Cover Difference and Community Peter Easingwood, Konrad Gross, Lynette Hunter, 1996 This volume brings together essays which suggest that the relationship between Canada and Europe is a two-way process as historically the traffic between them has been either way. Europe too acknowledges situations today in which difference and community are hard terms to reconcile. Difference refers to gender, sexuality, race, nationality, or language. Community is the collective understanding which must continually be renegotiated and reconstructed among these factors. The Canadian-European connection is one in which it seems especially appropriate to explore such circumstances. The topics covered include pioneer women's writing, transcultural women's fiction, canonical taxonomy of the contemporary novel, the city poem in Confederate Canada, poetry of the Great War, various ethno-cultural perspectives, Jewish, South Asian, Italian, Native reappropriations, Quebec cinema, literature, and the media, and small press publishing. Some of the authors treated: Sandra Birdsell, Nicole Brossard, Jack Hodgins, Henry Kreisel, Robert Kroetsch, Janice Kulyk Keefer, Archibald Lampman.
