Gustav Stickley's Craftsman Farms Mark Alan Hewitt, 2001-03-01 From 1911 to 1917 Craftsman Farms now a major museum was the home of Gustav Stickley one of the central figures in the American Arts and Crafts Movement This book unravels the rich and sometimes contradictory ideas that informed not only Stickley but many of the artists and literary figures of the progressive era in America The year 1900 was the fulcrum in a long arc of utopian ideals dating back to Thomas Carlyle John Ruskin and William Morris in England a movement which would eventually lead up to the art communes of the Guild of Handicraft Woodstock and the MacDowell colony Craftsman Farms was at the center of a large group of American experiments in living the artistic life With this book Mark Alan Hewitt provides a foil for a critical examination of the theories that guided many architects artists and craft artisans at the turn of the last century Illustrated with specially commissioned photographs as well as many archival photographs from the Winterthur Museum and Library this book provides both a visual and historical record of Stickley's life and work during his most fertile creative period

Seduced by Modernity Mary O'Connor, Katherine Tweedie, 2007-07-30 Mary O'Connor and Katherine Tweedie tell the story of a dedicated artist in difficult circumstances whose working life spanned a Victorian upbringing in Hamilton Ontario and the witnessing of the first Soviet Five Year Plan The authors use feminist and historical questions as well as close readings of the photographs to relate Watkins work to questions of gender modernity and visual culture Watkins modernism which involved experimentation and a radical focus on form transgressed boundaries of conventional high art subject matter Her focus was daily life and her photographs whether an exploration of the objects in her New York kitchen or the public and industrial spaces of Glasgow Paris Cologne Moscow and Leningrad in the 1930s strike a balance between abstraction and an evocation of the everyday offering a unique gendered perspective on modernism and modernity

Shared Secrets Elizabeth Findley Shores, 2021-02-26 Winner 2023 Booker Worthern Literary Prize For nearly a century British expatriate Charles Joseph Finger 1867 1941 was best known as an award winning author of children's literature In Shared Secrets Elizabeth Findley Shores relates Finger's untold story exploring the secrets that connected the author to an international community of twentieth century queer literati As a young man Finger reveled in the easy homosociality of his London polytechnical school where he launched a student literary society in the mold of the city's private men's clubs Throughout his life as he wandered from England to Patagonia to the United States he tried to recreate similarly open spaces such as Gayeta his would be art colony in Arkansas But it was through his idiosyncratic magazine All's Well that he constructed his most successful social network writing articles filled with coded signals and winking asides for an inner circle of understanding readers Capitalizing on the publishing opportunities of the day Finger used every means available to express his twin loves literature and men He produced an enormous body of work and his short semiautobiographical fiction won some critical acclaim Ultimately the children's book that won Finger a Newbery Medal ushered him into the public eye ending his development as an author of serious queer literature Shared Secrets is both the story of Finger's remarkable adventurous life and a rare look at a community of gay writers and artists who helped shaped twentieth century American culture even as they artfully concealed their own identities

Advertising and Advertisements Elbert Hubbard, 1929 Tourists and Trade Bruce A. Austin, 2023-06-01 Amid the economic turmoil of the Great Depression in 1929 Clarence Wemett an upstate New York petroleum merchant underwrote a craft shop bordering U S Route 20 and a few years later a different one 15 miles away At precisely the wrong time for such things to happen the improbable idea of selling discretionary goods targeted to a consumer market characterized by 25 percent unemployment at a rural highway s roadside achieved traction the first shop was in business for a quarter century the second for nearly 40 years More significant than their surprising longevity is the shops long lasting contribution to a nascent national movement that spans crafts personally created for individual use to the commercial work that sees craft elevated to a fine art craft objects moved from pantry shelves to museum vitrines and craftworkers from hobbyists to professionals The roadside shops introduced a business model that 70 years later is widely experienced on a very different but equally super highway the Internet and their story is a chapter in the pre history of the modern crafts movement The Culture of Tourism, the Tourism of Culture William P. Clements Center for Southwest Studies,2003 The Southwest has long been an American dreamscape and inherently this has had its affect on the land and its people Among other topics discussed in the package of essays is how the area is transformed by tourism and how native people gain autonomy by presenting their experiences and cultures to tourists American Bungalow ,2006
