A Dutch Modernist Donald Langmead,Willem Marinus Dudok,1996-04-18 This self taught Dutch architect was among the most widely copied architects of the 1930s and 1940s His international influence is all the more amazing when one considers that most of his architecture was built in the provincial town of Hilversum Travel word of mouth and literature spread the news of his humane modern approach to building design The more than 1 200 bibliographic entries in this work are presented alphabetically by decades and further by genres Each is summarized described and evaluated in the context of a critical overview of Dudok s career Architectural scholars and students will profit from this comprehensive guide to the international literature on one of the most emulated champions of modern architecture For too long much was made in the English language architectural literature of Germany s pioneer role in developing Modernism That contribution was undeniably valuable but the Dutch were unfairly overlooked however Dudok s work was not Hilversum became a magnet for young foreign architects in the 1930s He cast his spell upon much of continental Europe the United States and Britain and throughout the 1940s his style was so widely mimicked that a new adjective was coined dudoky This volume will reintroduce the importance of Dudok s work to today s scholars and students British Book News ,1985 Behind the Seen Studio
