God in Action: Seen if Your Eyes Are Open and Your Heart Is Humble Rev. Curtis Shipman DD, 2025-01-27. This book contains some of the experiences and lessons I have had over the last twenty-five years. I have found as a Christian, I am always learning. And the more I learn, the more there is to learn. God gave me a gift of not just believing in him but making sure I know him. There is neither man nor government that can change my mind about the Lord, my God. I hope this book will inspire its readers to find their place in God's house, the house not made with man's hands but the house in heaven, the place prepared for us by Jesus Christ. I also hope that this book will inspire the readers to stand for what is right in God's eyes. Teach others about God's kingdom before it is too late. Find love and forgiveness for all our neighbors, friends, and persons that have trespassed against us, for if we do not forgive others, there will not be forgiveness for us. Participation John Morgan

Hamilton, 2010-08-11. Participation is a journey with a man trying to change the way Americans feel about September 11, 2001, and the military who died in Iraq and Afghanistan. Based on true events, a former soldier who connects honor in serving his country with future economic growth to help communities and neighborhoods by designing the park of all parks after serving one year in Iraq. The stories found in this book can help a person unlock the doors to personal success from life experiences. With no training, a soldier creates a model park in a project like no other park in American history to honor a family he has known for half his life. In the midst of working on the project and helping his brother with his inventions, he uncovers a few skeletons on this journey. Fighting PTSD from serving in Iraq, dishonest individuals in the military, and homelessness, he discovers a plot over twenty years old with his brother as a target with possible murder coverups, missing persons, broken state and federal laws to take a product that could gain control over a twelve billion dollar market. Mr. Hamilton's military training comes in very handy with the help from unknown places and old friends. Their motto: We serve to honor, we honor to serve. First-time author John Morgan Hamilton opens a world most people don't talk about. In a four-book series, Participation introduces a man, a father, a soldier, and the battles he had to face for honor fellow falling Americans.

Bamboo Promise Vicheara Houn, 2012-11-20 <http://jsaaea.coehd.utsa.edu/index.php/JSAAEA/article/view/186/175> Cambodia is a country with beautiful temples and art and steeped in the Buddhist religion Despite this the once civilized society turned to violence and proceeded to destroy itself People betrayed their parents their children and their friends In the process they extinguished everything that represented the truth and beauty of Cambodia How does an individual withstand such experiences and resume life after having fought for a single grain of rice and witnessed unbelievable cruelties such as mothers crushing their babies young children willing to kill for a morsel of food and the entire decimation of normal urban life Bamboo Promise is author Vicheara Houns story of her survival This is the remarkable and intensely personal autobiography of a woman raised as the sheltered and privileged only child of a prominent Cambodian family As a young bride she and her entire family were swept up in the Cambodian genocide of the 1970s Houn recounts how she adapted and survived in the harsh killing fields of the Khmer Rouge terrorists in this compelling narrative Although the author survived many horrors Bamboo Promise is not a horror story It is the story of the evolution of a human spirit as she endured a tumultuous upbringing and an unspeakable tragedy The insights into life after Pol Pots defeat and Cambodias subjection by the Communist Vietnamese are particularly unique Bamboo Promise is also a story of hope as Houn found lasting happiness in the United States
