Embalming Is Not A Sport:

Embalming Is Not a Sport Arlin D. Menager, 2001-02-20 Cavitt Izon Breeze was born with a relatively rare eye disorder called microphthalmia which means he has been totally blind since birth At the very beginning of his life family member started to lay the framework for him to one day become totally independent This independence requires preparing his mind body and spirit to respond to each life s event with proper thoughts feelings and behaviors in order to ensure proper development of his physical emotional cognitive social and moralistic well being These areas of development are the main subject of this book Each issue experience accomplishment and failure shared by the blind people in this book are addressed to Cavitt who is five years old but are applicable to any child who is blind and entering the pathway to independence The stories you will read in this book are about real people with one thing in common blindness Some like little Cavitt they were blind from birth Others became blind shortly after birth but do not remember ever seeing They all have a message I did it my way and here is my way These unique people who are blind expressed their mental and emotional selves in a manner that illustrated the physical psychological intellectual social and moralistic situations in their lives They showed a willingness to live a life to its fullest despite their handicap Preserved Dean G. Lampros, 2024-03-26 A spirited look at how funeral homes impacted American consumerism the built environment and national identities Funeral homes those grand aging mansions repurposed into spaces for embalming merchandising funeral services and housing for the funeral director and their family are immediately recognizable features of the American landscape and yet the history of how these spaces emerged remains largely untold In Preserved Dean Lampros uses the history of this uniquely American architectural icon to explore the twentieth century s expanding consumer landscape and reveal how buildings can help construct identities Across the United States Lampros traces the funeral industry s early twentieth century exodus from gloomy downtown undertaking parlors to outmoded Victorian houses in residential districts As savvy retailers and accidental preservationists funeral directors refashioned the interiors into sumptuous retail settings that stimulated consumer demand for luxury burial goods These spaces allowed for more privacy and more parking and they helped turn Americans away from traditional home funerals toward funeral homes instead Moreover by moving into neighborhoods that were once the domain of white elites African American funeral directors uplifted their industry and altered the landscape of white supremacy The funeral home has tracked major changes in American culture including an increased reliance on the automobile and the rise of consumer culture Preserved offers an in depth cultural history of a space that is both instantly familiar and largely misunderstood

Death, Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England Clare Gittings, 2023-10-13 First published in 1984 Death Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England traces how and why the modern reaction to death has come about by examining English attitudes to death since the Middle Ages In earlier centuries

death was very much in the midst of life since it was not as now associated mainly with old age War plague and infant mortality gave it a very different aspect to its present one The author shows in detail how modern concern with the individual has gradually alienated death from our society the greater the emphasis on personal uniqueness the more intense the anguish when an individual dies Changes in attitudes to death are traced through alterations in funeral rituals covering all sections of society from paupers to princes This gracefully written book is a unique scholarly and thorough treatment of the subject providing both a sensitive insight into the feelings of people in early modern England and an explanation of the modern anxiety about death The range and assurance of this book will commend it to historians and the interested general reader alike     The Sunnyside ,1928     An Odd Undertaking Bill Wood,2024-01-28 An engaging story of life and death An Odd Undertaking features Bill Wood s memories of his career as an undertaker in London during the 1990s

Spurgeon's Sermons Volume 19: 1873 Charles Haddon Spurgeon,     Natural Science News ,1896     Does This Mean You'll See Me Naked? Robert Webster,2007-07 A funeral director reflects on 30 years of serving the living and the deceased while providing us with a behind the scenes story told with both empathy and humor He attempts to assuage our curiosity and answer those questions that are uppermost in our minds when faced with death including How do you handle the loss of a loved one What really happens during a death call Why do people send flowers What occurs during the restoration process What do people leave in loved ones caskets How has the undertaker s role evolved and much more

Extension of Life Robert J. Bauman,2012-04-19 As a mortician Michael Baumann a Jew pretending to be Aryan devised a highly unorthodox surgical procedure that converted Jews to Aryans This helped more than 400 Jews escape from Vienna to Switzerland With five other Jews pretending to be Aryan an elaborate escape and spy network was created While most of the operations were successful there were some failures Some died so that others could live Carefully researched the story blends fiction with factual history incorporating actual events and people The novel creates a realistic portrayal of Jewish life and death before and during the Nazi takeover of Austria     The Coffin Maker James McCarthy,2012-07-26 From behind the headstones the laser beams from the machine guns settle on the target coffin maker Pat O Donnell He is unwillingly digging a grave in the old colony cemetery on Achill Island for these thugs and they will not hesitate to use their fire power Who is he digging the grave for and why are they pointing their guns at him This nocturnal grave digging puzzles him but he might well be digging his own last resting place if the information has leaked out that he is working undercover with Garda Detective John O Neill trying to identify the reclusive drug lord The Big Fella Pat has a score to settle with him his gunmen had forced Pat s pregnant wife off the M50 to her death He has had other traumas in his life an adopted orphan who suffered abuse but the loss of his wife is the most devastating event that has ever happened to him He misses her everyday Midway into the dig a man and a woman alight from a jeep Even in the half light he can see she is beautiful but what is she doing here with these killers She is a stranger yet he feels drawn to her and her mysterious background Reluctantly he finds himself caught up in a web of fear intimidation drug smuggling and murder Book reviews online PublishedBestsellers website
