Fantastic Illustration And Design In Britain 1850-1930:

Fantastic Illustration and Design in Britain, 1850-1930 Diana L. Johnson, 1979 Dictionary of British Cartoonists and Caricaturists Mark Bryant, Simon Heneage, 2022-01-25 Originally published in 1994 this dictionary provides a unique who's who of the major figures in the world of British cartoons and caricatures. It was the first book to encompass the entire field from c. 1730 when Hogarth published the first of his modern moral pictures to 1980. In addition to describing the careers and achievements of the artists and the characteristics of their styles, more than 500 entries give details of their publications, their illustrations to books and periodicals, exhibitions of their work, public collections in which their work is represented, and literature on or referring to them. More than 150 illustrations are included. This is a comprehensive reference work and will be of interest to social and political historians as well as cartoon and caricature enthusiasts.

Drawings and Illustrations Alastair, 2011-09-14 This retrospective showcases the works of a leader of the Decadent movement, Baron Hans Henning Voigt, 1887-1969. Better known as Alastair, the artist created works that are frequently likened to those of Aubrey Beardsley, Harry Clarke, and Edward Gorey. Alastair's highly ornate and distinctively ominous style blossomed with a series of erotic illustrations for the publisher and literary renegade Harry Crosby. This original selection of striking black and white drawings invites close examination and appreciation of the artist's skillful sensual tone. These shadowy, sinuous images include characters from stories by Oscar Wilde and Flaubert, as well as scenes from La Tosca and The Magic Flute. An informative Introduction by editor David A. Beron, a historian of illustrated books, offers background on Alastair and his unique place in twentieth-century art and illustration. Art historians, bibliophiles, and collectors and students of drawing and book illustration will treasure this affordable compilation of hard-to-find works.

Fantastic Illustration and Design in Britain, 1850-1930 Diane L. Includes scenes from fairy and folk tales and classics by Shakespeare, Hawthorne, and Spenser.
