Progressive Creation and the Struggles of Humanity in the Bible Zoltan Dornyei, 2018-03-22 Why does the Christian walk often feel like an ongoing struggle and why does God's creation include imperfection let alone forces that are intent on thwarting God's creative work In seeking a response to these questions this book argues that the biblical accounts describe creation in terms of a progressive transformation process whereby the initially incomplete created order will reach perfection only in the fulfillment of new creation The following discussion then outlines a comprehensive framework for the biblical theology of humanity's struggles centered on three key themes corporeal temptation deficient social structures and the much debated notion of spiritual warfare The book presents an overarching canonical narrative that threads together a series of diverse biblical topics from Job's temptation to the Atonement The final part surveys biblical teaching on how human conduct can be aligned with God's creative purpose and discusses three assignments from Jesus to believers to celebrate the Eucharist to pray the Lord's Prayer and to fulfill the Great Commission

Exorcism and Deliverance Ministry in the Twentieth Century James Michael Collins, 2009 This study seeks to demonstrate that exorcism deliverance ministry is an innately enthusiastic practice utilising Knox's classic study of Christian enthusiasm The twentieth century provides an ideal arena for such a study since it frames a complete lifecycle for this rite from its infancy during the early decades through its heyday in the 1970s and 80s on to creeping routinisation by the end of the century Two enthusiastic settings Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist are identified and examined as the environment in which two related streams of exorcism deliverance ministry was practised Finally enthusiastic Sacramentalist exorcism is considered in order to establish the thesis that enthusiastic settings provide a conducive atmosphere for the emergence and practice of exorcism deliverance ministry Attention is paid to historical factors within the Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist streams that underlie the development of this rite As a result important secondary insights are gained into the tidal nature of enthusiastic movements the role of itinerant preachers in the propagation of enthusiasm the routinisation of enthusiastic practices and the manner in which enthusiasm overcomes institutional denominational boundaries The study provides the foundation for future investigation of the manner in which enthusiastic experience is presented for apologetic purposes the relationship between exorcism deliverance ministry and millenarianism and the practice of this rite within non Western churches James Collins is currently the pastor of Redhill Baptist Church having previously served congregations in Gold Hill Chalfont St Peter and Morden Park He holds degrees in
