The Testing Trap George Hillocks, 2002-04-12 Do statewide assessments really do what they are supposed to do Through interviews with over three hundred teachers and administrators Hillocks examines whether state writing tests in Illinois Kentucky Oregon New York and Texas actually improve students' ability to express their thinking in writing Ultimately

Hillocks argues that the majority of existing tests actually have a harmful effect on the way students are taught to write. In addition to providing analyses of assessments that do not encourage good writing, The Testing Trap contrasts them to those that do. Concluding with practical procedures for examining and evaluating writing assessments, this book is a provocative and essential read for administrators, teachers, policymakers, parents, and all who care about the education of our children.

Writing 7-Minute Inspirational Life Experience Vignettes Anne Hart, 2004-06-09 Put direct experience in a small package and launch it worldwide. Write your life story in short vignettes of 150 to 1800 words. Write eulogies and anecdotes or vignettes of life stories and personal histories for mini biographies and autobiographies. Then condense or contract the life stories or personal histories into PowerPoint presentations and similar slide shows on disks using lots of photos and one page of life story. Finally, collect lots of vignettes and flesh out the vignettes linking them together into first person diary style novels and books, plays, skits, or other larger works. Write memoirs or eulogies for people or ghostwrite biographies and autobiographies for others. The vignette can be read in ten minutes. So fill magazine space with a direct experience vignette. Magazine space needs only 1500 words. When you link many vignettes together, each forms a book chapter or can be adapted to a play or script. Included are a full-length diary format, first person novel, and a three act play including a monologue for performances. There's a
