Embracing Their Memory Loss And The Social Psychology Of Storytelling:

Embracing Their Memory John H. Harvey, 1996 Centering not on just death and dying but on the broader topic of loss this sensitively written book uses stories and personal accounts to convey the widespread implications of losing someone dear to us Several quotations from literature and personal experience are scattered throughout to further emotional and spiritual engagement on the part of the reader

101 More Favorite Play Therapy Techniques Heidi Kaduson, Charles Schaefer, 2010-06-22 Separated into seven categories for easy reference the techniques within each chapter are applied to practice situations in a concise format for easy reference and use The interventions illustrated include Storytelling to enhance verbalizations in children Expressive Art to promote children's coping ability by using various art mediums Game Play to help children express themselves in a playful environment Puppet Play to facilitate the expression of conflicting emotions Play Toys and Objects to demonstrate the therapeutic use of various toys and objects in the playroom Group Play to offer methods and play techniques for use in group settings and Other to provide miscellaneous techniques that are useful in many settings This book is a response to the evident need of clinicians for easy to use play therapy techniques A welcome addition to the earlier collection it is designed to help children enhance verbalization of feeling manage anger deal with loss and grief and heal their wounds through the magic of play therapy Clear and marvelously simple this manual will be an invaluable addition to any professional's or student's library A Jason Aronson Book About Violence Artur

Victoria, 2025-04-02 Violence in its myriad forms remains a persistent and devastating challenge for individuals communities and societies worldwide To unravel the complexity of violence it is necessary to distinguish between the individual act and the broader context of aggression at the community level each of which requires different perspectives and approaches While recognising the interconnectedness of these forms we will make a clear distinction between individual violence rooted in psychological factors and personal experience and community violence fuelled by societal inequalities structural issues and cultural dynamics We seek to explore in depth the psychological roots of individual violence including mental illness anger management issues and the significant role of substance abuse in triggering or escalating violent behaviour We analyse specific examples delving into the motivations behind acts of aggression to illuminate the complex interplay of factors that contribute to such behaviour We then broaden our scope to examine the societal factors that give rise to community violence including social inequalities economic hardship gang activity and the influence of cultural and ideological differences The analysis will include a deep dive into the complex dynamics of gang violence and disputes highlighting the impact of community disorganisation The discussion will also extend to the profound consequences of violence at both individual and societal levels examining the long term physical and psychological effects on victims the economic costs and the erosion of trust and social cohesion within communities We will outline comprehensive strategies for violence prevention and intervention emphasising the need for multi stakeholder collaboration and highlighting the effectiveness of community based initiatives educational programmes and policy recommendations Ultimately we hope to contribute to a more informed and effective approach to reducing violence and building safer more peaceful communities for all

Perspectives On Loss John H. Harvey, 2014-01-14 Losses are integral to the human experience but they sometimes unfold in subtle ways Loss is not just about death but can encompass a number of situations such as those gradual losses experienced by the elderly loss of vision mental capacity or hope Intended to stimulate ideas and research in the new area of psychological aspects of loss this sourcebook collects the writing of a set of distinguished scholars representing psychology and related fields The author presents a case for a broadly construed field of loss both personal and interpersonal that would complement other fields such as death and dying traumatology and stress and coping No other volume is as comprehensive in its treatment of this intriguing subject The book begins with an introduction to the concept of loss and discusses the definition of the term and the salience of the topic in the general public in the 1990s Contributors were chosen to represent some of the most interesting current work on different types of loss and adaptation in the whole of the social and behavioral sciences Contents cover such diverse subjects as loss in intimate relationships disability chronic illness genocide sports unemployment and homelessness The book concludes with a commentary section on loss theory and research

The Sourcebook of Nonverbal Measures Valerie Lynn Manusov, 2014-04-04 The Sourcebook of Nonverbal Measures provides a comprehensive discussion of research choices for investigating nonverbal phenomena The volume presents many of the primary means by which researchers assess nonverbal cues Editor Valerie Manusov has collected both well established and new measures used in researching nonverbal behaviors illustrating the broad spectrum of measures appropriate for use in research and providing a critical resource for future studies With chapters written by the creators of the research measures this volume represents work across disciplines and provides first hand experience and thoughtful guidance on the use of nonverbal measures It also offers research strategies researchers can use to answer their research questions discussions of larger research paradigms into which a measure may be placed and analysis tools to help researchers think through the research choices available to them With its thorough and pragmatic approach this Sourcebook will be an invaluable resource for studying nonverbal behavior Researchers in interpersonal communication psychology personal relationships and related areas will find it to be an essential research tool

The AfterGrief Hope Edelman, 2020 A validating new approach to the long term grieving process that explains why we feel stuck why that's normal and how shifting our perception of grief can help us grow from the New York Times bestselling author of Motherless Daughters This is perhaps one of the most important books about grief ever written It finally dispels the myth that we are all supposed to get over the death of a loved one Claire Bidwell Smith author of Anxiety The Missing Stage of Grief Aren't you over it yet Anyone who has experienced a major loss in their past knows this question We've spent years fielding versions of it both explicit and implied from family colleagues acquaintances and friends We recognize the subtle cues the slight eyebrow lift the soft startled Oh That long ago from those who wonder how an event so far in the past can still occupy so much precious mental and emotional real estate Because of the common but false assumption that grief should be time limited too many of us believe we re grieving wrong when sadness suddenly resurges sometimes months or even years after a loss The AfterGrief explains that the death of a loved one isn t something most of us get over get past put down or move beyond Grief is not an emotion to pass through on the way to feeling better Instead grief is in constant motion it is tidal easily and often reactivated by memories and sensory events and is re triggered as we experience life transitions anniversaries and other losses Whether we want it to or not grief gets folded into our developing identities where it informs our thoughts hopes expectations behaviors and fears and we inevitably carry it forward into everything that follows Drawing on her own encounters with the ripple effects of early loss as well as on interviews with dozens of researchers therapists and regular people who ve been bereaved New York Times bestselling author Hope Edelman offers profound advice for reassessing loss and adjusting the stories we tell ourselves about its impact on our identities With guidance for reframing a story of loss finding equilibrium within it and even experiencing renewed growth and purpose in its wake she demonstrates that though grief is a lifelong process it doesn t have to be a lifelong struggle Help Me to Find My People Heather Andrea Williams,2012 Utilizes narratives letters interviews public records and diaries to explore the stories of separation of former slave families and their quest for reunification On Bereavement Walter, Tony,1999-10-01 Denne grundl ggende bog ser p de efterladtes sociale position De efterladte finder sig selv fanget mellem liv og d d nogle gange s gende efter retningslinjer i et de ritualiseret samfund som kun har lidt at tilbyde og nogle gange oplever de at deres sorg p upassende vis sygeligg res og kontrolleres af andre Bogen er rettet mod studerende sundhedspersonale socialarbejdere m v og bidrager med en sociologisk indgangsvinkel i forhold til d den d ende og d dsfald og de efterladte Give Sorrow Words John H. Harvey,2016-03-23 Throughout our lives we are influenced by the sensation of loss Whether implicit or obvious the impact of this sense of loss affects our daily thinking and behavior This new text provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of loss via exploration into three major types of loss loss of important relationships divorce or perhaps the dissolution of important relationships and friendships losses that damage who we are our self esteem loss of employment and losses resulting from victimization being the target of violence or prejudice loss of home in a natural disaster Students of sociology theology and family studies will find this text of key interest Moreover professionals in these fields including the fields of trauma and loss will appreciate the thorough literature review practical language clinical interventions and case highlights Handbook of Posttraumatic Growth Lawrence G. Calhoun,Richard G. Tedeschi,2014-07-10 Posttraumatic growth is an area in which investigations are now being undertaken in many different parts of the world The view that individuals can be changed sometimes in radically good ways by their struggle with trauma is ancient and widespread However the systematic focus by scholars and clinicians on the possibilities for growth from the struggle with crisis is relatively recent There are now a growing number of studies and scholarly papers on the antecedents correlates and consequences of posttraumatic growth and there are also theoretical models that can help guide the research further It is clear however that this phenomenon is not yet well understood The Handbook of Posttraumatic Growth Research and Practice provides both clinicians and researchers with a comprehensive and up to date view of what has been done so far In addition it uses the foundations of what has been done to provide suggestions for the next useful steps to take in understanding posttraumatic growth The book offers contributions of important and influential scholars representing a wide array of perspectives of posttraumatic growth This volume serves as an impetus for additional work both in the academic aspects and in the possibilities for clinical applications of posttraumatic growth This Handbook will appeal to students practitioners and researchers working in a broad array of disciplines and human services

Family Storytelling Jody Koenig Kellas, 2013-09-13 Stories and storytelling are one of the primary ways that families and family members make sense of both everyday and difficult events create a sense of individual and group identity remember connect generations and establish guidelines for family behavior With so many important functions storytelling is a significant but still understudied communicative process for the family Family Storytelling focuses on the ways in which stories are told in and about family in order to provide insight into the processes functions and consequences of family storytelling This collection of empirical articles illuminates various ways in which family storytelling affects and reflects the negotiation of individual and relational identity in the family teaches important family lessons and helps members make sense of and cope with difficulty Each of these functions is explored through both scientific and interpretive investigations thus showcasing the contributions that research on family storytelling from different paradigms make to our understanding of the family This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Family Communication

Post Traumatic Stress Theory John Harvey, Brian Pauwels, 2013-08-21 Few phenomena are as widely experienced across different individuals cultures and contexts as that of traumatic stress Whether as victims perpetrators supporters or simply observers most people can identify to some extent with the psychological and physical consequences produced by traumatic events This text examines the nature of traumatic stress the contexts in which it occurs and the needs and coping strategies of its survivors Topics include the survivors of rape soldiers of war and the nature of coping with loss or trauma in old age Furthermore the roles of culture social support and more formal organizations in the ongoing process of overcoming trauma are explored as the text details the nature of traumatic experiences the needs of survivors and the challenges faced by those who wish to support and help those survivors

African American Grief Paul C. Rosenblatt,Beverly R. Wallace,2021-08-11 African American Grief is a unique contribution to the field both as a professional resource for counselors therapists social workers clergy and nurses and as a reference volume for thanatologists academics and researchers The classic edition includes a new preface from the authors reflecting on their work and on the changes in society and the field since the book s initial publication This work considers the potential effects of slavery racism and white ignorance and oppression on the African American experience and conception of death and grief in America Based on interviews with 26 African Americans who have faced the death of a significant person in their lives the authors document describe and analyze key phenomena of the unique African American experience of grief The book combines moving narratives from the interviewees with sound research analysis and theoretical discussion of important issues in thanatology as well as topics such as the influence of the African American church gospel music family grief medical racism as a cause of death and discrimination during life and after death

Children of Divorce John H. Harvey,Mark A. Fine,2004-04-12 Children of Divorce features excerpts of stories collected from hundreds of young people The narratives embrace such themes as despair chaos in the family and missing dads The volume paints a picture of the pain the hope and the resiliency shown by young adults while in the throes of divorce and in the years to follow These poignant narratives are framed by an analysis of the most recent divorce literature The book clearly demonstrates the value of storytelling in helping people deal with major loss events in their lives The authors hope is that by examining these experiences we will gain a greater understanding of the effects of divorce and ultimately strengthen relationships in the future This book challenges the contention that most children will be irretrievably hurt by their parents divorce Presenting a mixture of young people s voices demonstrating the great variety of reactions to parental divorce it shows the strength and resilience many of these young people have learned in surviving the pain surrounding divorce in their families Emphasis is placed on how hope about the possibilities of having close relationships as well as a willingness to try to have stronger families in their own adult lives represent abiding motivations in this sample of young people Providing an overarching theoretical emphasis on the value of storytelling for people dealing with major losses the authors hope that this method of stressing the raw input of respondents will make the experiences more vivid and realistic to the reader

Loss and Trauma John Harvey,Eric Miller,2021-12-16 Given the relationship between trauma loss and interpersonal bonds the editors have assembled a noteworthy list of contributions discussing trauma associated with close relationships divorce infertility widowhood Certainly trauma is closely associated with loss This edited volume offers the perspective of over twenty leading scholars in the study of trauma and loss Each chapter offers extensive coverage of contemporary issues terror management rational suicide spirituality stigmatization Relationship issues within these topics are also explored Between Loss and Forever Cathy Babao Guballa, 2017-09-17 As a journalist grief coach and mother who lost a child the author accompanies the mothers with deep compassion She journeys with them not only with feeling but also with a clear understanding of the grieving This book can serve as a good guide for grieving mothers and their families and all those who want to help them Ma Lourdes A Carandang MD Odyssey of the Heart John H. Harvey, 2001-11-01 Written in a personal story telling style Odyssey weaves excerpts of actual relationships with current and classic research to provide a better perspective on our own experiences in light of the principles of relationships Highlights of its comprehensive coverage include the classic research on personal attraction dating and meeting others for closeness and the maintenance and dissolution of relationships Recommendations for Growth provides an opportunity for readers to directly apply current research and theory to their own relationships Features new to this edition include the latest research and therapeutic techniques on maintaining and enhancing relationships a new chapter on the family with recent demographic changes and a look at the ongoing debates about the impact of cohabitation divorce and blended families and new chapters on same sex relationships and the dark side of relationships including why women stay in abusive relationships Odyssey of the Heart serves as a text for courses on close and or interpersonal relationships Its accessibility and inclusion of many actual experiences will engage the general reader

Social Psychology of Health Urmi Nanda Biswas, 2014-01-01 The idea of the book germinated in the symposium on Social Psychology of Health Issues and Concerns of India which was a part of XX Annual Convention of the National Academy of Psychology NAOP India organized in Jawaharlal Nehru University in December 2011 Few papers in this book were earlier presented in the conference and few invited articles are contributed by experts in this nascent but growing sub field of enquiry within social psychology The chapters included in this book aim to propagate that large amount of the burden of disease can be understood as a product of societal factors which pushes people towards health aversive behaviour The chapters emphasize the need for understanding of disease and health care in Indian traditional system well being of women in Indian society and the effectiveness of community health care systems The book also covers various psycho social approaches to handle HIV AIDS pandemic in India and highlights factors that could make social marketing effective for public health care programmes and services In addition the book attempts to discuss the psycho social issues of care giving suicide etc in Indian society The content of the book will be helpful as supplementary reading for various courses on health psychology taught at undergraduate and postgraduate level in the colleges and universities across the country The issues and concerns shared in the book may interest the health care practitioners and policy makers to think differently and rediscover the importance of social psychological parameters in effective delivery of health services
