Indurkha, 2013-03-09 Many metaphors go beyond pointing to the existing similarities between two objects they create the similarities Such metaphors which have been relegated to the back seat in most of the cognitive science research are the focus of attention in this study which addresses the creation of similarity within an elaborately laid out interactive framework of cognition Starting from the constructivist views of Nelson Goodman and Jean Piaget this framework resolves an apparent paradox in interactionism how can reality not have a mind independent ontology and structure but still manage to constrain the possible worlds a cognitive agent can create in it A comprehensive theory of metaphor is proposed in this framework that explains how metaphors can create similarities and why such metaphors are an invaluable asset to cognition The framework is then applied to related issues of analogical reasoning induction and computational modeling of creative metaphors      The Psychology of Line and Color in Dress Mabel Florence Wood, 1923      Extension Circular University of New Hampshire. Agricultural Extension Service, 1928      Making Kantha, Making Home Pika Ghosh, 2020-07-15 In Bengal mothers swaddle their infants and cover their beds in colorful textiles that are passed down through generations They create these kantha from layers of soft recycled fabric strengthened with running stitches and use them as shawls covers and seating mats Making Kantha Making Home explores the social worlds shaped by the Bengali kantha that survive from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In the first study of colonial period women's embroidery that situates these objects historically and socially Pika Ghosh brings technique and aesthetic choices into discussion with iconography and regional culture Ghosh uses ethnographic and archival research inscriptions and images to locate embroiderers' work within domestic networks and to show how imagery from poetry drama prints and watercolors expresses kantha artists' visual literacy

Affinities with older textile practices include the region's lucrative maritime trade in embroideries with Europe Africa and China This appraisal of individual objects alongside the people and stories behind the objects creation elevates kantha beyond consideration as mere handcraft to recognition as art

Cross-Cultural Reflections on Chinese Aesthetics, Gender, Embodiment and Learning Eva Kit Wah Man, 2020-01-29 This book gathers research and writings that reflect on traditional and current global issues related to art and aesthetics gender perspectives body theories knowledge and learning It illustrates these core dimensions which are bringing together philosophy tradition and cultural studies and laying the groundwork for comparative research and dialogues between aesthetics Chinese philosophies Western feminist studies and cross cultural thought Pursuing an interdisciplinary approach the book also integrates philosophical enquiries with cultural anthropology and contextual studies As implied in the title the main methodologies are cross cultural and comparative studies which touch on performances in art and aesthetics social existence and education and show that philosophical enquiries aesthetical representation and gender politics are simultaneously historical living and contextual The book gathers a wealth of cross cultural reflections on philosophical aesthetics gender existence and cultural traditions The critical thinking within will benefit undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in the area of comparative philosophies It blends academic rigor with personal reflection which is a critical practice in feminist philosophy itself
