Fast Speaking Woman: Chants and Essays Anne Waldman, 1996-05 Anne Waldman world renowned for her high energy poetry performances is the author of over thirty books and chapbooks of poetry She is the co founder and director of The Jack Kerouac School of Disembodied Poetics at the Naropa Institute in Boulder Colorado Fast Speaking Woman & Other Chants Anne Waldman, 1975 Girls who Wore Black Ronna Johnson, Nancy McCampbell Grace, 2002 The contributors to this volume attempt to fill the gap in critical consideration of women writers of the Beat Generation and evaluate their lives and literary output helping the reader appreciate their unique diverse voices during a dynamic moment of profound cultural change Breaking the Rule of Cool Nancy M. Grace, Ronna C. Johnson, 2014-07-28 The Beat movement nurtured many female dissidents and artists who contributed to Beat culture and connected the Beats with the second wave of the women's movement Although they have often been eclipsed by the men of the Beat Generation the women's contributions to Beat literature are considerable Covering writers from the beginning of the movement in the 1950s and extending to the present this book features interviews with nine of the best known women Beat writers including Diane di Prima Ruth Weiss Joyce Johnson Hettie Jones Joanne Kyger Brenda Frazer Bonnie Bremser Janine Pommy Vega Anne Waldman and the critic Ann Charters Each writer is presented by a biographical essay that details her literary or scholarly accomplishments In these recent interviews the nine writers recall their lives in Beat bohemia and discuss their artistic practices Nancy M Grace outlines the goals and revelations of the interviews and introduces the community of female Beat writers created in their conversations with the authors Although they have not received attention equal to the men women Beat writers rebelled against mainstream roles for young women and were exuberant participants in creating the Beat scene Mapping their unique identities in the Beat movement Ronna C Johnson shows how their poetry fiction and memoirs broke the male rule that defined Beat women as silent bohemian chicks rather than artistic peers Breaking the Rule of Cool combines the interviews with literary criticism and biography to illustrate the vivacity and intensity of women Beat writers and argues that American literature was revitalized as much by the women's work as by that of their male counterparts

Modern American Counter Writing A. Robert Lee, 2010-01-21 The dissident voice in US culture might almost be said to have been born with the territory Its span runs from Roger Williams to Thoreau Anne Bradstreet to Gertrude Stein Ambrose Bierce to the New Journalism The Beats to the recent Bad Subjects cyber crowd This new study analyses three recent literary tranches in the tradition a re envisioning of the whole Beat web or circuit a consortium of postwar outlaw voices Hunter Thompson to Frank Chin Joan Didion to Kathy Acker and a latest purview of what all too casually has been designated ethnic writing The aim is to set up and explore these different counter seams of modern American writing those which sit outside or at least awkwardly within agreed literary canons Ideas of Order in Contemporary American Poetry Diana von Finck, Oliver Scheiding, 2007 Impossible to Hold Avital Bloch, Lauri Umansky, 2005-02 Revels in the complexities of female identity and American culture The collection's sixteen original essays move beyond conventional discussions of hippie chicks and Weatherwomen to examine the diverse lives of women who helped to shape religion sports literature and music among other aspects of the cultural hodgepodge known as the sixties From familiar names like Yoko Ono Carole King and Joan Baez to lesser known figures like Anita Caspary and Barbara Deming the women represent a variety of points on the celebrity and feminist spectrums The book traces women who sought to break into male fields women whose personae and work link the radical sixties to earlier cultural traditions and those who consciously confronted power structures and demanded change from publisher information

Sonic Stagings of U.S. Postwar Audiopoetry Ulla Stackmann, 2025-08-04 As the first study of its kind this book explores the publication of poetry on sound carriers in the US postwar era from an aesthetic as well as an historical point of view Combining approaches from media and literary studies it explains why labels and individuals like Amiri Baraka Bernadette Mayer or John Giorno straddled the lines between music poetry and visual arts using audio recording and playing devices It sheds light on the sonic imaginaries that commercial and avant gardist recording projects sought to mobilize and sometimes also unwittingly reproduced in this context

Elegies And Dirty Truths Bruce Rimell, 2024-06-14 A dark brutally honest and sometimes sordid voyage written with a wired savage voice into the promiscuous heart of a gay Queer and hyperactive ADHD outsider who has internalised a world of pain but still finds himself standing still surviving don't freak if this all goes horribly wrong it's fine Trigger warnings run their gauntlets everywhere but there are moments of beauty and sorrow which is beauty in another guise don't see my eagerness my tears or if my eyes blank it's fine Not for the faint hearted perhaps this collection jumps frenetically from elegiac tributes for queer heroes to self destructive sexual acts in a kind of shadowy no place and no time confronting casual encounters abuse and queerphobic hate towards a poetic self attempting to act as an antenna for Queer suffering everywhere don't stop I'll be your willing sacrifice

Frank O'Hara and the Poetics of Saying 'I' Micah Mattix, 2011-03-03 While recent works of criticism on Frank O'Hara have focused on the technical similarities between his poetry and painting or between his use of language and poststructuralism Frank O'Hara and the Poetics of Saying I argues that what is most significant in O'Hara's work is not such much his borrowing from painters or his proto Derridean use of language but his preoccupation with self exploration and the temporal effects of his work as artifacts Following Pasternak's understanding of artistic inspiration as an act of love for the material world O'Hara explores moments of experience in an effort to both complicate and enrich our experience of the material world On the one hand in poems such as Second Avenue for example O'Hara works to muddy language through which experience is in part mediated with the use of parataxis allusions and absurd metaphors and similes On the other in his I do this I do that poems he names the events of his lunch hour in an effort among other things to experience time as a moment of fullness rather than as a moment of loss The book argues furthermore that O'Hara's view of the self as both an expression of the creative force at work in the world and as the temporal aggregate of finite experiences places him between so called Romantic and postmodern theories of the lyric While it is often argued that O Hara is a forerunner of a new critically informed materialist poetics this study concludes that O Hara s work is somewhat less radical in its understanding of poetic meaning than is often claimed Moreover while O Hara is preoccupied with his experience in his poems the book argues that he espouses in some respects a rather traditional view of love In addition to being a metaphor for the creative act love for O Hara is the chance coming together of two entities Yet one of the ironies of this is that while love is for O Hara a feeling that is the result of movement or the unexpected coming together of two otherwise separ
