Expressions Of Ethnography Novel Approaches To Qualitative Methods:

Expressions of Ethnography Robin Patric Clair, 2012-02-01 Expressions of Ethnography embraces the idea that alternative genres may be used to express culture Using examples of a wide variety of cultural phenomena contemporary ways to practice ethnography and novel forms of expressing the cultural experience the book offers an eclectic mix of short stories novels and poetry as well as traditional scholarly reports of poignant provocative and powerful cultural phenomena Included are accounts of recovery following the terrorist attacks of 9 11 life as a prison guard surviving child abuse and coping via an eating disorder dealing with disabilities living the gay life birthing babies as well as searching for birth mothers Special attention is given to dialogue from dialogue with families and friends to American ethnographers interviewing Thai managers

Qualitative Communication Research Methods Thomas R. Lindlof, Bryan C. Taylor, 2011 While many volumes discuss qualitative methods only Qualitative Communication Research Methods focuses on the history and diversity of their use within the communication discipline This volume is written by for and about communication scholars It introduces readers from any background to every step of the qualitative research process from developing research topics and questions all the way through writing a final report In addition to covering the scope of theories and methods currently used in qualitative communication research this book also discusses important trends influencing the future of that research Key features in this new edition include A more clear and direct writing style suitable for use in both undergraduate and graduate courses Numerous practical examples and exercises designed to reinforce student learning of concepts A critical guide to the contexts of qualitative research More than ever qualitative researchers operate in institutional contexts that present new dilemmas The book brings readers up to date on related ethical political and practical issues including the influences of globalization on the design and conduct of research the appropriate use of recording technology in conducting fieldwork the unique challenges and opportunities related to studying multi media on line environments and ongoing innovation and controversy surrounding genres and formats of qualitative writing An integrated suite of chapters on data producing methods In addition to updated discussions of participant observation and qualitative interviewing this edition includes a new chapter on the study of material culture and documents Together these three chapters help readers to learn how fieldwork methods can successfully combine in a flexible integrated fashion Cutting edge technological developments The book informs and advises readers about the latest developments in technology for qualitative communication research This discussion focuses on how new media such as e mail texting cell phone video and blogging not only form topics of research but also the means of recording analyzing and textually representing data

Qualitative Methods Dr. Salma Seth, Dr. N.K. Chadha, Dr. Harpreet Bhatia, 2022-05-16 This book aims to provide researchers who are new or relatively new to qualitative research with the methodological tools and conceptual maps they need to navigate their way through the process It describes the uncertainties surrounding qualitative research and the many dilemmas faced by researchers It illustrates these by drawing on the experiences of researchers with varying degrees of expertise in qualitative research. It also provides readers with the necessary background knowledge and raises their awareness of the questions they will need to address to help them make informed decisions about how to deal with these uncertainties and dilemmas. The contents of the book are organized in a way that reflects the three main objectives that the authors had in mind. The first objective was to provide readers with the necessary background knowledge and an awareness of the questions they will need to address in order to make informed decisions about whether to conduct qualitative research and if they decide to follow a qualitative path which particular qualitative approaches would be suited to their research goals. The second objective was to equip readers with the basic tools to carry out their analysis by providing detailed contextualized coverage of the practicalities of the qualitative methods approaches. In addition, the book includes accounts of an actual analysis of a specific data set in a step by step manner using the approaches. The third objective was to provide the reader with guidance as to how to write up qualitative research in general and the ethical considerations of qualitative inquiry in the concluding chapter.

Defining Sport Communication
Andrew C. Billings, 2016-10-14 Defining Sport Communication is a comprehensive resource addressing core topics and issues including humanistic, organizational, relational, and mediated approaches to the study of sport communication. It provides foundational work in sport communication for students and scholars, reflecting the abundance of research published in recent years and the ever increasing interest in this area of study. Bringing together scholars from various epistemological viewpoints within communication, this volume provides a unique opportunity for defining the breadth and depth of sport communication research. It will serve as a seminal reference for existing scholarship while also providing an agenda for future research.

WRITING QUALITATIVE INQUIRY H.L. Goodall, Jr., 2012-03-15 Responding to the rapid growth of personal narrative as a method of inquiry among qualitative scholars, Bud Goodall offers a concise volume of practical advice for scholars and students seeking to work in this tradition. He provides writing tips and strategies from a well published, successful author of creative nonfiction and concrete guidance on finding appropriate outlets for your work. For readers, he offers a set of criteria to assess the quality of creative nonfiction writing. Goodall suggests paths to success within the academy, still rife with political sinkholes for the narrative ethnographer, and ways of building a career as a public scholar. Goodall's work serves as both a writing manual and career guide for those in qualitative inquiry.

Searching for an Autoethnographic Ethic Stephen Andrew, 2017-01-12 This volume is a call for integrity in autoethnographic research. Stephen Andrew weaves together philosophy, critical theory, and extended self reflections to demonstrate how and why qualitative researchers should assess the ethical quality of their work. He also offers practical tools designed to limit the likelihood of self indulgence and solipsism in first person writing. Equally instructive and exemplary, his work is written in a relatable style that draws readers in and encourages them to think critically about the implications and effects of their writing. Examines the history of qualitative and autoethnographic research. Provides implementable strategies for textualizing lived experiences and relationships with others      Migration and the Politics of Methodology Kirsten Emiko McAllister, Ayaka Yoshimizu, Daniel Ahadi, 2025-05-30 This volume examines the politics of fieldwork and the challenges of researching migrants constructed as outsiders both nationally and transnationally Based on research with undocumented migrants temporary workers refugees international students and those who having received citizenship status find their lives to be discursively and legally restricted it shows how interdisciplinary fieldwork based approaches can provide detailed accounts of migrants voices and their conditions of existence offering insights into the ways in which they understand and take part in producing their transnational worlds Applying critical self reflexive methodological approaches that challenge assumptions about who has the authority to produce knowledge and what types of knowledge have the authority of truth Migration and the Politics of Methodology will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology geography and communication and cultural studies with interests in research methods and migration      Negotiating Group Identity in the Research Process Anastacia Kurylo, 2016-10-28 Negotiating Group Identity in the Research Process Are You In or Are You Out focuses on researcher identity and the role it plays in conducting research whether as a member of the culture being studied i e an insider or as an outsider to that culture Contributors address the problems researchers face as insiders and outsiders the practical strategies used to overcome related obstacles the implications of insider outsider status for the design of the study the value of insider and outsider perspectives the impact of this on the findings of a study the implications for advocating on behalf of a group being studied and other important topics These scholars are from within and outside the field of communication and include well known and emerging scholars who have studied a multitude of groups using various methodological strategies      Girls Behind Bars Suniti Sharma, 2012-12-05 While scholarship on the education of youth behind bars has largely focused on boys more than one in three youth arrests in the USA is female and Girls Behind Bars sets out to address this imbalance The book offers autobiographies life stories and counter stories in order to challenge simplistic generalizations and empirical prescriptions Girls Behind Bars provides the educational community with critical perspectives that examine empiricist epistemologies and positivist methodologies that label certain groups of girls as delinquent and mark them for punitive and corrective treatment behind bars Sharma opens up the discussion on girls gender desire and sexuality by offering a language for these issues absent in educational discourse Finally the book supports calls for educators and practitioners in their desire to envision and create transformative spaces that enable young girls behind bars to reclaim their education Including a foreword by William Ayers and Bernadine Dohrn this important and powerful book gives voice to a neglected silenced and misrepresented population young girls behind bars      Internet Inquiry Annette N. Markham, Nancy K. Metatheory and Interviewing Emily J. Haas, Marifran Mattson, 2014-12-11

Metatheory and Interviewing: Harm Reduction and Motorcycle Safety in Practice describes and applies a unique approach for advancing harm reduction theory. Emily J. Haas and Marifran Mattson argue that using harm reduction as a metatheory to guide qualitative interviews strengthens the use and acceptance of harm reduction and the application of constructs within health theories. Through analysis of in-depth interviews with respective participants at risk motorcyclists, which are informed by harm reduction metatheory, the authors examine how this unique approach to interviewing can be used to link metatheory, theory, methodology, and ultimately application and translation of research results. Metatheory and Interviewing culminates with a discussion of how the way we conduct and analyze interviews facilitates a deeper, more intimate conversation with research participants by encouraging them to incorporate the same overarching harm reduction framework to provide feedback about changing specific health behaviors. Scholars of health communication and research will understand the critical role of a humanistic attitude and pragmatic communication with participants, as well as the importance of further extrapolating these strategies to their broader target audience.

The Oxford Handbook of Ethnographies of Crime and Criminal Justice Sandra M. Bucerius, Kevin D. Haggerty, Luca Berardi, 2022

The Oxford Handbook of Ethnographies of Crime and Criminal Justice provides critical and current reviews of key research topics, issues, and debates that crime ethnographers have been grappling with for over a century. This volume brings together an outstanding group of scholars to discuss various research traditions, the ethical and pragmatic challenges associated with conducting crime-related fieldwork, relevant policy recommendations for practitioners in the field, and areas of future research for crime ethnographers.
