Far From The Madding Crowd Studies In African Literature:

The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 1995 The Post Colonial Studies Reader is the most comprehensive selection of key texts in post colonial theory and criticism yet compiled This collection covers a huge range of topics featuring nearly ninety of the discipline's most widely read works The Reader's 90 extracts are designed to introduce the major issues and debates in the field of post colonial literary studies This field itself however has become so varied that no collection of readings could encompass every voice which is now giving itself the name post colonial The editors in order to avoid a volume which is simply a critical canon have selected works representing arguments with which they do not necessarily agree but rather which above all stimulate discussion thought and further exploration Post colonial theory has occurred in all societies into which the imperial force of Europe has intruded though not always in the official form of theoretical text Like the description of any other field the term has come to mean many things but this volume hinges on one incontestable phenomenon the historical fact of colonialism and the palpable consequences to which this phenomenon gave rise The topic involves talk about experience of various kinds migration slavery suppression resistance representation difference race gender place and reaction to the European influence and about the fundamental experiences of speaking and writing by which all these come into being In compiling this reader the editors have sought to stimulate people to ask How might a genuinely post colonial literary enterprise proceed The fourteen sections include Issues and Debates Universality and Difference Textual Representation and Resistance Postmodernism and Post Colonialism Nationalism Hybridity Ethnicity and Indigeneity Feminism and Post Colonialism Language The Body and Performance History Place Education and Production and Consumption Contributors include many of the leading post colonial theorists and critics such as Franz Fanon Chinua Achebe Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Homi Bhabha Derek Walcott Edward Said and Trinh T Minh-ha in addition to a number of the discourse's newer voices The Post Colonial Studies Reader will prove an authoritative compilation representing an invaluable contribution to the study of post colonial theory and criticism

In a Province: Studies in the Writing of South Africa Derek Attridge, Laura Pechey, 2022-01-15 This volume brings together the most significant essays on South African literature by the distinguished critic Graham Pechey who died in 2016 They combine an acute sense of the historical and geopolitical situation of South African writing before during and after apartheid with a sensitive ear to literary detail

Research in African Literatures, 2005 African Historical Studies E. A. Ayandele, 2005-06-28 First Published in 1979 This is a collection of twelve lectures essays and articles with the aim of revealing some of the too many aspects of the African past yet to be explored or sufficiently developed Another aim was to attempt new perspectives and interpretations of the more familiar aspects The themes exploration Western style education the reaction of Africans to the activities of Christian missions and the thought pattern and modernity aspirations of the educated elite have the common denominator of Euro African relations Collectively the themes are related historiographic concerns and methods and as products of a single mind bear the stamp of one style of thought      The Literature of Place Norman Page, Peter Preston, 1993-06-18 This collection of essays discusses writers who have in common their use of the English language The authors are from all over the world and their subject matter ranges from Shakespeare to Hardy from Margaret Oliphant to Kazuo Ishiguro and from the Canadian prairies to the Falklands War      The Political Lives of Victorian Animals Anna Feuerstein, 2019-07-04 Examines how liberal thought influenced representations of animals within nineteenth century animal welfare discourse and the Victorian novel      The Grounds of the Novel Daniel Wright, 2024-01-16 What grounds the fictional world of a novel Or is such a world peculiarly groundless In a powerful engagement with the latest debates in novel theory Daniel Wright investigates how novelists reckon with the ontological status of their works Philosophers who debate whether fictional worlds exist take the novel as an ontological problem to be solved instead Wright reveals the novel as a genre of immanent ontological critique Wright argues that the novel imagines its own metaphysical grounds through figuration understanding fictional being as self sufficient cohesive and alive rather than as beholden to the actual world as an existential anchor Through philosophically attuned close readings of novels and reflections on writerly craft by Thomas Hardy Olive Schreiner Colson Whitehead Virginia Woolf Zadie Smith Henry James and Akwaeke Emezi Wright shares an impassioned vision of reading as stepping into ontologically terraformed worlds and of literary criticism as treading and re treading the novel s grounds      The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Animals Derek Ryan, 2023-11-09 The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Animals surveys the role of animals across literary history and opens conversations on what literature can teach us about more than human life Leading international scholars comprehensively explore how engaging with creatures of various kinds alters our understanding of what it means to write and read and why this is important for thinking about a series of cultural ethical political and scientific developments and controversies The first part of the book offers historically rooted arguments about medieval metamorphosis early modern fleshiness eighteenth century imperialism Romantic sympathy Victorian racial politics modernist otherness and contemporary forms The second part poses questions that cut across periods concerning habitat and extinction captivity and spectatorship race and post coloniality sexuality and gender religion and law health and wealth In doing so this companion places animals at the centre of literary studies and literature at the heart of urgent debates in the growing field of animal studies      Studies in Fiction and History from Austen to Le Carre John Halperin, 1988-09-12      Catalogue of books in the lending department of the South Audley street library London St. George, Hanover sq, publ. libr, 1895      Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record , 1897      Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review , 1876      A Literary History of England Vol. 4 A.
