I Am Your Sister Rudolph P. Byrd, Johnnetta Betsch Cole, Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 2009-04-21 Audre Lorde was not only a famous poet she was also one of the most important radical black feminists of the past century Her writings and speeches grappled with an impressive broad list of topics including sexuality race gender class disease the arts parenting and resistance and they have served as a transformative and important foundation for theorists and activists in considering questions of power and social justice Lorde embraced difference and at each turn she emphasized the importance of using it to build shared strength among marginalized communities I Am Your Sister is a collection of Lorde's non fiction prose written between 1976 and 1990 and it introduces new perspectives on the depth and range of Lorde's intellectual interests and her commitments to progressive social change Presented here for the first time in print is a major body of Lorde's speeches and essays along with the complete text of A Burst of Light and Lorde's landmark prose works Sister Outsider and The Cancer Journals Together these writings reveal Lorde's commitment to a radical course of thought and action situating her works within the women's gay and lesbian and African American Civil Rights movements They also place her within a continuum of black feminists from Sojourner Truth to Anna Julia Cooper Amy Jacques Garvey Lorraine Hansberry and Patricia Hill Collins I Am Your Sister concludes with personal reflections from Alice Walker Gloria Joseph Johnnetta Betsch Cole Beverly Guy Sheftall and bell hooks on Lorde's political and social commitments and the indelibility of her writings for all who are committed to a more equitable society

Sexual Culture in Germany in the 1970s Janin Afken, Benedikt Wolf, 2019-12-11 This book is the first attempt to present a comprehensive picture of LGBT culture in the two German states in the 1970s Starting from the common view of the decade between the moderation of the German anti sodomy law in 1968 East and 1969 West and the first documented case of AIDS 1982 as a golden age for queer politics and culture this edited collection traces the way this impression has been shaped by cultural production The chapters ask What exactly made the 1970s a legendary decade What was its revolutionary potential and what were its path breaking political and aesthetic strategies Which elements movements and memories had to be marginalized in order to facilitate the historical construction of the legendary decade Exploring the complex picture of gay lesbian and to a lesser extent trans cultures from this time the volume provides fascinating insights into both canonized and marginalized texts and films from and about the decade

Not So Plain as Black and White Patricia M. Mazón, Reinhild

Steingröver, 2005 After World War II brown babies were born to African American GIs stationed in Germany and German mothers Today there are 500 000 Afro Germans in Germany out of a population of 80 million Nevertheless German society still sees them as foreigners assuming they are either African or African American but never German As editors Patricia Mazon and Reinhild Steingrover argue the experience of Afro Germans provides insight into contemporary Germany's transformation willing or not into a multicultural society Furthermore looking at Afro Germans allows us to see another dimension of the ideas of race that shaped the twentieth century and led to the Holocaust Jacket

Macmillan's German Idioms Myra Taker, 1900

Hitler's Black Victims Clarence Lusane, 2004-11-23 Drawing on interviews with the black survivors of Nazi concentration camps and archival research in North America Europe and Africa this book documents and analyzes the meaning of Nazism's racial policies towards people of African descent specifically those born in Germany England France the United States and Africa and the impact of that legacy on contemporary race relations in Germany and more generally in Europe The book also specifically addresses the concerns of those surviving Afro Germans who were victims of Nazism but have not generally been included in or benefited from the compensation agreements that have been developed in recent years

Colors 1800/1900/2000, 2016-08-09 By recasting instances of German cultural production around the turns of centuries 1800 1900 2000 the essays in this volume examine the role that color has played in perceiving and representing ethnic difference In innovative essays literary scholars historians anthropologists and art historians support an overarching thesis that the origins of a modern ethnic imagination inscribe patterns of seeing whereas more recent developments involve processes of de colorization and metaphorization By preserving the difference in disciplinary approaches methods and writing styles the volume presents a genuinely interdisciplinary approach to German Studies and is therefore of interest to Germanists as well as to all others engaged in the study and scholarship of German Culture

GOTHEKULT UND GOTHEPHIOLOGIE Friedrich Braitmaier, 1892 An Abridged Method Toussaint-Langenscheidt
Karl Blattner, 1914 African Diasporas in the New and Old Worlds, 2021-11-01 In the humanities the term diaspora recently emerged as a promising and powerful heuristic concept It challenged traditional ways of thinking and invited reconsiderations of theoretical assumptions about the unfolding of cross cultural and multi ethnic societies about power relations frontiers and boundaries about cultural transmission communication and translation The present collection of essays by renowned writers and scholars addresses these issues and helps to ground the ongoing debate about the African diaspora in a more solid theoretical framework Part I is dedicated to a general discussion of the concept of African diaspora its origins and historical development Part II examines the complex cultural dimensions of African diasporas in relation to significant sites and figures including the modes and modalities of creative expression from the perspective of both artists writers and their audiences finally Part III focusses on the resources collections and archives and iconographies that are available today As most authors argue the African diaspora should not be seen merely as a historical phenomenon but also as an idea or ideology and an object of representation By exploring this new ground the essays assembled here provide important new insights for scholars in American and African American Studies Cultural Studies Ethnic Studies and African Studies The collection is rounded off by an annotated listing of black autobiographies Routledge Handbook of Character Assassination and Reputation Management Sergei A. Samoilenko, Martijn Icks, Jennifer Keohane, Eric Shiraev, 2019-12-05 In modern politics as well as in historical times character attacks abound Words and images like symbolic and psychological weapons have sullied or destroyed numerous reputations People mobilize significant material and psychological resources to defend themselves against such attacks How does character assassination work and when does it not Why do many targets fall so easily when they are under character attack How can one prevent attacks and defend against them The Routledge Handbook of Character Assassination and Reputation Management offers the first comprehensive examination of character assassination Moving beyond studying corporate reputation management and how public figures enact and maintain their reputation this lively volume offers a framework and cases to help understand critically analyze and effectively defend against such attacks Written by an international and interdisciplinary team of experts the book begins with a theoretical

introduction and extensive description of the five pillars of character assassination 1 the attacker 2 the target 3 the media 4 the public and 5 the context The remaining chapters present engaging case studies suitable for class discussion These include Roman emperors Reformation propaganda the Founding Fathers defamation in US politics women politicians autocratic regimes European leaders celebrities nations Internet campaigns This handbook will prove invaluable to undergraduate and postgraduate students in communication political science history sociology and psychology departments It will also help researchers become independent critical and informed thinkers capable of avoiding the pressure and manipulations of the media Decolonizing German and European History at the Museum Katrin Sieg, 2021-12-06

Decolonizing German and European History at the Museum examines efforts by European museums to investigate colonialism as part of an unprocessed past confront its presence and urge repair A flurry of exhibitions and the overhaul of numerous large museums in the last decade signal that an emergent colonial memory culture is now reaching broader publics Exhibitions pose the question of what Europeans owe to those they colonized Decolonizing German and European History at the Museum shows how museums can help visitors mourn historic violence and identify the contemporary agents beneficiaries victims survivors and resisters of colonial presence At the same time the book treats the museum as part of the racialized power relations that activists academics and artists have long protested against This book asks whether museums have made the dream of activists academics and artists to build equitable futures more acceptable and more durable or whether in packaging that dream for general audiences they curtail it Confronting colonial violence this book argues pushes Europeans to face the histories of racism and urges them to envision antiracism at the global scale Becoming Black Michelle M. Wright, 2004-01-07 A theoretical troubling of the assumptions of uniformity in Blackness comparing writings by and about African diasporic subjects from the U S Britain France and Germany Women in German Yearbook Women in German Yearbook, 1997-02-01 Volume 12 of Women in German Yearbook opens with a cluster of cross disciplinary articles Sara Lennox explores pertinent theoretical issues and introduces articles by historian Atina Grossman sociologist Myra Marx Ferree and political theorist Joan Cocks Three subsequent articles focus on the nineteenth century Todd Kontje challenges the notion that the Wars of Liberation renewed conservatism regarding gender Irmela Marei Krüger Fritzsche presents a new reading of the father daughter relationship in Kleist's Marquise of O and Helen G Morris Keitel describes the cultural work of Louise Otto's Castle and Factory Barbara Hales analyzes the criminal femme fatale as evidence of Weimar Germany's deep seated discomfort with modernity Kathrin Bower discusses poems by Nelly Sachs and Rose Ausländer as searches for the Mother Charlotte Melin analyzes gender differences in reworkings of the Alice in Wonderland motif Helgard Mahrldt explores connections between Ingeborg Bachmann's prose and the cultural criticism of the Frankfurt School and Frederick A Lubich interviews the writer Elisabeth Alexander Two articles focus on cultural differences Karen Jankowsky reads The Facade by Libuše Moníková a Czech author writing in German and Leslie Adelson discusses Eva Dömski's Afra in terms of Afro German discourse The volume closes with the editors views on the yearbook s role in creating an American Germanics Sara Friedrichsmeyer is a professor of German at the University of Cincinnati Raymond Walters College and the author of The Adrogyne in Early German Romanticism Patricia A Herminhouse a professor of German at the University of Rochester is the editor of Frauen im Mittelpunkt An Anthology of Contemporary German Women Writers Mobilizing Black Germany Tiffany N. Florvil, 2020-12-28 In the 1980s and 1990s Black German women began to play significant roles in challenging the discrimination in their own nation and abroad Their grassroots organizing writings and political and cultural activities nurtured innovative traditions ideas and practices These strategies facilitated new often radical bonds between people from disparate backgrounds across the Black Diaspora Tiffany N Florvil examines the role of queer and straight women in shaping the contours of the modern Black German movement as part of the Black internationalist opposition to racial and gender oppression Florvil shows the multifaceted contributions of women to movement making including Audre Lorde s role in influencing their activism the activists who inspired Afro German women to curate their own identities and histories and the evolution of the activist groups Initiative of Black Germans and Afro German Women These practices and strategies became a rallying point for isolated and marginalized women and men and shaped the roots of contemporary Black German activism Richly researched and multidimensional in scope Mobilizing Black Germany offers a rare in depth look at the emergence of the modern Black German movement and Black feminists politics intellectualism and internationalism New Paradigm Shifts in Literature through Poetry's Transcendence of Boundaries Yasser K. R. Aman, 2025-03-05 This book proves that when science and literature especially poetry enact and interact with each other transdisciplinary fields are created and new knowledge building practices are produced The discussions of interconnections between poetry on the one hand and physics biology biochemistry and pharmacology on the other hand stress that common ground can be found among diverse disciplines and transdisciplinary solutions can be offered to wicked problems The relation between science and transdisciplinarity and other knowledge systems including arts and literature should be supported Novel thinking mixing and merging disciplines creating a third space and realizing new findings should relate academy to society Therefore researchers and transdisciplinarians should focus on the power that can reshape the world transcending traditional academic confines Raising questions that can lead to deeply philosophical and scientific disputes develops solutions for wicked problems and creates an ongoing encounter on all solutions There should be a remapping of societal landscape so that transdisciplinarity yields fruitful results and leaves a formative impact on every aspect of life The demolition Helmuth Wolters, 2023-10-04 The world is facing a crisis of unimagined proportions Climate collapse and Corona are presenting us with challenges that could not even have been imagined just a few years ago Terms like debt brake or black zero seem out of time While the world is hunting for a vaccine long suppressed grievances suddenly become visible We are accustomed to a world of waste and prosperity and hardly notice that in Germany eight percent of farms manage more than half of all agricultural land and thus also collect the lion's share of EU subsidies Unequal distribution of wealth and the devaluation of savings play into the hands of the political elites and produce ever greater dependencies African Diasporas Aija Poikâne-Daumke, 2006 This book investigates the development of Afro German literature in the context of the African American experience and shows the decisive role of literature for the emergence of the Afro German Movement Various Afro German literary and cultural initiatives which began in the 1980s arose as a response to the experience of being marginalized to the point of invisibility within a dominant Eurocentric culture that could not bring the notions of Black and German together in a meaningful way The book is a significant contribution to the understanding of German literature as multi ethnic and of the transatlantic networks operating in the African Diasporas Women in German Yearbook 2004 Women in German Yearbook, 2005-01-01 Women in German Yearbook is a refereed publication that presents a wide range of feminist approaches to all aspects of German literature culture and language including pedagogy Reflecting the interdisciplinary perspectives that inform feminist German studies each issue contains critical studies involving gender and other analytical categories to examine the work history life literature and arts of the German speaking world Ruth Ellen Boetcher Joeres is a professor of German at the University of Minnesota Marjorie Gelus is a professor of German at California State University at Sacramento
