Hass,2013-11-01 Explores the rise of the idea of nothing in Western modernity and how its figuration is transforming and offering new possibilities In this groundbreaking interdisciplinary history of ideas Andrew W Hass explores the ascendancy of the concept of nothing into late modernity He argues that the rise of the reality of nothing in religion philosophy and literature has taken place only against the decline of the concept of One a shift from a sovereign understanding of the One unity universality toward the figure of the O a cipher figure that as nonentity is nevertheless determinant of other realities The figuring of this O culminates in a proliferation of literary expressions of nothingness void and absence from 1940 to 1960 but by century s end this movement has shifted from linear progression to mutation whereby religion theology philosophy literature and other critical modes of thought such as feminism merge into a shared circular activity The writer W H Auden lends his name to this O his long poetic work The Sea and the Mirror an exemplary manifestation of its implications Hass examines this work along with that of a host of writers philosophers and theologians to trace the revolutionary hermeneutics and creative space of the O and to provide the reasoning of why nothing is now such a powerful force in the imagination of the twenty first century and of how it might move us through and beyond our turbulent times American Journal of Ophthalmology ,1922 Medical Record George Frederick Shrady,Thomas Lathrop Stedman,1890 The Mirror Sabine Melchoir-Bonnet,2014-06-03 This engaging and witty cultural history traces the evolution of the mirror from antiquity to the present day illustrating its journey from wondrous object to ordinary trinket With its earliest invention the mirror allowed us to gaze upon ourselves bestowing a power both fascinating and terrifying The Optician and Scientific Instrument Maker ,1928 Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States.
