Exposition On The Epistle To The Romans Cistercian Fathers Series:

Exposition on the Epistle to the Romans William (of Saint-Thierry, Abbot of Saint-Thierry), 1980      Commentary on the Epistle to the Romans Peter Abelard, 2011 Despite its importance and the frequent references made to it by modern scholars this commentary has never before been translated into English in its entirety This volume which includes an extensive introduction fills this gap thus providing a needed contribution to medieval scholarship      A Companion to St. Paul in the Middle Ages Steven Cartwright, 2012-11-09 Over the last twenty years increasing attention has been given to the interpretation of St Paul in the Middle Ages This is one of the first scholarly volumes to look broadly at the understanding and use of Paul in medieval Europe It focuses not only on the interpretation of the Apostle by patristic and medieval exegetes but also on the use of his teachings by church reformers canon lawyers and spiritual teachers and his portrayal in art and vernacular literature and culture By bringing together both exegetical studies of Pauline interpretation with explorations of newer themes this book provides a more complete view of the medieval Paul than has previously been available Contributors include Csaba Nemeth Ian Levy Thomas Scheck Joshua Papsdorf Valerie Heuchan Ann Collins Lisa Fagin Davis James Morey Ken Grant Colt Anderson Franklin Harkins Steven Cartwright and Aaron Canty      The Trinity Anne Hunt, 2010-04-01 Though trinitarian theology has enjoyed a resurgence of interest in the last few years there is a lamentable lacuna in much of this study a gap between intellectual rigor and concrete experience While the contributions of Augustine of Hippo and Thomas Aquinas are important to any foundational study of the Trinity a strictly philosophical and scholastic approach has proved to be both contentious and problematic As a result many are left wanting for more meaningful expressions of this profound mystery Anne Hunt fills this lacuna and offers a fresh avenue of reflection She explores the distinctly trinitarian insights of a number of Christian mystics Hildegard of Bingen and Meister Eckhart Bonaventure and Elizabeth of the Trinity Teresa of Avila and John of the Cross William of St Thierry and Julian of Norwich Readers will find that the mystery of the divine life and love that was so tangibly given and so palpably experienced by these mystics is now offered to us through them Anne Hunt is faculty dean of theology and philosophy at Australian Catholic University She is currently vice president of the Australian Catholic Theological Association She is author of Trinity Nexus of the Mysteries of Christian Faith What Are They Saying About the Trinity and The Trinity and the Paschal Mystery      Medieval Readings of Romans William S. Campbell, Peter S. Hawkins, Brenda Deen Schildgen, 2007-11-15 This sixth volume of the Romans through History and Culture series consists of 14 contributions by North American and European medievalists and Pauline scholars who discuss significant readings of Romans through the twelfth and thirteenth centuries to the eve of the Reformation The commentaries of Abelard William of St Thierry Thomas Aquinas and Nicolas of Lyra and the wider influence of Romans as reflected in the letters of Heloise and the works of Dante demonstrate the reception of Romans at this period Starting with an introduction inviting the reader to into the biblical environment of the Middle Ages and suggesting the varied ways in which Paul was understood in both high clerical culture and among the people it also offers a summary of the work done by each of the authors This volume attests the dominant role of scripture in communal life and witnesses to the pervasive influence of Paul's letter to the Romans in the flourishing discussions on Scripture and theology Religious Violence Between Christians and Jews A. Abulafia, 2001-12-03 Exploring deep into the history of the conflict between Christians and Jews from medieval to modern times this wide ranging volume which includes newly uncovered material from the recently opened post Soviet archives seeks to bring positive understanding to controversial issues of inter faith confrontation Here a number of eminent scholars from around the globe come together to discuss openly and objectively the dynamics of Jewish creative response in the face of violence Through the analysis of the histories of both the Christian and Jewish religious traditions we are brought to an understanding of their relationship as a modern day phenomenon The Righteousness of God Charles Lee Irons, 2015-03-10 Advocates of the New Perspective on Paul appeal to the view that righteousness in biblical theology is a Verhältnisbegriff relational concept This is the view that righteousness does not mean conformity to a norm nor is it an essentially legal concept rather righteousness denotes the fulfillment of the demands of a relationship since the relationship itself is the norm This relational interpretation of righteousness was first put forward by Hermann Cremer in 1899 and exercised a profound influence in biblical scholarship throughout the 20th century It lies at the root of the New Perspective claim that the righteousness of God in Paul is a cipher for God's saving faithfulness to his covenant a view defended by N T Wright among others Charles Lee Irons provides a critical examination of Cremer's chief arguments for the relational covenant faithfulness interpretation The author argues instead for the view that the righteousness of God in Rom 1:17:3-21:22:10:3-2 Cor 5:21 and Phil 3:9 is the status of righteousness that comes from God as a gift "Take Hold of the Robe of a Jew": Herbert of Bosham's Christian Hebraism Deborah Goodwin, 2006-03-01 This engaging meticulously documented study explores the complex sometimes conflicting motives of Christian hebraists It locates Herbert of Bosham's twelfth century Psalms commentary at the nexus of the intellectual and social movements of his day and elucidates the complex situations that contributed to Christians divergent perspectives on the Jews Was the twelfth century a rare period of collaboration between Christian and Jewish exegetes or did anti-Semitism originate in the texts of the era's Christian polemicists Modern scholars have been divided on these questions This study of Herbert's commentary which relied on the Hebrew commentary of R Solomon ben Isaac of Troyes articulates a more nuanced integrated approach to medieval Jewish Christian relations and provides transcriptions from the unpublished manuscript Introduction to Medieval Theology Rik Van Nieuwenhove, 2022-03-24 The best introduction to medieval theology from the time of St Augustine to the 14th century in an expanded 2nd edition This volume invites us to think along with major theologians and spiritual authors in order to understand how pre modern thought can enrich and challenge us in a post modern context John of Salisbury John Hosler, 2013-05-13 The English scholar John of Salisbury was a major intellectual of the twelfth century whose contributions to the fields of education grammar political theory and rhetoric are well known His significance is amplified further in John of Salisbury Military Authority of the Twelfth Century Renaissance in which John D Hosler examines his heretofore overlooked contributions to the ideals and practice of medieval warfare This book surveys an array of military topics present within John's extant corpus including generalship strategy tactics logistics military organization and training it also collates John's military lexicon and charts the influence of classical texts upon his conceptualization of war John of Salisbury it argues deserves inclusion in the roll call of military theoreticians and writers of pre Reformation Europe
