Teaching the Truth Miriam Tager,2024-01-16 Teaching the truth about our history to young children is essential in our quest to dismantle racism in the United States Pre service teachers must reconceptualize teaching history to young children by teaching the hidden histories of our nation so that young children can challenge their own biases and assumptions created by a white supremacist society Teaching the Truth Uncovering the Hidden History of Racism with Young Children counters the recent narrative that African American History should be whitewashed instead centering it in the early childhood curriculum Topics covered in this book include the institution of slavery Reconstruction Jim Crow era The Great Migration Segregation of schools Civil Rights and Voting Rights Police Brutality and Black Lives Matter We've Been Doing It Your Way Long Enough Janice Baines,Carmen Tisdale,Susi Long,2018 Filled with day to day literacy practices this book will help elementary school teachers understand their role in dismantling the imbalance of privilege in literacy education. Chapters take readers into classrooms where they will see hear and feel decolonizing and humanizing culturally relevant pedagogies as students learn literacy and a critical stance through musical literacies oral histories heritage lessons and building a critical consciousness. The authors also share strategies to help teachers examine their own educational spaces start the school year in culturally relevant ways build reciprocal relationships with families and communities and teach within standards and testing mandates while challenging unjust systems. Practices are brought to life through students families and community members who voice the realities of pedagogical privilege and oppression and urge educators to take action for change. Teachers of every child must acknowledge that we've been doing it your way long enough this is the brilliance of the book and the work that lies ahead for all who commit to choosing the culturally relevant classroom. Valerie Kinloch dean University of Pittsburgh School of Education Captures the heart of culturally relevant teaching. It is impossible to read this book and return to the same old pedagogies and practices. Nathaniel Bryan Miami University This volume seamlessly embeds guidance for creating liberating pedagogical practices in order to transform schools for all students and teachers. Gloria Boutte University of South Carolina

Mama Africa! Kathryn Erskine, 2017-10-10 An inspiring picture book biography of iconic singer and activist Miriam Makeba by National Book Award winner Kathryn Erskine. Miriam Makeba a Grammy Award winning South African singer rose to fame in the hearts of her people at the pinnacle of apartheid a brutal system of segregation similar to American Jim Crow laws. Mama Africa as they called her raised her voice to help combat these injustices at jazz clubs in Johannesburg in exile at a rally beside Dr Martin Luther King Jr and before the United Nations. Set defiantly in the present tense this biography offers readers an intimate view of Makeba's fight for equality. Kathryn Erskine's call and response style text and Charly Palmer's bold illustrations come together in a raw riveting duet of protest song and praise poem. A testament to how a single voice helped to shake up the world and can continue to do so.

Representations of Slavery in Children's Picture Books Raphael Rogers, 2018-05-16 Drawing on critical race theory critical race feminism critical multicultural analysis and intertextuality this book examines how slavery is represented in contemporary children's picture books. Through analysis of recently published picture books about slavery Rogers discusses how these books engage with and respond to the historiography of the institution of slavery. Exploring how contemporary writers and illustrators have represented the institution of slavery Rogers presents a critical and responsible approach for reading and using picture books in K-12 classrooms and demonstrates how these picture books about slavery continue to perform important cultural work.
