D., Philip Shapiro, M.D., 2005-07 We seek unlimited peace love and joy in an uncertain world where suffering is inevitable Because we manage our pain poorly we get into trouble The wisdom of the ages taught by the world s diverse religious traditions offers a solution to this dilemma by pointing out the connection between pain management and the cultivation of spiritual qualities When we develop a spiritual practice we learn how to transform our suffering into spiritual power Dr Shapiro describes a self help method of ten steps that propel spiritual evolution The ten steps teach us how to expand our healing power improve our pain management skills and cultivate spiritual qualities The central premise is that life through a series of painful lessons teaches us that the peace love and joy we seek in the outer world can and must ultimately be found within Dr Shapiro elaborates twelve spiritual methods derived from the world s great religions These methods help us unlock healing and spiritual powers inherent in the body Detailed instructions explain how these methods help us cultivate peace love joy strength and courage in response to any pain of the body mind or soul These qualities are the jewels of this life They are healers They help us eliminate or endure any painful condition of body mind or soul They are more powerful than any barrier or challenge we may face We encounter trouble no matter which route we take but the way offered here is the path of least resistance the way through our pain to peace power and strength As we move forward through the steps we find ourselves living the richest possible life a journey where our spirit is in charge and we are ready for anything
