

Becoming Moss

I lie on the ground.
I open my mouth.
I suck on a spoon.
I embrace a stone.
A beetle crawls by.
I empty my mind
I stuff it with grass
I'm green, I repeat.

The sun is a drink
the yellowest squash
I can't get enough
I can't get enough
I can't get enough
I can't get enough
I can't get enough
I can't get enough

Princeton's Center for Digital Humanities CDH and the mix of computational and aesthetic elements in the study of prosody including the study of versification and meter in the broader context of English literary study as a discipline Across these three arcs Martin argues that scholars must take seriously the idea of digital media as mediation through which textual forms are transformed into data and delivered to us via data structures and that our reading of historical texts in digital forms must reckon with these mediations She also demonstrates the connection between the intellectual labor of studying prosody or any historical object and the intellectual labor of fostering a collaborative research process This is a book she writes about the shifting grounds of knowledge production in the digital age and how we might situate ourselves amid these shifts by returning to all things poetry
