Farnham Nigel Temple,1973 Farnham, Building & People Nigel Temple,1963 Buildings for Mission Walter Nigel,2015-09-29 A money saving handbook for all who care for and maintain church buildings this practical and comprehensive guide provides expert advice from a leading church architect and an experienced heritage buildings specialist They also show how church buildings can be tools for contemporary mission packed with potential for community engagement The Architecture of Colen Campbell Howard Edward Stutchbury, Surrey Ian Nairn,Nikolaus Pevsner,Bridget Cherry,2002-01-01 Surrey s architecture is a constantly surprising mix of the rural and urban with many of its most important buildings such as the seventeenth century Ham House found amongst the outgrowth of London itself The landscape gardens of Painshill and Claremont attest to Surrey s popularity in the eighteenth century and the county s enthusiasm for follies and remarkable garden buildings More recent architecture includes notable early works by Lutyens with gardens by Gertrude Jekyll inspired by the rich stock of late medieval farmhouses and tile hung cottages in the county s southern villages Among interwar suburban housing there are some exceptional Modernist homes such as The Homewood by Patrick Gwynne Church architecture in Surrey includes work by all of the great names of the Gothic Revival not least of its surprises is the luminous and spacious interior of Guildford Cathedral The architecture of colen campbell Howard Edward Stutchbury, A History of Surrey Peter Brandon,2022-03-17 Surrey affords good examples of prosperous peasant life at the woodland margin in the Middle Ages and had some of the best developed industry before the Industrial Revolution The landscape gardening which has made the county unrivalled in its still beautifully contrived scenery is a major contribution to the arts of Western Europe Dr Brandon is meticulous in charting Surrey s growth detailed but not dull Surrey Advertiser Social Control and the Education of Adults in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries J. Jeffrey Robinson,2013 An almost universal concern of the Victorian governing classes was with the question of social control how to deflect a largely uneducated working class from their inevitable challenge to the centres of power accepted value systems and existing authority structures The fear in which the masses were held by the middle and upper classes came to dominate access to education or more accurately to what they defined as useful knowledge since this was designed to instil the values of a just and ordered society Conversely for the working class it would give them power power over their own lives and in so doing provide access to that social hierarchy currently valued by the governing minority This book addresses the role of the providers of education alongside the responses of those for whom it was intended It discusses the provision of educational initiatives and the frequent attenuation of their founding objectives It assesses the utility of the strategies of power and control adopted by the providers in order to maintain an upper class ideology Though evidence is discussed in a national context it is supported by additional data from a rural county both for the purpose of comparative analysis and in order to add character and hear the true voice of the men and women involved Historic Towns in Surrey Martin O'Connell,1977
