During her analysis, she trained as a counsellor. She now works as a therapist in primary care in Southwark, has a private practice, and is one of the quirkiest voices on the UK's spoken word scene. Since winning Short Fuse Poetry Idol, then Poetry Idol the Rivals in 2003, Liz's writing and performance has gone from strength to strength. Armed with her Casio keyboard and ukulele, she has been featured at events such as Ledbury Poetry Festival, London Literature Festival at Southbank, and Alternative Village Fete National Theatre. She has had three successful Edinburgh shows, 2008 being in Edinburgh's only swimming pool venue, a solo show, then hosting over 100 other writers/performers in the pool. Liz's experiences of mental health and multiple sclerosis have taken her into disability arts, performing at events such as Bonkersfest, Mad Pride, Mad Chicks, Liberty festival, Liberty laureate 2009, Da Da festival, and therapy conferences. She strives to smash the apartheid between disability and mainstream arts.

James Graham Plays: 1 James Graham, 2013-12-02. This collection brings together four of Graham's most successful and entertaining plays, each representing a relationship with a theatre with which he has worked and introduced by the author. One of the plays, Sons of York, has never before been published but earned James Graham a nomination for the Empty Space Mark Marvin Award. A History of Falling Things is a gentle love story about a young man and woman forced to confront their fears of the outside world and discover what really matters to their lives. Tory Boyz is a fast-paced political comedy about prejudice and ambition in Westminster, looking at homosexuality in the British Conservative party both today and in the past. As Ben, self-employed, skint, and emotionally vulnerable, begins to stitch together the patchwork quilt that was the Tax Year 2009/2010, he relives a year that was both hilarious and tragic, all mixed up in one shoe box of receipts. The Man is an affectionate and funny portrait of an individual's year-long experience pieced together from receipts, shopping, and commercial transactions. The Whisky Taster is a contemporary, subtle, and witty exploration of feeling and perception in the modern world of advertising and about seeing things too clearly in a city that never stands still. Sons of York, described as undoubtedly one of the best new plays of the year, British Theatre Guide Sons of York depicts three generations of the same family moving in together in Hull, as the Winter of Discontent of 1978 builds up.
