Elusive Subject A Biographers Life:

The Memoirs of John Addington Symonds Amber K. Regis, 2017-02-09 This edition is the first to reproduce John Addington Symonds's Memoirs in its entirety. It offers a panoramic view of middle class Victorian life, shedding light upon sexual cultures and life histories too often hidden from history. Symonds 1840-93 began writing his Memoirs in 1889. It was he who confessed a foolish thing to do. Symonds was a respected man of letters, an historian, translator, essayist, and poet; he was also married with children. But rather than unfold a simple tale of public and private achievement, the Memoirs record his struggle to reconcile his homosexuality with these professional and familial identities. His autobiography offers a confessional account of relationships beyond the accepted bounds of nineteenth century social mores, presenting an alternative case study that contests the legal and medical authorities that would label his desires a crime or disease. Yet being so eloquent on matters of heterodox sexuality, the Memoirs were suppressed. The manuscript survives because Symonds recognised its import; however foolish, he instructed his literary executor to preserve the text, a duty ultimately discharged by placing the manuscript under embargo in the care of the London Library. Biofictions Martin Middeke, Werner Huber, 1999

Biofictions sets out to explore this renewed interest in Romantic artist figures in the context of the current renaissance of life writing. The Complete Critical Guide to Thomas Hardy Geoffrey Harvey, 2003

Thomas Hardy was the foremost novelist of his time as well as an established poet. This guide provides students with a lucid introduction to Hardy's life and works and the basis for a sound comprehension of his work. In Collaboration with British Literary Biography Jane

McVeigh, 2017-10-13 This book is about one person's reading and what has been learnt about how the lives of other people, particularly authors, have been written in British literary biographies over the last fifty years. It is less interested in what happened in the lives of the people described in these biographies and more concerned with how these stories have been told. It aims to have a conversation with British biographers, particularly Michael Holroyd, Richard Holmes, Hermione Lee, and Claire Tomalin, to make their voices heard, to set them talking. It understands biography as an ongoing collaboration, not only between biographers and their subjects but between biographers and their readers. This is also a study of haunting in which we haunt the lives of others to help us come to a better understanding of our own. Biography and the Black Atlantic Lisa A. Lindsay, John Wood Sweet, 2014

In this volume leading historians reflect on the recent biographical turn in studies of slavery and the modern African diaspora. This collection presents vivid glimpses into the lives of remarkable enslaved and formerly enslaved people who moved, struggled, and endured in the eighteenth and nineteenth century Atlantic world. Literary Biography Michael J. Benton, 2015-05-26 Literary Biography: An Introduction illustrates and accounts for the literary genre that merges historical facts with the conventions of narrative while revealing how the biographical context can enrich the study of canonical authors. Provides up to date and comprehensive coverage of issues and controversies in life writing, a rapidly growing field of study. Offers a valuable biographical and historical context for the study of major classic and contemporary authors Features an interview with Wilfred Owen's biographer Dominic Hibberd a gallery of literary portraits with commentaries close readings that illustrate the differences between fiction and biography speculation about likely future developments and detailed suggestions for further reading Ghost Storeys Cameron Macdonell, 2017-07-04 Most studies of modern Gothic media assume that beyond the 1830s modern Gothic architecture and literature had very little in common The work of Ralph Adams Cram 1863 1942 America's most prolific Gothic Revival architect and an author of ghost stories challenges that assumption The first interdisciplinary study of Cram's aesthetics Cameron Macdonell's Ghost Storeys deconstructs the boundaries of Gothic architecture and literature through a microhistory of St Mary's Anglican Church in Walkerville Ontario Focusing on Cram and the church's main patron Edward Walker 1851 1915 Macdonell explores the intricate intersections of Gothic aesthetics architectural ethics literature theology cultural values and community construction in an Edwardian era company town When Walker commissioned the church he believed that its economy of salvation could save him from the syphilis that afflicted his body and stained his soul However while implementing that economy Cram whose architectural theory social commentary and ghost stories were pessimistic about reviving the Gothic in the modern world also created an architecture haunted by the sickness of humanity Painstakingly researched and lavishly illustrated Ghost Storeys redefines the allegorical relationship between a marginalized church and the Gothic Revival movement as a global interdisciplinary phenomenon Biography across the Digitized Globe , 2025-02-27 This volume is dedicated to Professor Hans Renders founder of the Biography Institute of the University of Groningen the Netherlands Throughout his academic career Renders witnessed a reflexive turn in historical research biographers became more open about the limitations of their sources and the subjective nature of their selection Over this same period however the availability of digital sources has increased exponentially which has profound implications for biographical research and the transnational framework used to approach the genre Through its thirteen thought provoking essays this work seeks to make an intervention in Biography Studies by bringing the well developed reflexive tradition to bear on the pressing challenge of proliferating digitized sources Against the Hounds of Hell Peter Eisenstadt, 2021-02-23 An inspiration to Martin Luther King Jr James Farmer and other leaders of the civil rights movement Howard Thurman was a crucial figure in the history of African Americans in the 20th century Until now however he has not received the biographical treatment he deserves In Against the Hounds of Hell Thurman scholar Peter Eisenstadt offers a fascinating exploration of the life of this religious thinker and activist Thurman's life was as notable for its remarkable variety as its accomplishments The first significant African American pacifist Thurman was the first African American to meet Mahatma Gandhi An early and outspoken feminist environmentalist and advocate for social and economic justice he was one of the first and most insistent mid twentieth century proponents of racial integration At the same time he was a key figure in the emergence of mysticism and spirituality as an alternative to formal religion Thurman dedicated his career to challenging what he called the hounds of hell the ways in
