Claiming Abraham Michael Lodahl, 2010-04-01 Many of the Bible's characters and stories are also found in the Qur'an but there are often differing details or new twists in the Qur'an's retelling of biblical narrative. In this compelling book, seasoned theologian Michael Lodahl explores these fascinating divergences to discover the theological difference they make. Writing from a Christian perspective that is respectful of the Islamic tradition, Lodahl offers an accessible introduction to Muslim theology and to the Qur'an's leading themes to help readers better understand Islam. Lodahl compares and contrasts how the Bible and the Qur'an depict and treat certain characters in common to both religions, including Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus. He offers theological reflection on doctrines held in common by Christians and Muslims, such as creation, revelation, and the resurrection of the body. Lodahl also explores the Jewish tradition as an important source for understanding the Qur'an.

The Mischievous Muse: Extant Poetry and Prose by Ibn Quzmān of Córdoba (d. AH 555/AD 1160) James T. Monroe, 2017-04-03

The first part of this work includes all the known works of the twelfth-century Andalusī author Ibn Quzmān, most of which are zajal poems composed in the colloquial dialect of Andalus. They have been edited in a Romanized transliteration and are accompanied by a facing-page English prose translation along with notes and commentaries intended to elucidate matters relevant to each poem. In the second part of the work, sixteen chapters are devoted to analyzing specific poems from a literary perspective in order to delve into their meaning and thereby explain the poet's literary goals.

Gog and Magog Georges Tamer, Andrew Mein, Lutz Greisiger, 2023-12-31 The tale of a collective evil force known as Gog and Magog has occupied the imagination of Jews, Christians, and Muslims for millennia, finding expression in literary and scholarly works and other cultural artifacts. This book gathers the papers from two conferences at the University of Erlangen-Nuremberg by scholars ranging from history to religious studies to art history and is the most thorough work on the subject to date.

The Qur'an and Its Biblical Reflexes Mark Durie, 2018-08-15 This path-breaking book sets aside the traditional story of the life of Muhammad and inquires into the internal history of the Qur'an itself. Drawing on fresh insights from linguistics and theology, Durie puts forward a new and very different explanation for the Mecca-Medina division, attributing it to a theological crisis which arose in the Qur'anic community. Through careful investigation of theologically charged topics such as prophecy, Satan, sin, the oneness of God, covenant, warfare, divine presence, and holiness, Durie questions whether the Qur'an and Bible really do share a deeper connection. He invites the reader to set aside the frames through which the Qur'an has been viewed in the past, whether Biblical or Islamic, and invites us to attend to the Qur'an's distinctive and unique theological vision in its own terms.

Broken Cities Martin Devecka, 2020-09-01 A comparative study of cities that fell into ruin through human involvement. We have been taught to think of ruins as historical artifacts relegated to the past by a catastrophic event. Instead, Martin Devecka argues that we should see them as processes taking place over a long present. In Broken Cities, Devecka offers a wide-ranging comparative study of ruination, the process by which monuments, architectural sites, and urban centers decay into ruin over time Weaving together four case studies of classical Athens late antique Rome medieval Baghdad and sixteenth century Mexico City Devecka shows that ruination is a complex social process largely contingent on changing imperial control rather than the result of immediate or natural events Drawing on literature legal texts epigraphic evidence and the narratives embodied in monuments and painting Broken Cities is an expansive and nuanced study that holds great significance for the field of historiography Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London University of London.
