The Neighbor Slavoj Žižek,Eric L. Santner,Kenneth Reinhard,2013-07-12 In Civilization and Its Discontents

Freud made abundantly clear what he thought about the biblical injunction first articulated in Leviticus 19:18 and then elaborated in Christian teachings to love one's neighbor as oneself. Let us adopt a naive attitude towards it; he proposed as though we were hearing it for the first time we shall be unable then to suppress a feeling of surprise and bewilderment. After the horrors of World War II, the Holocaust and Stalinism, Leviticus 19:18 seems even less conceivable but all the more urgent now than Freud imagined. In The Neighbor, three of the most significant intellectuals working in psychoanalysis and critical theory collaborate to show how this problem of neighbor love opens questions that are fundamental to ethical inquiry and that suggest a new theological configuration of political theory. Their three extended essays explore today's central historical problem: the persistence of the theological in the political. In Toward a Political Theology of the Neighbor, Kenneth Reinhard supplements Carl Schmitt's political theology of the enemy and friend with a political theology of the neighbor based in psychoanalysis. In Miracles Happen, Eric L. Santner extends the book's exploration of neighbor love through a bracing reassessment of Benjamin and Rosenzweig. And in an impassioned plea for ethical violence, Slavoj Žižek's Neighbors and Other Monsters reconsiders the idea of excess to rehabilitate a positive sense of the inhuman and challenge the influence of Levinas on contemporary ethical thought. A rich and suggestive account of the interplay between love and hate, self and other, personal and political, The Neighbor has proven to be a touchstone across the humanities and a crucial text for understanding the persistence of political theology in secular modernity. This new edition contains a new preface by the authors.

The Long Short Story: Novellas A.A. Garrison, 2014-01-06. Novella, not a fictional prose narrative that is longer and more complex than a short story. Some folks like short stories; others enjoy the deeper waters of a novel. But what about those times when a short story is too short and a proper novel too long? Enter the novella, that literary stopgap. Collected here are five such long shorts of a speculative bent: Deadheading with Max, a quietly fantastic travel story; Everything's Connected, an outrageous sci-fi slapstick romp; Intangible, a paranormal drama depicting the strangest of thefts; The Birth of Edenborough, a post-apocalyptic romance; The Dead Man's Phone, a lighthearted horror thriller. The Long Short Story guaranteed to occupy that lengthy commute or trip to the park when other fiction just wouldn't sit right.

One of the most acclaimed and best political biographies of its time, Justice for All is a monumental work dedicated to a complicated and principled figure that will become a seminal work of twentieth-century U.S. history. In Justice for All, Jim Newton, an award-winning journalist for the Los Angeles Times, brings readers the first truly comprehensive consideration of Earl Warren, the politician turned Chief Justice who refashioned the place of the court in American life through landmark Supreme Court cases whose names have entered the common parlance: Brown v. Board of Education, Griswold v. Connecticut, Miranda v. Arizona, to name just a few. Drawing on unmatched access to government, academic, and private documents,
