes embrace broad clusters of identical offences and share certain general legal features Multiple characterisation of the same facts under different headings in international criminal law is therefore a complex legal problem Every case of mult      United States Congressional Serial Set, Serial No. 14850, House Reports Nos. 123-146 ,      Inside the Hotel Rwanda Edouard Kayihura,Kerry Zukus,2014 The story of what happened in the Hotel des Mille Collines during Rwanda s genocide in 1994 as told by Edouard Kayihura one of the survivors of the incident Kayihura and other hotel refugees do not endorse Rusesabagina s version of the events as seen in the 2004 movie Hotel Rwanda
