The PhD Experience in African Higher Education John Mashayamombe,Ruth Murambadoro,uMbuso weNkosi,2022-11-08 The PhD Experience in African Higher Education edited by Ruth Murambadoro John Mashayamombe and uMbuso weNkosi addresses the growing call to invest in the humanities and social sciences by exploring the nature of doctoral training in select institutions of higher learning in South Africa In the past two decades South Africa has become a key player in the global higher education landscape and dubbed the hub for doctoral training in Africa because of its developed educational infrastructure and highly ranked universities Given South Africa s positioning the contributors in this volume argue that the government donors universities and faculty have a socio legal duty to ensure that doctoral programs in the humanities and social sciences are not offered to amass numbers of African graduates but are grounded on equipping students with both hard and soft skills necessary to succeed This is achieved by offering skills training and research apprenticeships fostered in communities of practice because as the contributors show the humanities and social sciences are the backbone of society Furthermore they argue that treating doctoral candidates as equal partners is emancipatory because intellectual projects are best nurtured through collaborative learning

Passion for Love and Happiness Dr. A.A. Syed, 2009-08 Dr. A.A. Syed passed away on April 4th, 2020, surrounded by family. In the backdrop of an unprecedented global pandemic, COVID-19, we can only imagine a world where he remained to serve these patients on the front lines as a respirologist, as he continued to serve as up until his final weeks. 100% of proceeds from the digital release will go to Heart and Stroke Foundation in memory of his close personal friend who passed away several years ago. In Passion for Love and Happiness, Dr. A.A. Syed blends the best of Eastern and Western philosophy and wisdom to give practical guidance that is at the same time inspiring and uplifting. Dr. Syed, who was born in Hyderabad, India, and emigrated to Canada in 1982, is in a unique position to unite these spiritual and cultural traditions and to use them to help others learn about the process of achieving contentment. As a practicing specialist in respirology and in internal and critical care medicine, Dr. Syed can also draw on his personal pragmatic experiences with life and death choices to teach us to live life to the fullest, to laugh, love, learn, and listen to our own hearts and to others so we can attain the mental and ethical discipline that enables us to forgive, to let go of pain and suffering, and to be our very best selves. Reading Dr. Syed's exquisitely simple interpretations of timeless philosophies has helped me cope with personal tragedies. It has changed my give-up attitude with living with terminal cancer to one of calmness, achieving a positive and loving outlook. The victim in me has now not only been rescued but has become a rescuer in the process. Don't just read the words. DO IT. Carolyn Fallis Hale, a must-read for all spouses to improve their loving relationships. Syeda Syed.

Explanatory Notes Upon the New Testament John Wesley, 1757 Sermons from Mind and Heart Rodney Wallace Kennedy, 2011-07-27 Sermons from Mind and Heart attempts to show the week-by-week theological work that a pastor does. The combining of the intellectual with the emotional is rooted in the categories of logos and pathos from Aristotle's Rhetoric. Some of the sermons have substantive theological reflections with multiple sources and are thus heavily footnoted; other sermons have no footnotes. This doesn't mean that any sermon lacks logos or pathos, but that there is an interplay, a back-and-forth of a pastor struggling to communicate the Gospel in a way that honors both the then of Scripture and the now of contemporary life. Rhetorical scholarship and methodology are important in understanding the content and the structure of the sermons What matters most is the sense that these sermons are an ongoing theological conversation between the pastor and his congregation Sermons after all are meant to be heard and they exist in the moment as authentic rhetorical acts All other versions of the sermon including this written form are only echoes of the primal sermonic experience Explanatory Notes Upon the New Testament. By John Wesley ... The Second Edition ,1757
