Healing Bodies And Souls A Practical Guide For Congregations:

Healing Bodies and Souls W. Daniel Hale, Harold George Koenig, As healthcare leaders widely recognize churches are second homes to their members and ideally situated indeed called to serve their communities with the loving and personal care that a stressed healthcare system cannot deliver Daniel Hale and Harold Koenig national leaders in health ministries offer a practical and engaging primer on developing a variety of initiatives for all who are concerned and interested pastors parish nurses lay leaders and concerned parishioners Their short volume mixes real life congregational case studies with vital information to equip congregants in helping people manage illness navigate the healthcare labyrinth avoid or manage disability and even provide some life saving and preventative medical services While their case studies report on the many kinds of engagement congregations have taken on each chapter also provides basic information on the most common healthcare challenges diabetes skin cancer stroke heart disease Alzheimer s Parkinson s breast cancer prostate cancer glaucoma and depression and what can be done in local congregations The Living Church ,2004 Guide to Ministering to Alzheimer's Patients and Their Families Pat Otwell,2008-05-19 Learn how to develop an effective Alzheimer s ministry The Guide to Ministering to Alzheimer s Patients and Their Families examines the importance of spirituality in dealing with the everyday challenges of this mysterious disease Not a how to manual with step by step instructions or tried and true formulas this unique book instead examines the essential elements of ministering to dementia patients based on the first hand accounts of family members living through pain and uncertainty The book explores the stages of Alzheimer s grief and guilt available resources and implications of spiritual care for patients and families It is equally useful as a textbook for graduate and undergraduate work a reference for study groups and seminars and a primer for those with limited knowledge of the illness Ministers sometimes neglect Alzheimer s patients and their families because they feel they don t know what to say or do even though they want to be obedient and faithful servants in this specialized ministry The Guide to Ministering to Alzheimer s Patients and Their Families communicates the thoughts feelings and needs of those affected by the disease to help ministers feel more comfortable confident and competent as they develop a theological understanding of God Alzheimer s patients and their role in ministry The book also provides models for ministry role play scenarios a sample text for a care facility worship service a care facility memorial service and a funeral service for a Christian and a non Christian as well as a sample clergy seminar program on Alzheimer s ministry The Guide to Ministering to Alzheimer s Patients and Their Families examines common characteristics of early mild moderate and severe Alzheimer s general information about Alzheimer s ethical decision making support group ministry respite care religious rites faith issues heredity hospitalization of Alzheimer s patients long distance caregiving working with other clergy The Guide to Ministering to Alzheimer s Patients and Their Families also includes a special appendix of selections from the Scriptures This book is a unique resource for all Christians who desire to minister to those affected by Alzheimer s especially pastors priests chaplains pastoral counselors church leaders healthcare professionals and seminary students Building Healthy Communities Through Medical-Religious Partnerships Richard G. Bennett, W. Daniel Hale, 2009-09 This innovative approach to the development of community based health education and patient advocacy programs offer valuable guidance for religious and medical leaders interested in developing partnerships between health systems and religious congregations Richard G Bennett and W Daniel Hale discuss a range of medical topics and provide practical information on establishing partnerships identifying resources that can be obtained from local and national organizations and training volunteers to assist others in navigating our complex health system In showing that these programs can be successful in bringing appropriate care to people who are often overlooked the authors pay special attention to the challenges and opportunities presented by our aging and increasingly diverse population from back cover The Right Road Gwen Wagstrom Halaas, 2004-01-01 Many clergy are in startlingly bad health Not only do they regularly report depression stress and serious family and financial problems they also exhibit higher than normal incidences of obesity high cholesterol levels inactivity high blood pressure and heart disease How effective can professionals in ministry be with such debilities and vulnerabilities Are clergy too busy helping others to take care of themselves Gwen Halaas's caring and savvy book addresses clergy health directly clergy have a spiritual as well as physical need to care for themselves to live to the fullest to ensure that they enjoy the life and gifts God gave them Building her brief practical book around the wellness wheel Halaas emphasizes not just healthy eating but a whole array of life affirming choices for clergy Halaas provides the tools for clergy to choose growth and well being over burnout and decline With this practical and upbeat volume clergy can begin to put their own lives in perspective and keep themselves in training for a godly life 1 Timothy 4:7 Clergy Burnout Fred Lehr, In this highly accessible book Fred Lehr clarifies the nature and practice of clergy codependence In twenty two short insightful and highly readable chapters filled with many examples and stories from his own life and those of others he has counseled Lehr identifies the typical forms codependence takes in the life and ministry of clergy 1 the chief enabler the one who keeps things functioning 2 the scapegoat the one on whom everything's blamed when it goes wrong the one who's responsible 3 the hero the example the pure and righteous one 4 the lost child the one no one really knows or cares about 5 the rescuer the one who saves the day makes the visit fixes the problem makes everything all right again 6 the mascot the cheerleader the one who offers comic relief brings down the tension level after a heated discussion The Church Enslaved Tony Campolo, Anthony Campolo, Michael Battle, 2005 Two of the most vocal activists on racial issues in the church here seek nothing less than a conversion of American Christianity Campolo and Battle expose the sad history and present realities of racism in the churches and then lift up a vision of a church and society without racism To achieve reconciliation among Christians they argue both black and white churches need to acknowledge and overcome substantial problems in their traditions Campolo and Battle then directly challenge Christians to a deeper spirituality enabling them to resume leadership in overcoming and redressing America's legacy of racial division

Depression - Out of the Darkness and Into the Light W. Daniel Hale, 2020-06-15 The need for churches and other faith communities to reach out and care for those suffering with depression has never been greater Depression is now recognized as one of our most serious public health concerns Each year more than ten percent of American adults experience a major depressive episode and more than twenty percent will experience at least one episode over their lifetime Furthermore we know that depression is the major risk factor for suicide now the second leading cause of death in the 10 34 year old age group and the fourth leading cause of death among adults ages 35 54 We also know that depression is a significant risk factor for substance abuse another of our most serious health concerns While we might want to believe that our religious faith can protect us from depression and suicide we know that is not true We have heard too many stories of religious leaders and members of deeply religious families who have suffered from depression and taken their own lives We need to recognize that no group is exempt from this terrible illness Depression is found among the young and old the religious and nonreligious and all ethnic and racial groups In Depression Out of the Darkness and Into the Light Dan Hale a psychologist and national leader in health ministries draws on his own his own struggles with depression his work as a psychotherapist and his experiences as a father who lost a daughter to depression to offer guidance for individuals and families impacted by depression and for congregations that recognize the importance of ministering to those suffering from this terrible illness
