Elite Conflict In A Plural Society Twentieth Century Bengal:

Elite Conflict in a Plural Society J. H. Broomfield, 1968 Elite Conflict in a Plural Society, 2018 Elite Conflict in a Plural Society J. H. Broomfield, 1968 Becoming a Borderland Sanghamitra Misra, 2013-04-03 This book discusses the politics of space and identity in the borderlands of northeastern India between the early 1800s and the 1930s Critiquing contemporary post colonial histories where this region emerges as fragments this book sees these perspectives as continuing to be entrapped in a civilizational approach to history writing Beginning in the pre colonial period where it focuses on the negotiated character of state formation during the Mughal imperium the book then enters the space of the colonial where it looks at some of the early interventions of the East India Company The analysis of markets as transmitters of authority highlights an important argument that the book makes Peasantization and the introduction of the notion of the sedentary agriculturist as the productive subject also come up for a detailed discussion along with economic change and property settlements which are seen as important ways through which the institution of colonial legality got entrenched in the region Underlining the interface between the political economy and practices of cultural studies the book also explores the connections between speech production of counter narratives of historical memory political culture and economy with a focus on the cultural production of a borderland identity that was marked by hyphenated existence between proto Bengal and proto Assam A Hygienic City-Nation: Space, Community, and Everyday Life in Calcutta's Paras (1860-1945) Nabaparna Ghosh, 2020-10-29 This book offers an on the ground view of colonial Calcutta s neighbourhoods where kinship like ties shaped urban space and resisted city making efforts of the state Legal Histories of the British Empire Shaunnagh Dorsett, John McLaren, 2014-04-24 This book is a major contribution to our understanding of the role played by law s in the British Empire Using a variety of interdisciplinary approaches the authors provide in depth analyses which shine new light on the role of law in creating the people and places of the British Empire Ranging from the United States through Calcutta across Australasia to the Gold Coast these essays seek to investigate law s central place in the British Empire and the role of its agents in embedding British rule and culture in colonial territories One of the first collections to provide a sustained engagement with the legal histories of the British Empire in particular beyond the settler colonies this work aims to encourage further scholarship and new approaches to the writing of the histories of that Empire Legal Histories of the British Empire Laws Engagements and Legacies will be of value not only to legal scholars and graduate students but of interest to all of those who want to know more about the laws in and of the British Empire The Great Partition Yasmin Khan, 2017-07-04 A reappraisal of the tumultuous Partition and how it ignited long standing animosities between India and Pakistan This new edition of Yasmin Khan s reappraisal of the tumultuous India Pakistan Partition features an introduction reflecting on the latest research and on ways in which commemoration of the Partition has changed and considers the Partition in light of the current refugee crisis Reviews of the first edition A riveting book on this terrible story Economist

Unsparring Provocative and painful Times London Many histories of Partition focus solely on the elite policy makers Yasmin Khan's empathetic account gives a great insight into the hopes dreams and fears of the millions affected by it Owen Bennett Jones BBC Nation Games Benjamin Zachariah, 2020-08-10 This volume examines the tension between the nation idea as a necessary language of legitimacy with which to claim liberation and its role in disciplining people and their identities in India in the name of national liberation It is an attempt to open up new lines of thinking and ways of reading Indian history

Partition of India Amit Ranjan, 2018-11-20 The Partition of British India in 1947 set in motion events that have had far reaching consequences in South Asia wars military tensions secessionist movements and militancy terrorism This book looks at key events in 1947 and explores the aftermath of the Partition and its continued impact in the present day understanding of nationhood and identity It also examines the diverse and fractured narratives that framed popular memory and understanding of history in the region The volume includes discussions on the manner in which regions such as the Punjab Sindh Kashmir Bengal Uttar Pradesh Lucknow and North East India were influenced It deals with issues such as communal politics class conflict religion peasant nationalism decolonization migration displacement riots the state of refugees women and minorities as well as the political relationship between India Pakistan and Bangladesh Drawing on major flashpoints in contemporary South Asian history along with representations from literature art and popular culture this book will interest scholars of modern Indian history Partition studies colonial history postcolonial studies international relations politics sociology literature and South Asian studies A Century of Protests Arupjyoti Saikia, 2015-08-12 Addressing an important gap in the historiography of modern Assam this book traces the relatively unexplored but profound transformations in the agrarian landscape of late and post colonial Assam that were instrumental in the making of modern Assamese peasantry and rural politics It discusses the changing relations between various sections of peasantry state landed gentry and politics of different ideological hues nationalist communist and socialist and shows how a primarily agrarian question concerning peasantry came to occupy the centre stage in the nationalist politics of the state It will especially interest scholars of history agrarian and peasant studies sociology and contemporary politics as also those concerned with Northeast India Indians in Britain Shompa Lahiri, 2013-10-18 This is an analysis of the nature and impact of the Indian presence in Britain and British reactions to it Problems of discrimination isolation and deprivation turned many students to politics they appropriated ideas and institutions and challenged British metropolitan society Cultivating Democracy Mukulika Banerjee, 2021-10 An ethnographic study of Indian democracy that shows how agrarian life creates values of citizenship and active engagement that are essential for the cultivation of democracy Cultivating Democracy provides a compelling ethnographic analysis of the relationship between formal political institutions and everyday citizenship in rural India Banerjee draws on deep engagement with the people and social life in two West Bengal villages from 1998 2013 during election campaigns and in the times between to show how the micro politics of their day to day life builds active engagement with the macro politics of state and nation Her sensitive analysis focuses on several events in the life of the villages shows how India's agrarian rural society helps create practices and conceptual space for these citizens to be effective participants in India's great democratic exercises Specifically she shows how the villagers creative practices around their kinship farming and religion while navigating encounters with local communist cadres constitute a vital and continuing cultivation of those republican virtues of cooperation civility solidarity and vigilance which the visionary Ambedkar considered essential for the success of Indian democracy At a time when so much of that constitutional vision is under threat this book provides a crucial scholarly rebuttal to all on Right or Left who dismiss rural citizens political capacities and democratic values This book will appeal to anyone interested in India's political culture and future its rural society or the continuing relevance of political anthropology

Worlding Forster Stuart Christie, 2013-11-05 Focusing on the literary works and career of British novelist E M Forster 1879-1970 this book argues that the writer adapted a much older literary form the pastoral to the purposes of writing about modern British experience The publication points out that Forster's pastoral fiction challenged conventional parameters for the British novel allowing for the emergence of his subsequent modernist classic A Passage to India including its critique of British imperialism The monograph also provides a rationale for why Forster subsequently turned his artistic focus beyond Britain embracing public radio under the direction of the British Broadcasting Corporation

Islam and Democracy in South Asia Md Nazrul Islam, Md Saidul Islam, 2020-03-20 Grounded in the Weberian tradition Islam and Democracy in South Asia: The Case of Bangladesh presents a critical analysis of the complex relationship between Islam and democracy in South Asia and Bangladesh The book posits that Islam and democracy are not necessarily incompatible but that the former has a contributory role in the development of the latter Islam came to Bengal largely by Sufis and missionaries through peaceful means and hence a moderate form of this religion got rooted in the society Both militant Islam and militant secularism are equal threats to democracy and pluralism Like democracy political Islam has many faces Political Islam adhering to democratic norms and practices what the authors call democratic Islamism unlike militant Islamism is not anti democratic The book shows that the suppression of democracy and human rights creates avenues for the consolidation of militant Islamism orthodox Islam and Islamic terrorism while the fair play of democracy results in the decline of anti democratic form of political Islam

Bengali Cinema: An Other Nation Sharmistha Gooptu, 2018-05-31 Sharmistha Gooptu is a founder and managing trustee of the South Asia Research Foundation SARF a not for profit research body based in India SARF's current project SAG South Asian Gateway is in partnership with Taylor and Francis and involves the creation of what will be the largest South Asian digital database of historical materials She is also the joint editor of the journal South Asian History and Culture Routledge and the Routledge South Asian History and Culture book series

Tea Environments and Plantation Culture Arnab Dey, 2018-12-13 Arnab Dey examines the intersecting role of law ecology and agronomy in shaping the history of tea and its plantations in British east India He suggests that looking afresh at the legal environmental and agro economic aspects of tea production illuminate covert expedient and often illegal administrative and commercial dealings that had an immediate and long term human and environmental impact on the region Critiquing this imperial commodity s advertised mandate of agrarian modernization in colonial India Dey points to numerous tea pests disease ecologies felled forests harsh working conditions wage manipulation and political resistance as examples of tea s unseemly legacy in the subcontinent Dey draws together the plant and the plantation in highlighting the ironies of the tea economy and its consequences for the agrarian history of eastern India

Poetics of Village Politics Arild Engelsen Ruud, 2022-05-29 Originally published in 2003 this volume studies village politics and the changes brought about in rural society through political developments It focuses on the social political and cultural circumstances of communist mobilization in rural West Bengal It analyses the emergence of rural communism in the local context of changes in the position of women in caste practices in economic conditions and in new efforts to create development It investigates how this cultural change interacts with the mechanisms and tools of village politics and using anthropological methods and oral history as tools allows for a detailed and intimate ethnographic description of village politics and its changes

Neonationalist Mythology in Postwar Japan Nariaki Nakazato, 2016-04-27 Radhabinod Pal was an Indian jurist who achieved international fame as the judge representing India at the Tokyo War Crimes Tribunal and dissented from the majority opinion holding that all Japanese Class A war criminals were not guilty of any of the charges brought against them In postwar Japanese politics right wing polemicists have repeatedly utilized his dissenting judgment in their political propaganda aimed at refuting the Tokyo trial s majority judgment and justifying Japan s aggression gradually elevating this controversial lawyer from India to a national symbol of historical revisionism Many questions have been raised about how to appropriately assess Pal s dissenting judgment and Pal himself Were the arguments in Pal s judgment sound Why did he submit such a bold dissenting opinion What was the political context More fundamentally why and how did the Allies ever nominate such a lawyer as a judge for a tribunal of such great political importance How should his dissent be situated within the context of modern Asian history and the development of international criminal justice What social and political circumstances in Japan thrust him into such a prominent position Many of these questions remain unanswered while some have been misinterpreted This book proposes answers to many of them and presents a critique of the persistent revisionist denial of war responsibility in the Japanese postwar right wing movement

The Great Indian Education Debate Martin Moir, Lynn Zastoupil, 2013-12-16 A bitter debate erupted in 1834 between Orientalists and Anglicists over what kind of public education the British should promote in their growing Indian empire This collection of the main documents pertaining to the controversy some published for the first time aims to recover the major British and South Asian voices broaden our understanding of imperial discourses and recognise the significant role of the colonised in the shaping of colonial knowledge Bringing together into a single volume documents not easily obtained long out of print never before published or scattered about in sundry books and journals enables modern readers to judge the relative merits of the various arguments and undermines the common impression that the controversy was simply an exercise in colonial power involving only Europeans

Understanding Social Dynamics in South Asia Partha Nath Mukherji, N. Jayaram, Bhola Nath Ghosh, 2019-02-26 This volume includes fourteen essays by eminent sociologists in memory of Ramkrishna Mukherjee 1919 2017 the last of the founding architects of sociology in India It also includes two interviews with Ramkrishna Mukherjee by senior sociologists The essays cover a variety of themes and topics close to the works of Ramkrishna Mukherjee the idea of unitary social science methodology of social research the question of facts and values rural society and social change social mobility family and gender and nationalism In the two interviews included here Mukherjee clarifies his intellectual trajectory as well as issues of methodology and methods in social research Overall this volume endorses his emphasis on the need for social researchers to transcend the what and how to why in the pursuit of sociological knowledge The volume is a valuable addition to the history of sociology in India Students of sociology and other social sciences will find it useful as a book of substantive readings on social dynamics those researching the social world will find in it a useful guide to issues in designing and execution of social research projects
