

Preface

It's only appropriate to begin this book with a look at extreme entrepreneurs' (EEs) aspirations beyond their business spheres. In fact, the visionary quality is the great EE unifier. The theme threads through all the succeeding chapters and topics—and forms the common link among all the individuals discussed or mentioned in this book.

In all their endeavors, the extremists see possibilities that “mere mortals” fail to notice or can't summon up the combination of nerve, confidence, and determination to tackle. From breakthrough selling propositions, to maverick marketing maneuvers, larger-than-life image conjurings, and sales manifestos, extreme entrepreneurs seem to follow road signs on routes no one else can fathom.

The entrepreneurs described in these pages are a representative sample, not a comprehensive catalog. There are countless other EEs that would merit inclusion, many just as amazing (or more so) as the ones covered herein. Several who come to mind are:
