Faber Of Drink Drinkers And Drinking:

The Faber Book of Drink, Drinkers and Drinking Simon Rae, 1993 Alcohol is mankind's favourite mind altering drug. Its effects sublime, hilarious, heroic or catastrophic have provided writers of all ages and cultures with subject matter. This anthology offers a generous selection of extracts ranging from the Epic of Gilgamesh which predates Homer by some 1500 years through Homer himself, the Bible, Beowulf, Rabelais, Chaucer, Shakespeare, Dickens and Zola to such contemporaries as Martin Amis, Thomas Pynchon, Wendy Cope and Seamus Heaney. Use and abuse, mild intoxication and violent excess, addiction and temperance, delights and perils are all considered. Writers have long enjoyed a close relationship with alcohol, sometimes too close. But as this anthology demonstrates, it has often inspired their most brilliant flights. The Faber Book of Drink, Drinkers and Drinking Simon Rae, 1991-01 Alcohol Use David B. Cooper, 2000 Addressing the impact of alcohol on various types of individual and circumstance, this in-depth and practical guide is for health professionals. A variety of perspectives including transcultural, workplace and community issues are explored. The Joy of Drinking Barbara Holland, 2008-12-01 With characteristic elegance and delicious wit, Barbara Holland, a national treasure, Philadelphia Inquirer, celebrates the age-old act of drinking in this gimlet-eyed survey of man's relationship with booze since the joyful discovery ten thousand years ago of fermented fruits and grains. In this spirited paean to alcohol, two parts cultural history, one part personal meditation, Holland takes readers on a bacchanalian romp through the Fertile Crescent, the Mermaid Tavern, Plymouth Rock and Capitol Hill and reveals, as Faulkner famously once said, how civilization indeed begins with fermentation. Filled with tasty tidbits about distillers, bootleggers, taverns, hangovers and Alcoholics Anonymous, The Joy of Drinking is a fascinating portrait of the world of pleasures fermented and distilled. How to Teach with a Hangover Fred Sedgwick, 2005-01-01 Provides teachers with a variety of tips and strategies to deal with problems they encounter in the classroom. Liquid Pleasures Professor John Burnett, John Burnett, 2012-10-02 Drinking has always meant much more than satisfying the thirst. Drinking can be a necessity, a comfort, an indulgence or a social activity. Liquid Pleasures is an engrossing study of the social history of drinks in Britain from the late seventeenth century to the present. From the first cup of tea at breakfast to mid-morning coffee to an evening beer and a night cap, John Burnett discusses individual drinks and drinking patterns which have varied not least with personal taste but also with age, gender, region and class. He shows how different ages have viewed the same drink as either demon, poison or medicine. John Burnett traces the history of what has been drunk in Britain from the hot beverage revolution of the late seventeenth century, connecting drinks and related substances such as sugar, to empire, right up to the cold drinks revolution of the late twentieth century, examining the factors which have determined these major changes in our dietary habits. Clinical Topics in Addiction Ed Day, 2007-10 Ed Day brings together 23 papers from the Royal College of Psychiatrists' popular journal Advances in Psychiatric Treatment which have been updated to give systematic, authoritative and well-referenced accounts of key clinical topics relating to substance
