Running, Eating, Thinking Martin Rowe, 2014-05-06 In recent years endurance athletes bodybuilders and long distance runners such as Ruth Heidrich Scott Jurek Rich Roll Brendan Brazier Robert Cheeke and many others have destroyed the notion that you cannot be a top flight competitor on a plant based diet and upended the stereotype that veganism means weakness placidity and passivity But are there deeper connections between veganism and running for example that reach beyond attaining peak performance to other aspects of being vegan such as living lightly on the land caring for other than human life and connecting to our animal bodies The fifteen writers in Running Eating Thinking wager that there are and they explore in manifold ways how those connections might be made From coping with cancer to reflecting on the need of the confined animal to run free from Buddhist ideas of nonviolence to harnessing the breath for singing and running and from extolling the glories of lentils to committing oneself to the long run in animal activism Running Eating Thinking is a pioneering anthology that may redefine your thinking about veganism and running
